Fenelon Falls, Oct. 26 ter English, of Donald, days in town.

Rev. C. S. Lord is in business this week.

A number of our your tended the Oddfellows cconk on Friday evenir a splendid time. Amon attended were Mr. and Robson, Miss Ethel Ro · A. W. Warren, S. Mas

Guy. Mrs. Edwards of Mar guest of her aunt, Mrs Arthur.

Mrs. Hugh Sharpe Sharpe and Mr. Percy in Cameron on Sunday. Mr. Clegg. of Pete through town on Tuesd Rosedale.

Miss Kline returne last week after spending in town the guest of he Bedfora.

Mrs. Hitchcock, o, T in town on Sunday in of the Lord's Day All morning she conducted the Baptist church and ing occupied the pulpit odist church and gave t addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. McKere say, are visiting in toy Mrs. E. Chambers is Lindsay the guest of he S. Morrison.

Mrs. E. A. McArthur number of lady friends ive euchre on Monday e Mr. Adams, of Adams House, Lindsay, was Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Emily, attended the Ca tea on Tuesday.

St. Andrew's congreg their anniversary service Offering on Sunday. Pr ertson, of Knox College. pulpit and preached sermons. The choir as up to its high mark, & ably assisted by Mrs. E Manilla. In the evening program was especially did duet, "Rock of Age: by Mrs. E. A. McArthur Edwards. The anthem Lord," rendered by the especially fine and the so Edwards was very much the people of St. Andrev ly indebted to Mrs. Edw kindly assisting in the I Miss Susie Wagar, of ner, spent a few days guest of Mr. and Mrs. R Mr. and Mrs. E. Hays Toronto, spent a few da the guest of Mr. and M Mr. Melville Ramsay, c is in charge of Mr. A Jewelry shop.

Mr. W. Cooke, of Cob few hours in town on funeral of Cecil only son of Mr. and Mrs took place to Fenelon Fa on Tuesday afternoon an community tites Hennet, of arrived evening with 43 large is one of the largest she here this season Mr. P. Lynch, Super Allandale, passed through Tuesday in his special herring have splendidly during the Pa our citizens are busy w these days. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph family arrived home f GET THE BEST. IT PAYS.

PAGE TWO

TORONTO, UNT. THE BEST PLACE IN CANADA

for strictly high-grade training Graduates readily get good posi-tiors. Commence now. Write to-day for catalogue. W. J. ELLIOTT, Principal Corner Yonge and Alexander-sts.

CLOTHING A PPETITE

No matter how poor an appetite you have you're bound to grow hungry when you look over our stock of suitings for this season.

Wickett Lou 2nd door to Post Printing Office - Lindsay William St.

Always reliable. Purely Vegetable. Small and easy to take

-----

J. & G. Mandrake Liver Pills hurry or husband?"

Cures headache, billiousness and indigestion.

A purely vegetable sugar coated pill which can be easily takeu by everybody.

25c Per Box

Corner Drug Store

The Canada Paint Cos.,

PRISM

BRAND

Made from pure Lead and Oil.

Hardwars, 1 Coal, [Fron

ITHE NEW CATALOGUE OF THE

OF TORONTO

contains some special guarantees of FEFF Freat interest to students who desire to attend a First: Class Reliable School: You are invited to write for it: Address to

W. H. Shaw, President, 805, Yonge Street, foronto

******* Mrs. Brooks," he commented, breaking the awkward silence.

> low seriously worried. he remarked. "Do you want me to go with you?" asked Joe.

here, and I like to hang out there." Novelized From Fugene

By J. W. Harding

Walter's Great Play

"You look as if you had just got," suggested the superintendent.

"Today-yes. But what time? should say at 10, maybe 11 o'clock." "That's probably why Joe hasn't seen you," observed Emma. "He's just taken mother and Beth as far as the theater. I don't know what keeps him. He should be back before this." "I guess he ain't run away," opined the captain, with a suspicion of grimness. "I'll wait."

"You know, Emma, that's one of the best things the captain does," said

"Waiting. When it comes to patienc and persistency he's got most Indian beat a dozen city blocks."

"Don't you mind what Smith says, Mrs. Brooks," grinned the captain. "The years he's been working for me he never showed any special signs of hurry or nervousness. How's your "Fairly well. I think he seems a litlle worried over business." "That so! What's the matter?"

"You see, in his new position he feels his responsibility."

Williams looked surprised. "Has he any special new responsibility?" be asked, his eyes wandering inquiringly to Smith, who did some more warning signaling unobserved by their

"Weil, since you raised his salary, captain, and gave him his extra work naturally he's anxious to make good," again prompted the superintendent. "Anxious to make good? Well, he'll have a chance, and soon at that." Mrs. Brooks rose, hand outstretched, and went to him, with a happy, grate-"Now that it's out I want to thank you ever so much," she said. "Thank me?" "Yes, for Joe's raise and that six months' back pay." "He told you that?"

"Sure he did," put in Smith. "He has forbidden me to speak of it to either you or Jimsy," Emma told him, "but since you mave mentioned it first I can thank you, can't I?" He did not return a direct answer, but rubbed his chin dubiously as he "So I raised his pay, eh? And dated it back six months?"

"Of course you did," asseverated Smith with emphasis. "Don't let him fool you, Emma."

"You don't know how happy it's made us all," went on Mrs. Brooks gratefully. "I feel like a new woman, and mother appreciates it." "Well, seems that I done all these things"-He stopped abruptly as the door Brooks." ned and his eyes rested on Brooks. The latter's underjaw dropped, and he turned livid with fear at the unexpected presence of the captain. He was, in fact, so startled that he nearly

"Ca-captain Williams!" he stammered, advancing tremblingly toward him "W-will you shake hands, captain?" "Sure!" replied Williams in a firm voice: "How are you, Brooks?" "1=1'm all right, I guess." "You know, Joe, you told me not no-the raise and the money," said his wife, still full of the subject and her

"No. I did. Joe," corrected Smith "You see, the captain feels"= Breeks turned upon them, snaring like a wolf at bar: "What are rou trring to do-make fun of me? Don't rou think that's it"= "Now, Brooks," interrupted the cap ain authoritatively, "you sure are nery ous. Your wife has just been telling

Mrs. Brooks, startled and alarmed. vazed at her husband. "Why, Joe, are you sick?" she de-

"No, no! Maybe it's the heat," he seplied weakly, passing his tongue ever his dried lips.

There was a moment of general emarrassment, during which Captain Villiams took stock of the room.

-xou are fixed up mighty snug here, "Yes, it is pleasant," she answered,

Williams rose, "Well, I must go,"

"No; tomorrow morning will do to see you. You know my lonely little quarters ain't more'n half a block from "The captain," added Smith, "lives in a little south sea island nook moved

"Anxious to make good? Well, he'll have a chance." into his flat. He keeps it so dirty that some say it's attractive." "That's what you get for being a bachelor," laughed Williams. He moved toward the door, and the others rose. "I'm glad to see you so happy, Mrs. Brooks," he observed, pausing and looking about him again.

"Thank you," said she. "I never did know before what a little money meant to a woman." "Perhaps that's because you don't know women."

"Oh. I know women-one kind, anyway. But Brooks is lucky in having a girl like you for a wife." "Emma, he's giving you a little south Pacific Blarney," put in Jimsy. "Maybe I am and maybe I'm not," said the captain. "But," he continued emphatically, "it's a sure thing that it I had a girl like you I'd knuckle down and earn enough money to make you happy-eh, Brooks?"

"I suppose that's what you'd do," assented that individual.

"Yes, I'd work pretty hard without kicking to please you, Mrs. Brooks, if you looked to me to make good for

"Emma," declared Smith, with his quiet smile, "if you were single Id enspect captain of getting a little soft." "But I'd earn the money," went on the captain, pursuing his train of thought. "That's the only way to get tiong. Well, I'll say good night, Mrs.

"Good night, captain. Thank you "Good night, Smith." "I may drop over later," remarked the superintendent by way of reply. "Wish you would," the captain assured him with some eagerness. "I'd like to smoke a pipe and talk awhile. Good night, Brooks." "Good night, sir."

Brooks went forward and opened the eaptain, gazing at him with sinister

"There'll be some gentlemen there who may be anxious to meet you." "Didn't know but what you might Breeks shut the deer and steed leanpaort. The muscles of his face were twitching, and he gazed with fright-ed, haunted eyes from his wife to Smith raised his hand in protest. "No, Joe; it ain't the right time yet "Why isn't it the right time?

rapped, and Williams"-"Joe, see here," he expostulated "you can't talk."

ISLAY

Islay, Oct. 24. - Mr. W. Metcalfe and his son Arthur Metcalfe, from Mariposa, near Valentia, were visitors at the home of Mr. George Metcalfe on Sunday last.

Miss Lily Pearn of Fenelon Falls recently spent a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. Graham. of this district.

Mrs. John Everson and children, from Cambray are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall

Miss Gertie Hewie is at present visiting friends in Midland,

Very many attended the funeral of the late Miss Mary Gilchrist, Woodville, to Glenarm Cemetery of Saturday last. Deceased was among the oldest residents of this district, having always resided at the home of her brother, the late Donald Gilchrist until a year ago her sister-in: law, Mrs. D. Gilchrist, and daughter Mrs. Stone, removed to Islay, Alta., and the late Miss Gilchrist took up residence in Woodville, in company with her niece, Miss Lizzie Gilchrist. Deceased was widely known and was also very highly esteemed respected by all. Although advanced in years enjoyed good health until the past summer. Deceased was a sister of the late Donald and Alexander Gil- home of Mr. Naylor on Sunday, the again after being confined to the christ and also Mrs Donald Murchis- 16th inst. on, all of whom have predeceased r?spected residents this community. The many friends in this district extend condolence. Mr. Marshall Burley, of Verulam, brother-in-law of Mr. George Met- Currins be sent as a delegate to the Cemetery. Deceased was well-known calfe, was a visitor in Islay district Annual Convention of Women's In- and highly respected by all, and a reon Sunday last. Mr. Burley has stitute, to be held in Toronto on sident of this district for many years just returned from a three week's November 15 and 16. The Novem- having resided on the farm now trip to the West, where he has many ber meeting will be held at the home owned by Mr. Dave Graham. In relatives and as they all live within of Mrs. Donald McFadyen and prom- religion he was a consistent Presbya radius of ten miles, he had the ises to be specially interesting and terian. He was a brother of Mr. pleasure of seeing them all. He profitable. A cordial invitation is Dan Spence of this district and an also had the pleasure of his first extended to all the ladies to attend. uncle of Mr. D. R. Spence. The auto ride, being driven a distance of eighty miles in one hour,

Mrs. John Jamieson spent last in Verulam. week at the home of her father, Mr.

WHAT CAN I DO FOR MY SKIN-TORTURED BABY

Is the Despairing Cry of Thousands of Mothers. A Scotchwoman Tells How Her Child was Cured.

"What can I do for my skin-tortured How many worried, worn-out eczema, tetter or other torturing, disfiguring numor, have asked themselves this question! Through neglect or improper treatment, ncreased rather than allayed. Even 1:0fear is ever-present that the skin disease will become chronic, turning the child's future into a nightmare of physical and mental

Such mothers, who have witnessed their children's suffering and who have undergone the long, sleepless nights and distracting anxiety which they alone can realize, will understand the gratitude that prompted this letter from Mrs. John Ewan, 5, Victoria St., Inverurie, Scotland, and will read it with months old: She was in an awful mess all over her body. We never thought she would get over it: We sat with her night and day for about a month, expecting every minute to see her die. The doctor gave me an olniment to fub her with but it did her no good: My mother was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from America and all the local mather was home from the local mather was home from the local mather was home from the local mather was home and local mather was home was home and local mather was home.

CHRISTMAS GIFT MAKING

I S made very easy by a "RYRIE" Catalogue. Q You can purchase from this just as satisfactorily as by visiting our store in person. ( We guarantee safe delivery prepay all postal and express charges-and refund the money if the goods are not perfectly satisfactory.

CATALOGUE F

will be mailed upon request. This contains 132 pages, in colors, of Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, China, Novelties,

RYRIE BROS., LIMITED

Diamond Merchants, Jewelers and Silversmiths 134-136-138 YONGE ST., TORONTO

HARRY RYRIE, Sec.-Treas. JAS. RYRIE, President. "在存在我们作作作作作

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moynes; Ealley was under the parental roof were in Lindsay on Saturday last to on Sunday last. see their son Carl, who is a student at the Collegiate Institute.

The Islay branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. McNabb on Wednesday of last week. There was a large attendance and excellent papers were given by members Spence, of Kirkfield, on Monday last, It was also decided that Miss Mabel

Miss Grace Metcalfe of this district many friends extend condolence. has had a week's visit with friends

The many friends of Mrs. John McDermott are pleased to hear that he is convalescent from his serious

A beef ring meeting was held the home of Mr. Thos. Christian on Saturday evening last. Owing the unfavorable weather the attendance was small, however, the necessary business was transacted for the

Mr. Charlie Metcalfe from Pleasant the throat and lungs.

We are pleased to state that Mr.

John Everson, of Albert College. Mr. Jim Wilson was visiting at the Belleville, is now able to be out | hospital for a short time as the result of a sprained ankle caused by > Many from this district attended the funeral of the late Mr. Andrew interment taking place in Glenarm

Miss May Elford is at present the guest of Miss Mary Gilchrist, Wood-

Mrs. Hugh Gilchrist visited Woodville friends on Thursday of last

Mr. George Green was at Cannington Thursday last delivering a horse previously purchased by Mr. Green of that place.

Acknowledged the highest grade stoves in Canada. Call and see these stoves, whether you wish to buy or not-and see the latest improvements in stove construction at 52 Kent-st.

Lindsay

To call on J. Hughes' Hand Made Boot and Shoe Store.

We have a large assortment of Hand Sewn Boots and Shoes to select all of best material and workmanship. If we have not any in stock to it you let us take your measure for a pair. Good Fit, Comfortable and Absolutely Waterpreef. Distance no object.

ONLY FIRST CLASS MECHANICS EMPLOYED AND YERY BEST LEATHER USED.

fill your requirements while you wait.

LINDSAY ST., and WILLIAM ST. N.

She Used Only The Natural (

THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 191

How Nova Scotia Woman Relieved of Her Heart Disease

MADE HER KIDNEYS WITH DODD'S KIDNEY AND ALL HER TROUBLES ISHED SPEEDILY AND PLETELY.

Eel Creek, Cumberland Co., Cct. 28. - Suffering from fema ney and Heart Trouble, so run nervous and depressed that all brightness had gone out of he and never expecting to be a woman again, Mrs. J. W. Leas of this place tried Dodd's Pills, and is once more in the health. Her simple statement best evidence that no case of Disease is so bad that Dodd's Pills will not cure it.

"I was treated by five do Mrs. Leadbetter states. them did me no good. The erated on me and that gave lief for a time. I had Female ney and Heart Trouble. I w nervous and run down friends did not think that I ever get better.

"An advertisement led me Dodd's Kidney Pills and I fo them a cure for all my troub cannot praise Dodd's Kidn too highly."

Female Trouble and Heart are caused by Kidney Diseas natural way to cure them is the kidneys by using Dodd's KIRKFIELD.

Kirkfield, Oct. 24.-We are

Miss Mysia McFadden

Mrs. McFadden returned l

Mr. Daniel, Mrs. Daniel a

Ewen motored to Lindsay o

from Toronto, where she ha from a two month's visit w to see Mr. Russell Smith ou

after his week's illness.

tives in Winnipeg.

visiting.

morning.

We are glad to see Mrs. Rev. Mr. Cockburn, of occupied the pulpit of the ian church on Sunday after evening. Thanksgiving services we the Methodist church

The Misses Smith a Masonic " at home " in Co Friday of last week. Miss Donalda McKinnon week end in town.

Miss Kennedy who has ing Mrs. D. G. Bruce, ret Cannington last Saturday Mrs. Parks spent last T

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM CROW

Crowley, a well-known young man of Lindsay. ed was in the prime of years of age, and had be in the employ of

One D

happened with an accid

No sense in runni the best one, then this thing, that th ately select the by to it. Ask your throat and lung No alcohol in this

Why try this thing, that old reliable family laxative