Prizes and Diplomas Awarded to Successful Pupils at Convent

A very pleasant event took place at St. Joseph's Academy, when the pupils and their parents met for the commencement exercises and awarding of prizes and diplomas to graduates of St. Joseph's Academy, Lindsay.

The program, which was as follows, was one of the best that has been given for a long time, all the numbers being exceptionally well executed:

- 1—Chorus, "Waltz Song," Giebel by the choral class.
- 2—Airs selected, violin, Misses O'- Boyle and Halfour; mandolins, Misses Carey, Parkin, White and Lonergan; Guitar, Miss M. Parkin; Piano Miss Grace McNeill.
- 3—Vocal solo, "Sweet Vale of Avoca," by Miss Minnie Granger, with violin obligato, by Miss N.
O'Boyle.
- 4—Instrumental solo, "The Bard of Erin," by Miss M. Lonergan.
- 5—Pantomime, "Rock of Ages," Academic class.
- 6—Instrumental duet, "Valse Brilllante," rendered by Misses Lonergan and Prunty.
- 7—Recitation, "The Knight's Toast," rendered by Miss E. Green-an.
- 8—Instrumental solo, "Irish Diamonds," rendered by Miss Minnie Granger.
- 9—Chorus, "Ave Maria," rendered by the choral class.

Perhaps the most pleasing event of the evening was the presentations of the prizes and diplomas which were as follows:

- Gold medal, presented by the Rt.
Reverend R. A. O'Connor, bishop of Peterboro, for sacred music, awarded to Miss Mary Lonergan.
- Gold medal, presented by the Rev.
P. J. McGuire, for English literature in Normal entrance class, awarded to Miss Ella Murtha.
- Gold medal, presented by a friend of the community, for first-class honors in third year music, awarded to Miss Winnie Granger.

Rev. Mother Clotilde, for Bible history, in senior academic department, awarded to Miss Anna O'Brien.
- Prize for Bible history in junior academic department, presented by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, awarded to Miss Mary Quinlan.
- Prize for Bible history, entrance class, presented by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, awarded to Miss Mary Gilloly.
- Prize for essay from Canadian history, presented by Rev. F. J. O'- Sullivan, awarded to Miss Maggie Killen.
- Second prizes for essay from Canadian history, presented by Rev.

awarded to Miss Kathleen Bruce.
- First prize for needlework, awarded to Miss Kathleen Prunty.
- Second prize for needlework, awarded to Miss Florence O'Brien.
- Prize for application and observance of rules, awarded to Miss Eleanor Maher.
- Normal entrance certificates obtained by Miss Cecilia Munroe and Miss Ella Murtha.
- Diplomas for stenography, obtained by Miss M. Parkin, Miss Genevieve Elmhurst, Miss Alma Young,

Banks for primary piano.

Testimonial awarded to Miss Mary Quinlan, for Senior Rudiments—Honor standing.

Testimonial awarded to Miss Alice Rothwell for Junior Vocal—Honor standing.

After the presentations several addresses were given by the following gentlemen: Right Reverend R. A.
O'Connor, Bishop of Peterboro, Father Casey, Father O'Brien and Father Guirie. All the gentlemen expressed their pleasure at being present at such a pleasing event and at the very capable manner in which the pupils had rendered the choice program.

DELLA CLARKE

AUTHOR, STAGE DIRECTOR, STAGE MANAGER

STAR

When the romantic American drama, "The White Squaw" is presented at the Academy on Nov. 8rd, patrons will have what is perhaps the most interesting and unique type of femininity to be found on the contemporary stage of our country. It is in the person of Della Clark, the talented young author of this play.
Not only has Miss Clarke written the play herself, but during the past six weeks she has directed the production, she will be her own stage manager here, and will appear in the leading role among the cast of characters. Miss Clarke is an especially pupil and favorite of the late Augustine Daly and Charles Frohman. She left her home in Michigan when a mere girl and came to New York. She forgot to get her parents permission, and after a season with Mr. Daly, despite her entreaties, she was made to return home. Later she became identified with Frohman and played a number of leading parts under his management. Then her talent as a playwright asserted itself. She has written the books and lyrics of musical comedies and also other dramas, but "The White Squaw" is considered her best. The material for the play was gained by her from a story told her by her grandmother years ago. Her grandparents were among the earliest settlers in Michigan in which section the scenes of the "White Squaw" are laid. The grandmother was especially beloved by the Indians who gave her the title of "The White Squaw" from which Miss Clarke secured the name for her play. It is a story of paths, romance, tender sentiment and deep heart interest to which Miss Clarke has added a broad vein of humor. In "The White Squaw" this little woman plays the part of the supposed Indian girl who is in reality of white parentage. It is a play that depends mainly for its dramatic effect and conviction upon pantomime and details, all of which Miss Clarke has studied out, and has conveyed to the other artists who make up her caste. Personally she has conducted every rehearsal, trained every member of the caste; telling them how he or she should laugh, look serious, portray emotions, hold their hands, cross the stage, and bring out all those other details that go to make the finished and convincing performance. But the highest tribute to Miss Clarke's ability is the genuine affection that exists for her with every member of her company, and the class attention and fidelity to every detail she has given for her company to follow.

HOLY WAR

London, Eng., Oct. 27. — A desperate effort is being made to put the British force in Egypt on a war footing with the greatest possible speed, and officers of Egyptian Regiments are hurrying to rejoin their commands. Their leave was cancelled by an order issued a week ago.
But many of them remained until today to complete their preparations for their return to Egypt.
The War Office makes no attempt to conceal its fear of an uprising in Egypt in the Sudan during the coming winter. The general impression is that a Mohammedan holy war will be preached soon and that this will be the signal for a widespread native outbreak.

BAD FIRE

Winnipeg, Oct. 27. — A despatch from Victoria, B.C., says fire wiped out the greater part of the business block bounded by a Government Fort, broad streets, and Trounce Alley, last night, causing a total loss approximately estimated at $2,000-000.

The fire broke out in the upholstering department of David Spencer & Co., and a high wind blowing caused the flames to spread rapidly.

The Western Union Telegraph Company's building is among the structures burned.

Many narrow escapes from death are reported but so far as is known here there was no loss of life.

There are several ex-residents of Lindsay and Victoria County living in Victoria, B.C., and friends will be anxious to hear if they are among the property losers.
