Seventy Nine Years Young

"Fruit-a-tives" Keeps Health Perfect

WILLIAM PARSONS, ESQ.

OTTERVILLE, Ont., July 8th 1910. "I am a seventy-nine year old man, and a great believer in, and user of "Fruit-a-tives". It is the only medicine I take, and I can truly say that "Fruit-a-tives" and exercise keep me in my present good health. Stricture of the Bowels, was the complaint I suffered from and I found "Fruit-a-tives" to do me more good than any other remedy. My doctor advised me to stick to "Fruit-a-tives" and I have done so with the best results. I have been in business here for a good many years and have been a resident of Otterville for over fifty years, so that if you think this little reference from me will serve to induce some others to try "Fruit-a-tives", I hereby authorize its publication. WM. PARSONS.

Obstinate Constipation, Paralysis of the Bowels and Stricture of the Bowels can never be cured by common purgatives, salts, senna, "liver pills" and oil have positively no action on the liver. They do not increase the secretion of Bile, which nature provides to move the bowels. They merely irritate the membranes lining the intestines. One may as well try to cure a headache by bracing lining the intestines. One may as well try to cure a headache by pounding one's head against a stone wall, as to try to cure Constipation with common purgatives. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only true liver stimulant. "Fruit-a-tives" is fruit juices and nerve tonics, and will always restore the liver to its proper condition and cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Lets be 'Appy Club Held Hallowe'en Party

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. F. Rowan, of Greystock, have been spending a few days in town. Mr. Rowan has closed his school on account of an epidemic of scarlet fever.

The "Let us be 'Appy" club were again in the limelight, when on Friday evening one of the members entertained the society. It was a Hallowe'en celebration, and many of the acts and superstitions written of by authorities, were put on. The invitations having been sent, the member accepting, appeared at the door, where he or she was received by a ghost, silent and gesticulating, who pointed to realms above and a stairway to reach the celestial heights. At the top of the stairway a second sprite awaited the stranger, who was shown to a dressing room, where he was adorned with a very large red bow, and having this regalia of membership, was shown into the throne room. For a time the audience was composed altogether of young men, whose wonderment grew as their numbers increased, that there were no ladies present. However, when that order of business was called, a number of fairy-like young girls appeared to company, (when I write girls I mean that the dress and make-up was that of young girls of 10, 12 or 14 years of age). The roll being called and all present, the young people proceeded to participate in the weird and mysterious games of Hallowe'en and an evening of rare fun resulted. The climax was reached when the hostess served a dainty lunch, and every person voted the evening's amusement as the most unique and novel of the season. There were many funny happenings, and one guest seemed disposed to remain on the ground floor after he entered, and proceeded to take off his overcoat and gloves, while the reception ghost was puzzling to know how to have him ascend the stairs—a sign being useless. Speech had to be resorted to—the ghost pointing up the stairway and shouting "heaven." The effect was magical. Mr. Guest believed he was still alive and up he went. Another evening of social friendship is recorded in the minutes of the club.

Mr. J. A. Wylie has removed from King-st. to a residence on Sturgeon-st., two doors north of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. John Boyd, of Mount Pleasant, was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, over the holiday.

There was a good-sized congregation at the morning service of the Presbyterian anniversary. Rev. J. U. Tanner delivered a thoughtful and appealing sermon from the 18th chapter of Matthew's gospel, describing the kingdom of heaven and man's need of seeking it. The choir presented a creditable anthem and a pleasing duet was taken by Miss Lila Parsons and Mr. Weir. At the evening service, which was crowded, the Rev. Mr. Tanner chose the subject of his remarks from Rev., 21st chapter, giving a picture of the New Jerusalem—its beauty, capacity and the requirements necessary for citizenship.

Mrs. Haggen, of Toronto, an old Omeme girl, visited friends over Sunday.

Mr. Hiram Best, of Toronto, was in town on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Tanner was the guest of Mr. J. J. Lamb.

Friday's snow storm ushered winter in rather surprisingly early, and Saturday night's frost of about 15 degrees impressed the reality of our frigid season's approach with a vim that was penetrating.

Mr. Charles Fairbairn, ex-M.P., of Lindsay, spent Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. H. Magee.

Miss Muriel Morrison, of Peterboro, visited with her mother over Thanksgiving.

The Misses Bannon were home from Peterboro Normal.

Our local hunters of the swift-footed deer, have left to join the other members of their parties up north.

Last week our local stock buyer, Mr. Isaac Richardson, familiarly known as "Dad," issued cheques for stock purchased to the amount of $20,000.

Miss Bartley, of the high school staff, spent the holiday at her home in Lindsay. Miss E. Feir of the public school staff, was a visitor with friends in Manvers.

Mr. C. H. Shield was home for Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Eaton, with their children, of Toronto, visited on Sunday and Monday with Mrs. McCrae, Mrs. Eaton's mother.

The duck hunters are still active, and report very favorable conditions. Some Bohaggeon duck shooter is reported to have bagged 60 in one day.

Mr. Clifford Mulligan, of Toronto, visited his parents on Thanksgiving Day.

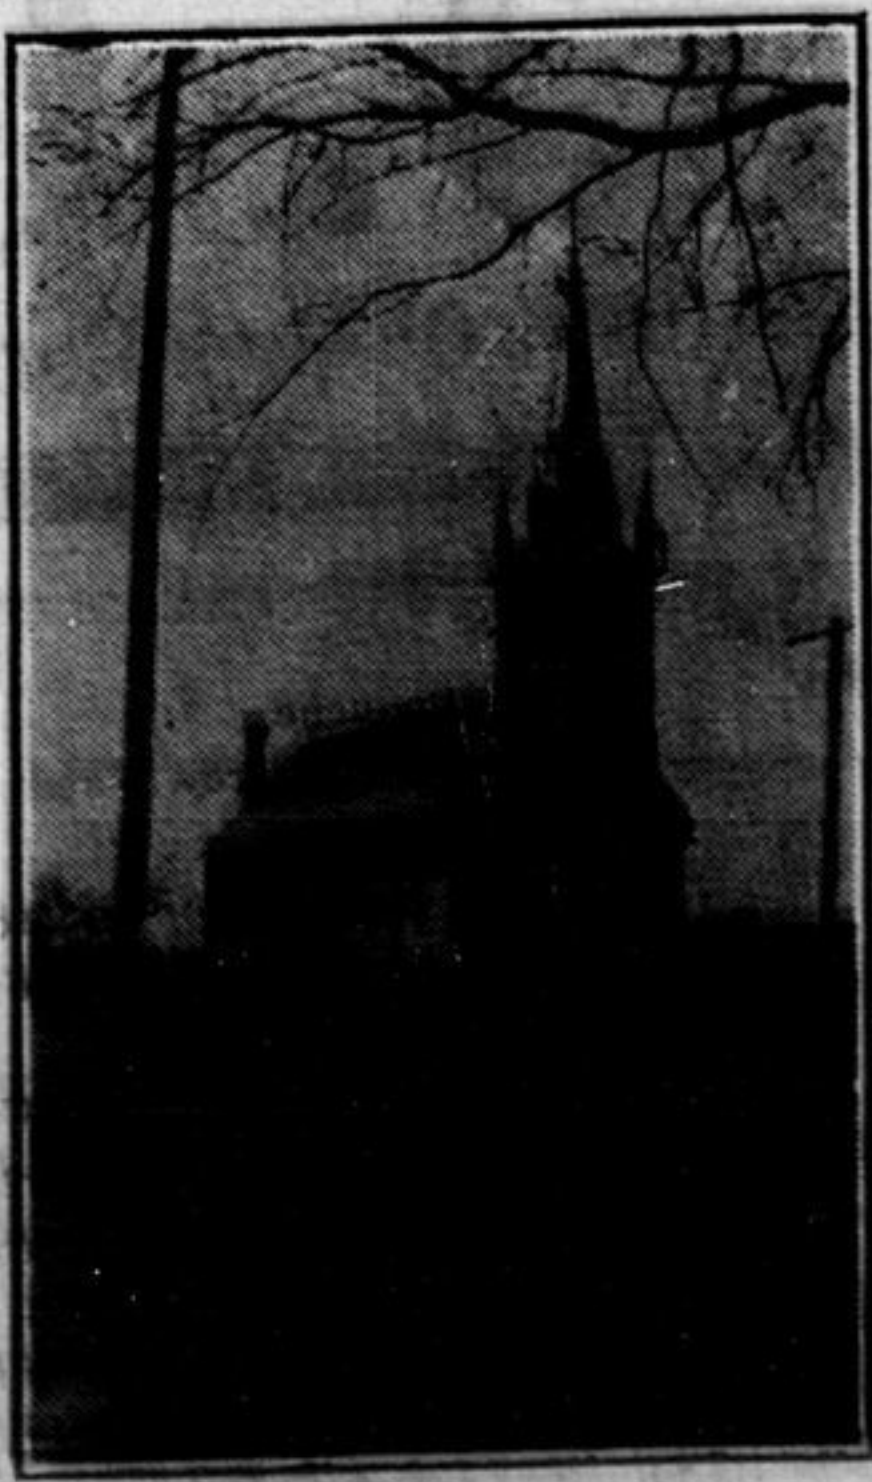

Rev. Robt. McCulloch, ex-pastor of our Methodist church, was the guest of Omeme friends for Thanksgiving.

Mr. J. B. L. Grout, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Toronto, has been transferred to the bank's branch at Oakville. We congratulate Mr. Grout on his promotion, and extend the best of good wishes. General regret is expressed at his departure, his business and social qualities having made him a large circle of friends. He will be succeeded as manager here by Mr. Hodgetts.

Mr. R. Grey, of The Lindsay Warder, made a business trip to Omeme on Monday.

Mr. Wm. Lamb, of Peterboro, is the guest of friends in town.

A gentleman with considerable luggage and a gun, was driven out on Monday by a local drayman to the wireless tower south-east of the town.

QUALITY

Quality is like truth and justice. It is always desirable. It always commands respect and it lives on to see the dishonorable end of everything fraudulent. Seek quality always in the clothes you buy—but don't neglect the style. It is style that distinguishes correct clothes from the very ordinary productions of small tailors. In "Progress" and "20th Century Brand" garments you will find a happy combination of quality and style. That's the secret of their great success. When in need of a Suit or Overcoat, come in and let us show you these garments you will find it to your advantage.

M. J. CARTER CLOTHIER AND FURNISHER

GOLDEN WEDDING.

On Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Ingle, their children, and grandchildren, gathered to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their parents' wedding day.

The house was beautifully decorated outside with chinese lanterns and inside with golden astors and chrysanthemums.

At 7.00 p.m. twenty-four friends and relatives sat down to a dainty supper. The children are Ira, Geo., Annie, Stephen, Mrs. R. M. Fee, Olive, Mark and two grandchildren. The presents were numerous, among them being a gold-mounted pipe and some china, presented by the men of the factory, where Mr. Ingle has worked for many years, a purse of gold by the children, and a cane made out of the oak taken from the Lindsay locks which is about sixty-five years old.

Mr. Ingle was born in Port Hope and lived in Peterboro. He was married to Miss Ireton at Dunstford, who was well-known by the people of that vicinity, being a faithful church worker.

Mr. Ingle is in his seventy-seventh year and his good wife is about four years younger. They have lived in Lindsay for many years and are known by a host of friends who will join in wishing that their wedded life continue with good health and happiness.

The Steamer Moreland, which was wrecked at the Seb, was run ashore owing to an error in her compass.

Shirley's Cure

Miss Gantab, who is a student at the Collegiate, spent Thanksgiving in Sunderland with her parents. Mrs. A. Oudekirk, of Kirkland, spent Thanksgiving Day with friends in Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Post-St., were the guests of friends in Omeme during the past two days.

Furnishing Made Enjoyable

This is the time for adding touches of comfort and attractiveness to the home. Outdoor pleasures are rapidly drawing to a close—home is the place of comfort.

New furniture will particularly add the comforts and attractiveness that you desire.

BEDROOM FURNITURE

We suggest the bedroom for two reasons. So much time is spent in the use of this room that it deserves more than the usual attention given to it.

In the second place our stock presents unusually pleasing opportunities for making the bedroom attractive at a reasonable cost. We have a great variety in this department, so we shall leave the details and prices until you visit the store.
