SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's remedy has done for me. For two years I suffered. The doctors said I had tumors, and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. Your Liver Pills have no equal as a cathartic. Any one wishing proof of what your medicines have done for me can get it from any druggist or by writing to me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 106 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Another Operation Avoided.
 New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."—Mrs. LEAZ EXTEBOUX, 1111 Kerlerec St., New Orleans, La.

The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ailments from which so many women suffer.

BORDEN'S MANY SIDED CABINET

Opinions Formed by New York Press Man

If you want to see a representative cross section of the Canadian people just clap your eye to the keyhole of the Council Chamber, where Robert Laird Borden, Canada's new Prime Minister, and his colleagues are getting under way, says a correspondent of the New York Herald. "The first lawyer of the cross section is himself—R. L. Borden, legal, political type of able, cultured, kindly conscientious, thoroughly Canadian statesman."

You remember seeing in the newspapers that Mr. Borden had handed to Mr. Foster the portfolio of Trade and Commerce. You needn't look in his fingers for it. He uses his hands as if gestures were needed to assist his speech. It's a wholly superfluous habit. No man in Canada can clothe his meaning in more effective verbiage than Mr. Foster, who has been in Parliament nobody can remember how long, and is the only man at the table who has ever before held a Dominion portfolio. Layer No. 2 of the cross section is tinged at the bottom with school-master, but is the mixed composition peculiar to long continued partisan politics.

Did you ever hear Joseph Chamberlain speak? If so, follow that clean-cut, middle-sized man in the gray clothes. Some time you will see him rise in the House of Commons. Then shut your eyes. You will think you are listening to Joseph Chamberlain instead of Dr. W. J. Roche, member of Parliament for Marquette, Manitoba, Secretary of State. His cross section is that of the bright young Ontario men who struck out for the Canadian West long before the American farmers began to ride over the border in parlor cars.

He handles a political discussion like a lacerated wound, using the antiseptic to clear argument, statistics, and stitching with logic.

CROTHERS AND ROGERS.

If you can locate the owner of that voice which sometimes booms and sometimes rasps you will discover Thomas W. Crothers, M.P. for West Elgin, Minister of Labor. Type: Country town lawyer, who stuck to Ontario in the lean days. Now his town—St. Thomas—is larger and prospering from manufactures which he thought would be impaired through reciprocity.

Mr. Rogers stands out pre-eminently among his colleagues as a practical person. "Good Old Bob," any Conservative will tell you, has a weakness for "delivering the goods." It appears that his success is built on the same rock as the practical politics of other countries—when he says yes he means it, and when he says no he really is negative. As Minister of Public Works he was nearly the whole works in Manitoba.

Is that an English duke talking. No, it is a French monk. This quip serves to formally introduce to the keyhole-audience F. D. Monk, M. P. for Jacques Cartier, Quebec, and Minister of Public Works. Like Mr. Rogers, in the smaller sphere of Manitoba, he was the "whole works."

Mr. Monk, Mr. Bruno Nantel, an M.P. for Terrebonne, that thick-set, silent Frenchman near the foot of the table, and Mr. L. P. Pelletier, M.P. for Quebec county, an old fighter in the opposition ranks in Quebec, are anti-imperialists. Any one of them by stretching out his hand can touch a colleague who is an imperialist. They are Catholics, a majority of their colleagues are Protestants. We are at the heart of the national cross sections now, where the human and political layers do not run straight, but are curved and twisted by the circumstances of a vast and growing country.

ORANGE AND GREEN.

The two men chatting so amiably on the far side of the table? They are:

Colonel Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, Irishman, Orangeman, and soldier.
 Charles J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, Irishman, Catholic, and judge.

Rather contrasty, eh? Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways, is a typical product of Northern Ontario, the mineral and timber treasure house of the Dominion.

A Minister without portfolio has the prestige of Cabinet rank and a share in its responsibility, without having to administer a department—also without getting $7,500 a year. But a little thing like $7,500 won't worry George H. Perley, M.P., the wealthy lumberman, who fought reciprocity, although it would have put probably $20,000 a year in his pocket, or A. E. Kemp, a wealthy Toronto manufacturer. The other portfolioless member is Senator Loughheed, of Alberta. He will be the Government's sole Ministerial representative for the present in the Canadian Senate.

No Dominion Cabinet is ever composed complete without a New Brunswick, and to round out Mr. Borden's task D. J. Hazen, Prime Minister of that province, flushed with the capture of three Liberal seats in the recent election, was taken in.

Dr. J. D. Reid, the new Minister of Customs, has an English name, but he is what the Scotch call a bonnie fighter.

NO HAYSEED HE.

Can that be the Minister of Agriculture to whom they are all now talking? There is no hayseed on his collar, and his boots are victrolid shoes. However, it is the Minister of Agriculture, Martin Burrell, M. P. for Yale-Cariboo, B.C.

PSORIASIS WAS CURED

AFTER FIVE YEARS OF SUFFERING—THREE DOCTORS FAILED AND SAID CASE WAS INCURABLE.

ITCHING AND BURNING WAS TERRIBLE UNTIL RELIEF AND CURE WAS EFFECTED BY

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Psoriasis is another name for chronic eczema. It is the worst form of this dreadful itching skin disease. Once eczema has reached this stage it is usually considered incurable.

But here is a case which proves against the wonderful healing power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Not only does relief come quickly, but the resulting benefits are thorough and lasting.

Mrs. Nettie Massey, Concession, Ont. writes:—"I thought it my duty to write you telling you the great benefit I received from using Dr. Chase's Ointment. For five years I suffered with what three doctors called Psoriasis. I doctored with three different doctors, with no good results, and one of our noted doctors told me if any one offered to guarantee me a cure for $50.00 to keep my money in my pocket, as I could not be cured. "The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head. The itching and burning was hard to bear. At last my brother read in the paper about Dr. Chase's Ointment as a healer. I used 8 boxes and I am glad to say I am entirely cured not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise the ointment enough, and you are at liberty to use my testimony, as I hope thereby to induce other sufferers to try the same." Canned Goods are Climbing

A reporter interviewed a local grocer to-day inquiring about the prospects in prices of canned goods, corn, canned strawberries and plums, for this year. He ascertained the information that practically everything would be higher in price than last year, and the main reason seemed to be the scarcity of this year's crops, caused by the dry spell which was encountered.

The tomato crop for instance was an unusually small one. Canned tomatoes are now being retailed at 15 cents a tin, compared with 2 for 25 cents last year.

Prunes will be a lot higher owing to the crop scarcity. What is causing the high price of California fruit is the fact that the weather has been terribly dry and harmful, literally burning the crop. More of these prunes are also being exported to France, thereby lessening the supply here. Another reason advanced was that the West is filling up rapidly, and as tomatoes cannot be raised there, the canners' association must necessarily increase the prices to meet the demand of the consumers in the West and secure a profit. All the wholesalers get off their orders is just 40 p.c. Last year they secured 60 to 70 p.c. of their orders; so the difference is very evident. All that the wholesalers can do, therefore, is to buy American tomatoes.

Canned corn has not yet been advanced in price, still selling at 10c. retail.

Owing to the high price of canned salmon, it is expected that some new lines of kippered herring, and herring tomato sauce, will be big and popular sellers.

Canned plums are slightly cheaper than last year, being 2 for 25 cents, now a 10 cent article.

It is also thought by leading canners that pork and beans may be two for 25 cents, if the prices continue to go up.

Cabinet Ministers by Acclamation

All the Ministers of the Borden Cabinet, who were elected on Sept. 21st and who were nominated Friday for re-election, have been elected by acclamation. The only sign of opposition was at St. John, N. B., where the Socialists named a candidate who was, however, disqualified. The Ministers elected Friday are: Hon. R. L. Borden, Hon. George Foster, Hon. Robert Rogers, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Hon. Dr. Roche, Hon. Dr. Reid, Hon. Samuel Hughes, Hon. W. B. Nantel, Hon. L. P. Pelletier, Hon. F. D. Monk, Hon. T. W. Crothers, Hon. C. J. Doherty.

Legs and Poultry In Chinaland

For hundreds of years China was the greatest poultry-raising nation in the world, not only as regards the total production, but also in per capita use.

Of the more than 800,000,000 population of China shown by the last census there are few indeed who do not in the course of a year consume something in the way of poultry—chickens or ducks or geese—and certainly a large number of eggs.

For considerable portion of the population poultry is the only animal food used, and for the more well-to-do classes it is an ordinary meat diet the year around. Ducks are pickled, dried, tinned and otherwise preserved, and shipped to many parts of the world to Chinese who are away from a home supply. Eggs of all kinds are used fresh and are cured by burying in clay and lime until they acquire something of the quality of cheese, and are a great Chinese luxury.

There are few families in China, even in the larger cities, that do not have at least some chickens. Near the ports open to foreign trade there are a few rather good-sized poultry farms as a rule.

Ducks are raised in immense numbers on farms along the canals and rivers of Central and South China, and are much more common than chickens. One of the customary sights along the Grand Canal in Mid-China, for example, is that of a Chinese duck farmer in his boat watching his flock feed in and along the canal. The ducks are trained to obey him, and, armed with a long bamboo pole to guide them, he controls their movements and takes them back to shelter for the night.

The surplus of poultry and poultry products which China can export annually is immense. Up to the present exportation has taken the form largely of egg products, mostly dried albumen and yolks. The trade in eggs and egg products is rapidly increasing, as may be seen from the fact that the exports of egg albumen and yolks in 1908 were valued at $463,038 gold, and the shipments of fresh and preserved eggs at $1,234,785 gold, while in 1909 the values were $81,829 and $1,529,685 respectively.

ENDURED HARSHIPS

SURVEY PARTY HAD SCANTY PROVISIONS.

Friday a Warder man met Mr. A. E. Lake, of Toronto, who was in town for a few hours, and in the course of a short conversation he stated that he had just returned from away back north of Larder Lake, where he was employed on a Government survey. On Sept. 7 last he to the thickness of over half an inch covered the brooklets, and small streams and the party had to tramp out of the woods in snow several inches deep. They ran out of them were forced to live on muskrats and oatmeal.

Large Bear Shot Near Haliburton

The Haliburton correspondent to the Minden Echo says:

Mr. Robert Spier, of Toronto, son of our esteemed townsman, Mr. Wm. Spier, on Monday last gave ample proof of his skill in handling a rifle. He was on his way from the village to the farm on the Kenneway, where he spent a portion of his boyhood days, and when about half way between Cain's mill and the farm, his attention was attracted by a moving object many yards in advance, which, on closer observation, proved to be a large bear making considerable haste to increase the distance between the marksman and himself. But Bob was too quick for "brun"; bang! went the rifle, and the bear fell, the bullet having passed through his kidneys. He was conveyed to town by one of Mr. Laking's teams and is on exhibition at the stables of Mr. Wm. Spier, sr. The brute is said to turn the scales at 300 lbs.

NO ASSIZE CASES.

There will be no cases for his Honor Justice Teetzel at the October Assizes on Tuesday.

CHICAGO MERCHANT MAKES STATEMENT.

After Spending Thousands of Dollars and Consulting the Most Eminent Physicians, He Was Deceased.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Mr. J. G. Becker, of 184 Van Buren St., a well-known wholesale dry goods dealer, states as follows:

"I have had catarrh for more than thirty years. Have tried everything on earth and spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and with physicians, without getting any lasting relief, and can say to you that I have found Peruna the only remedy that has cured me permanently."

"Peruna has also cured my wife of catarrh. She always keeps it in the house for an attack of cold, which it invariably cures in a very short time."

OBITUARY.

LATE JOHN HICKEY.

The funeral of the late John Hickey took place this morning, and was largely attended. High mass was said by Venerable Archdeacon Casey at St. Mary's church, after which the sorrowing friends and cortege proceeded to the R. C. cemetery, where interment took place. The pall bearers were nephews and the immediate friends of the deceased.

DIED AT WINNIPEG.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bryson, of the north ward, received a sad message from Winnipeg the other day to the effect that their niece Miss Kathleen Bryson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Bryson, had passed away after an illness of but one week. The deceased young lady spent several weeks in Lindsay two years ago.
