CURED OF THIS HORRIBLE DISEASE

Edmonton Girl saved By "Fruit-a-lives"

EDMONTON, ALTA., Nov. 10th 1911. "I had been a sufferer from babyhood with that terrible complaint, Constipation. I have been treated by physicians and have taken every medicine that I heard of, but without the slightest benefit. I concluded that there was no cure for this horrible disease. Finally, I read of "Fruit-a-lives" and decided to try them, and the effect was marvellous. The first box gave me great relief, and after I used a few boxes, I found that I was entirely well. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine that ever did me any good for Chronic Constipation and I want to say to all who suffer as I did—Try "Fruit-a-lives"—why suffer any longer when there is a perfect cure in this great fruit medicine? (Miss) E. A. GOODALL. The world made of fruit and the only one that will completely and absolutely cure Constipation. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

UNANIMOUS VERDICT. Newspaper publishers and citizens generally throughout the Dominion are unanimous in their opinion that the picture entitled "Mother's Treasures," given with The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, this season, is a most delightful and beautiful subject. Here is the opinion of one publisher: "Mother's Treasures" is a marvel of beauty. The subject is one that will have a tendency to strengthen home ties. We, in the same business, wonder how you can afford to give such value in pictures besides the vast amount of good things in The Family Herald and Weekly Star." Signed, E. W. Richards, The Mirror, Millbrook. No home in Canada should be without this beautiful picture. One dollar pays a full year's subscription to The Family Herald and Weekly Star, including the picture, which is ready for framing, size 23 by 29 inches. It is a big dollar's worth, indeed. The pessimist stays at home and waits for it to rain while his neighbors go to the picnic. Some men have the happy faculty of being able to recognize their duty in time to side-step it.

Laymen's Banquet at St. Paul's Church—Good Addresses

The Laymen's missionary banquet, which was held in St. Paul's church last night was well attended, the assembly being made up of all denominations who listened attentively to the speakers, Messrs. Rose and Hamilton, during the deliverance of their edifying and interesting addresses. The chair was taken by His Honor Judge Harding, who in a brief speech outlined the subject of the speakers and the object of the Laymen's Missionary Movement through-out Christendom. Mr. Rose, Canadian secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in connection with the English church was the first speaker. He showed the object of foreign missions and portrayed the unfortunate heathen in foreign lands as being in dire need of help in a spiritual way and to grant this it must be accomplished by the monetary assistance given by the church-going people of Christian lands. At all times throughout the discourse it was interesting and thoroughly appreciated, which was shown by the warmly demonstrative manner in which he received applause. The speaker appealed strongly to the congregation to open their hearts and contribute generously to the work of the good missionaries whether their field of labor be in Japan, Java, China or the Northwest provinces. MR. HAMILTON. Mr. Hamilton who was the next speaker, said in part: "I have listened to addresses on missionary topics, but I must admit that I was never more impressed with missionary work than I am now after hearing the advanced opinion of this clever speaker on the change that has come over Canada with regard to this movement. When he spoke of the little children in those foreign countries and the miseries and hard hips they forego I would feel like giving my life towards this movement and granting relief by my every word and action to those people in the Oriental countries." The speaker referred to the destruction to the great monuments which had been erected in the eastern countries which were disregarded and wrecked by those heathen people and in time would be obliterated from the face of the globe. Nations had endeavored to protect those reminiscences of ancient sculptors and had expended much money in doing so. From this he drew a deduction and said, "If you had a garret in which you had stored many ancient relics of Milo, Venus, or some of the old authors or writers in this place, you also had a child which was dear to you. This place caught fire which of those things would you endeavor to save first, the child which you cherished dearly, or the things of the earth which are subject to decay and not possessed of an immortality, you would rush for the child. This is the position in which the church stands to-day and the world at large. It is not a matter of saving those ancient pieces of art, but save and preserve the Christian religion and the doctrine of Christ amongst those people who are willing to accept the spirit of Christianity if propounded to them. Will you keep your riches or send it out and spread the gospel of Jesus Christ among those Orientals who have been overrun with the teaching of Buddhism and confucianism? They are ready to accept Christianity if it is placed before them. "When I look upon the comforts we enjoy in our churches seated in cushioned pews and the happiness surrounding our homes a feeling of sadness and sorrow possesses my soul for those missionaries who are giving their lives as a sacrifice for the heathens of Japan and China. We are oblivious of the darkness of the world so far as the word of God is concerned. I am not a paid mis-ionary, but would like to engage in the work for the benefit of mankind. The Japanese are charitable people and the wealthy classes are prone to assist the missionaries. In one instance where an orphanage had been erected the emperor contributed $2,000 to assist the institution. Missionaries do not live on the fat of the land in Japan or China eking out a poor existence, living as best they can and traveling in third-class coaches. It is in the course of such excursions that tracts are distributed to the people which are read with beneficial results by the inhabitants. To illustrate how Japanese respond to a call to the church when missionary lectures are given. The speaker stated that he was in a large town in Japan one day and the clerkman said, "Would you like to be present at one of our meetings?" to which the speaker acquiesced. Now he stated, "I have no time to advertise, but I will call on the people." He went forth, simply dropped into the stores, blacksmith shops, hotels and factories and made the announcement that a meeting was to be held. Note the result: The crowd that assembled at the hall was so great that standing room was at a premium and many were compelled to remain outside. Would our ministers do this to advertise a meeting? I was enraptured in amazement at such an ebullition of religious enthusiasm. While in China the speaker had met a Chicago merchant whose estimated wealth was $3,000,000, traveling through the country after spending some time with his son and daughter whom he educated and sent to work in this great missionary field. They were stationed in the Boxer colony. This man with his abundant wealth took more comfort in spending his money in the advancement of the doctrine of the true God than by any worldly attractions. The speaker drew the attention of his hearers to our own great northwest country with its vast areas of land and of the necessity of missionary work amongst the foreign element, which possessed an ungodlike spirit in many instances. "I was there when nothing but a vast prairie covered, with grass and the bleached bones of the buffalo laid along the trails in profuse numbers. There is now 20,000,000 acres under cultivation, and ten times that amount this side of the 51st parallel of latitude. This in time will be populated by foreigners and some of our own people. It will be the crucible or melting pot of the earth, the home of the vast multitude or surplus population of all countries, and we want to fill it with God's own people and a class of citizens who wish to unite themselves with the person of Jesus Christ. We must send out our men to do it, our constituency is around the globe. The Saviour of the world was a missionary and was busy all this life preaching about the Kingdom of His father. The gospel of Christ is the power of salvation and I am proud of our ambassadors who are engaged in the labor of the Lord in those foreign fields. Countries revive where religion is held paramount and retrograde where it is suppressed, so spread the gospel, proclaim it on every highway and byway and in every land. The governor of Cape Colony said he would rely more upon missionaries to preserve the peace of the country than the troops of Great Britain. Another governor said that one missionary is worth a battalion of soldiers as preservers of the public peace and felicity. The great scientist, Chas. Darwin, eulogizing the missionaries, said they wielded the enchanter's wand wherever they dispensed the gospel of the Christian church. The missionaries are God's silent workers, and the day is not distant when there will be a mighty upheaval in those Pagan lands and the doctrine of Christ and

Immense Crowd at the I. O. F. Entertainment

The benefits to be derived from working for a dollar a day is as good as the millionaire if his heart is right. We are trying to educate true fraternity, preach the gospel of opportunity and protection. But let me tell you it is the man who sacrifices a little who is a true demonstrator of fraternity and the brothers and companions should do everything possible to promote the welfare of his brother man and the brethren should attend lodge regularly. The worst criminal doing time in the Kingston penitentiary is no worse than the man who carries his wife and his family in his hands unprotected. Our organization has been tried and never found wanting, 244,000 men and women are banded in this organization to uplift humanity and endeavor to see that they are protected in the time of illness. Our men can be proud of their colors which have never been disgraced, but which have brought joy and comfort to many. We wouldn't be able to distribute the flowers, to distribute joy amongst the homes of the sorrowing ones if we did not protect our brothers. What a comfort and joy to a sick father to know that during his idle hours he can be drawing benefits from this society to which he belongs. If you want to be a true forester you must be protected and when you receive those benefits that is the time when you appreciate true brotherly love. Any man or woman in our order who becomes ill and disabled can draw 70 per cent. of that $1,000 policy. We have a policy also which gives a member 70 per cent. on his 70th birthday. We hope to say to our older men that we have a home prepared for them. How many of our people to-day are binding themselves together to feed the hungry and protect the little ones. Our organization has a home for the orphans and they have the privilege of attending school and receiving a good education. We also have the home for those suffering from consumption. Is fraternal work deserving of your thought or not to say I stand for the institution which stands for love and benevolence. Rev. Bro. French, of Fenelon Falls, in a few brief words commended the noble work being done by the I. O. F. Miss Lillian Dillon at this juncture favored the audience with a beautiful piano selection, which was followed by a soprano solo by Miss Maud Bigwood, which was rendered in her usual delightful manner. An instrumental duet by Miss Lillian and Mr. Harvey Lloyd was well rendered and very much appreciated, the demand for an encore being kindly responded to. A tenor solo by Mr. J. D. Keichie followed by a well-favored patriotic selection by Mr. Lloyd, each evoking spontaneous and enthusiastic applause. The audience demanded two encores which were given in unstinted manner. During the evening Miss Bigwood was presented with a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums by Master Lester Brown, a similar one being presented to Miss Dillon by Master Harold Brown. In a very large manner the success of the entire entertainment is due to Mr. E. Pellman, deputy supreme chief ranger, who was indefatigable in his efforts to have a large crowd present and provide an A-1 concert. Numerous Lindsay acquaintances of Mr. Mitchell, who has recently been promoted to the position of assistant supreme chief ranger, gathered on the platform at the conclusion of the meeting to congratulate him on his promotion and renew acquaintances. Mr. Mitchell, who is one of the hardest workers in the above organization, has a host of friends in Lindsay. Of thanks to the speakers and stated that he felt the church has not done its duty in Lindsay. We have over 1200 members in St. Paul's church and out of this number only 125 contribute to missionary work. The poor heathens are neglected. It is not a matter of clothing those people, but we want to enlighten them in the ways of the Lord. Rev. Canon Marsh seconded the motion and said that he was in accord with all said by the speakers and that it was a holy war for Christ and the supremacy of the church. Addresses of a stirring and brief nature were given by Messrs. W. B. Sparling, J. E. McNeill and Judge Harding, all of whom were inspired with the Laymen's Missionary Movement. After the benediction by Rev. Mr. Creighton and singing of the national anthem the meeting dispersed. The singing of the male quartet, which was composed of Messrs. Murtagh, Nesbitt, Merrett and Roberts, assisted by the accompanist, Miss Leary, on the piano, was a pleasing part of the program, being beautifully rendered, receiving much applause. It is a waste of time for a man to make a fool of himself when it is easy to get a woman to do it for him. VOTE OF THANKS. Mr. G. H. M. Baker moved a vote

A largely attended meeting of the Lindsay Advancement Club was held last week in the parlors of the Benson House. After routine business was disposed of various matters of importance were discussed, including that of the impending vote on the furniture company by-law on the 28th inst. It was the unanimous decision of the meeting that the hearty support of the club be given the efforts of Lindsay's Industrial Commission. OBITUARY. MRS. THOMAS WILSON. The death occurred on Nov. 11 at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Geo. Hooton, Cavan township, of Mary Jane Windrem, widow of the late Thos. Wilson. The deceased lady was 81 years of age, and was born in Emily, where she had lived up till a year ago, when she removed to reside with her son-in-law, in Cavan, with whom she lived till the time of her death. The late Mrs. Wilson was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church, and was widely known and very highly respected, both in her active township and in Cavan. She was popular among a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who will be sorry to learn of her demise. Her husband predeceased her ten years ago. The deceased lady is survived by two daughters, Mrs. S. J. Best, of Emily Township, and Mrs. Geo. L. Hooton, Cavan Township, as well as one son, Samuel T., of Emily. SAVED NINE LIVES. Among the life-savers of Peterborough has had a more distinguished career than Mr. Geo. Cochrane, the well-known High County Constable. He has the record of saving nine lives some of them at the risk of his own and an application will be made to have his services recognized by the award of a medal. Success cannot turn a man's head if he has a stiff neck. It is a waste of time for a man to make a fool of himself when it is easy to get a woman to do it for him.

25 Cents to Stop That Itch Does it not seem strange that so many people suffer year in and year out with eczema? A 25 cent bottle of a simple wash stops the itch and will surely convince any patient. This wash is composed of mild and soothing oil of wintergreen mixed with thymol and glycerine, etc., and known as D. D. D. Prescription. We do not know how long the D.D.D. Laboratories will continue the 25c. offer, as the remedy is regularly sold only in $1 bottles and has never before been put on the market in Canada on any special offers. If you want relief to-night try a bottle at 25c. on our personal recommendation. E. Gregory druggist.

HUNTERS HOME FINE SPECIMENS BROUGHT BACK FROM THE WOODS. A party of four hunters returned Tuesday from Galway township, where they hunted the feet-footed deer in the vicinity of Otter Lake. The party comprised Messrs. Henry Jackson, Neil Gray, Jas. Patton and John Turner. In conversation with one of the hunters this morning he stated that the deer were fairly plentiful, and they were successful in returning with their complement of venison. The weather conditions were on the whole very favorable and the short hunt was very much enjoyed. The animals brought down by this party were all fine specimens, three or four of them being on exhibit in front of P. J. Campbell's butcher shop to-day. Two men who really did not want to fight, but who had got the idea that it would be disgraceful not to do so, fell to blows. Friends rushed in and held each contestant firmly. Our idea of a wealthy man is one who is eager to contribute to a campaign fund.
