New Methodist Church at Oakwood Opened Free of Debt-- Magnificent $16,000 Edifice-- 1000 at Supper and Concert

O Thou, whose own vast temple stands, Built over earth and sea. Accept the walls that human hands Have raised to worship Thee."

The opening services and ceremonies held in connection with the new Methodist church at Oakwood, Thursday afternoon and evening, acted as a powerful magnet, attracting hundreds and hundreds of people from the surrounding country, town and villages.

SUCCESS in capital letters tells the story of the opening services. Success numerically and financially, and the story can be told in a few words. The new church was erected at a cost of $16,000, not including the work done free by the trustees and good citizens of the community.

TRUSTEES OF CHURCH. Following is a list of the official board of trustees of the Oakwood church, to whose untiring efforts is largely due the success of the financing of the fine new edifice: Messrs. W. H. Webster, W. F. Hardy, J. C. Coad, T. H. Richardson, Moses Webster, Wm. Channon, J. F. Brass, E. P. Rodman, Chas. Jenkins, J. S. Timney, W. B. Graham, J. B. Weldon, Wm. Rich, R. G. Webster, Caleb Weldon, J. B. Webster.

Throughout the day the busiest man was the very popular pastor, Rev. Mr. Lambert, who, along with the trustees and other clergymen present, worked zealously throughout the day. Rev. Mr. Lambert is to be congratulated on the success of the opening.

President of Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference

The opening services held in connection with the new Methodist Church at Oakwood Thursday were graced with the presence of Rev. G. H. Copeland, of Norwood, Ontario, President of the Bay of Quinte conference, who delivered a short address last evening and will preach in the new church on Sunday evening next.

tions, which were well received by the large audience. The Lindsay quartet comprised: Mrs. W. E. Reesor, Mrs. W. R. Widdess, Messrs. H. Brimmell and A. B. Parish, while Mr. C. C. Forsyth acted as accompanist.

He referred to the time when he taught his first class in a Mariposa school house, and also preached his first sermon. The speaker also referred to the time when the old Methodist church at Oakwood was erected and paid for, clear of any encumbrances, before the dedication ceremonies were performed.

The speaker emphasized that when God says "Go forward" he will open the way, no matter what the difficulties, so long as His people have faith. The lesson applied to the spiritual, financial, and every other phase of church work.

The speaker urged the good people of Oakwood and community to go forward, as did the faithful 200, and wipe out the debt of the church. Mr. R. J. McLaughlin, K. C., acted in the capacity of chairman at the concert, and filled the position in a very able manner.

WON PRIZES.

At the big poultry show in St. Andrew's Hall, Toronto, Mr. Steve Oliver, of Lindsay, was successful in winning 19 first prizes and a beautiful cup; also 7 specials, 5 seconds and one fourth. He having 30 entries, Mr. Oliver will show his birds at the East York Poultry Show.

Of course you won't make a fool of yourself, but be sure you don't. SHILOH CURES COUGHS & COLDS
