POULTRY STOLEN.

Mr. Jos. Brown, grocer, purchased some chickens at a high price and a fine turkey which he paid over $4.80 for, at the market Wednesday. When Mr. Brown came in the afternoon to get his fowl neither turkey or chickens were to be found. They evidently were stolen.

Does Local Option do the Work?

What a Toronto Newspaper Reporter saw in Owen Sound—

1. Illegal selling over the bars.
2. Drug stores doing a rushing business in intoxicating liquor.
3. Blind pigs at work.
4. Eleven drunks pass a given point in half an hour on Saturday night. Six drunks taking dinner at the same time in the same hotel.
5. More drunkards in proportion to its size than in any licensed town in Ontario.
6. A town full of spotters and whiskey informers.
7. Men buying booze who had voted for Local Option.
8. Little beer being sold but plenty of hard stuff.
9. A double faucet to the keg—beer for the patron, water when the license inspector dropped in.
10. The human bar—rye in his hip pocket, gin in his coat.
11. Young men hitting the bottle in the back parts of stables and barber shops.
12. Liars and sneaks being made by the shifts men were put to to get drink on the sly.
13. Perjury rife. False swearing by informers, and false swearing by respectable men caught drinking, so as to escape the fine imposed by law.
