

A VERY Special CLUBING OFFER

We have made very special arrangements with the Weekly Mail and Empire, of Toronto, one of the leading and most influential papers of Canada by which we can offer

Watchman-Warder

AND THE Weekly Mail and Empire to January 1st, 1909, for the extraordinary nominal sum of only $1.15

Both publications, each taken separately for the period mentioned would cost nearly double. By accepting this offer subscribers get the two papers for a price very little in advance of the regular price of one.

The Weekly Mail and Empire is unquestionably the greatest weekly published in the Dominion, and possesses the broadest outlook on Canadian national life. It is essentially a paper for the home, and is valued alike in town and country. Its news service embraces every recognized source of information; the special correspondents are in all important centres, and over its specially leased wires it receives the happenings of the whole world, and publishes them simultaneously to the papers in all other places.

The Agricultural Section is an accepted standard authority on all matters relating to the soil and its possibilities. Contributors to this section are men eminent in the world of agricultural science.

The Magazine Section is a mine of information to all subjects pertaining to science, literature, the fine arts, society and the home, many of the articles of which are embellished with bright and instructive illustrations.

The Weekly Mail and Empire has no equal as an expositor of House of Commons and Provincial Legislature happenings. Altogether the 24 pages which comprise the Weekly Mail and Empire constitute a complete library, the regular price of which is One Dollar a year.

As the Daily Mail and Empire stands high in the National field, so does the Watchman-Warder stand unrivalled in the Counties of Victoria and Haliburton and surrounding country. The Watchman-Warder has made a name for itself for reliability, enterprise and fair dealing.

The Watchman-Warder is THE PAPER for the farmers of these counties, for no other paper can or does devote as much attention or do as much for the advancement of its rural readers. As a weekly newspaper, the Watchman-Warder is recognized as one of the best local weeklies in Ontario.

The articles appearing in the columns on agricultural and allied topics each week are quoted far and wide and it is admitted fair and full in chronically all the happenings of the district. For the REAL local news of Town and County you simply HAVE to read the Watchman-Warder.

Probably the feature of which the paper is proudest is that noted by a subscriber recently renewing his subscription. He said: "The Watchman-Warder is a clean optimistic, wholesome paper. We all can read it with the best results. It leaves no nasty taste behind."

If you would like to include some elegant premiums at unheard of prices we quote the following:

The Weekly Mail and Empire and the Watchman-Warder for one year and the beautiful premium picture "Golgotha," all for 1.25

The Weekly Mail and Empire and the Watchman-Warder for one year, and the Home Library Wall Chart, all for $1.40.

The two papers and the "New Idea Woman's Magazine" for 1 year for $1.70

THE WEEK'S NEWS of the COUNTY and DISTRICT

WOODVILLE.

The C. E. Society was addressed on Thursday evening, 19th inst. by Rev. Mr. Armstrong, of Toronto, and although the rev. gentleman gave a very able address, the members of the Society were disappointed in not having their old favorite, Rev. J. S. Murray, who was detained by sickness. Mr. Murray is the good man who came here a year ago and found so many of our young people journeying down the dangerous path of carelessness and indifference, and he directed their steps to higher ground, and they have been journeying onward and upward ever since, and they were anxious to meet Mr. Murray, so they would have the opportunity of returning their thanks to him for the help he gave them.

Miss Susie Stoddart of the Port Hope Collegiate; Miss Allie Hawkins, of Millbrook Collegiate; Miss Belle Stapp and Miss Maud Feid of Whitby Ladies' College, are home for the holidays.

Plated knives, forks and spoons, carpet sweepers, coal oil heaters, meat cutters, etc., just the things to buy as seasonable presents, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

The entertainment given here last Friday evening by the children of the Presbyterian Sunday school was a grand success, and many of the pieces rendered were worthy of special mention. Miss Mary McCallum deserves credit for bringing the children to such a degree of perfection in the drills she has charge of. Miss Maggie Ferguson's part in the dialogue as the unwelcome visitor deserves praise, it being far above the average for an amateur. Miss Florence Graham is a delightful singer. Her rendering of Jock o' Hazeldeen could not be surpassed by professional singers. Being possessed of a good, strong voice, clear as a bell, full of sweet melody, she can justly be called the Queen of Song. We hope to hear from Miss Florence again. The handkerchief drill by Miss Carrie Burns' company was something new to a Woodville audience, and was well performed.

Miss Anna McEachern, Miss Lillian Campbell, and Master Hugh Campbell, all of Harbord St. Collegiate, Toronto, are home for the holiday.

A very large audience assembled in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening to hear the address by Rev. Mr. Barber of Stouffville on the working of local option in the different municipalities where it has been tried. The local clergy also gave short addresses.

Second-hand wood cook stoves and coal heaters cheap, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Miss Anna Campbell, of Minden, and Miss Minnie Campbell, of Tory Hill, are home for the holidays.

Mr. Archie Beecroft, student of Queen's College, Kingston, had charge of the C. E. Society meeting last Sunday evening. Mr. Beecroft was one of the young missionaries sent to the Northwest by the Presbyterian church last spring, and he gave a very good account of his work in that new country. He also gave a short historical account of Alberta and more especially Islay, and the country adjacent to it, all of which was very interesting. Mr. Beecroft is a model young man, ambitious to do that which is right. We hope the Lord will bless his labors and prosper his ways in the life he has chosen.

Worth Seeing.—When doing your holiday shopping be sure and see the beautiful display of the celebrated "Peninsular" and "Champion" stoves and ranges, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Mrs. Anna Campbell, of Toronto, is visiting with friends in Woodville. Miss Lizzie Staple was in Blackstock Thursday 19th inst., attending the wedding of her cousin, Miss Hattie McLaughlin to Albert A. Taylor, of Edmonton, Alta.

Master Percy Feid, of Jarvis St. Collegiate, Toronto, and Cecil Bolet, of Orillia Collegiate, are home for the holidays.

Mr. N. L. Patterson attended the Pottruff-Gibson nuptials at Tory Hill on the 18th inst.

The many friends of M. J. Stoddart will be pleased to hear that he is again able to attend to business after his severe illness.

W. Heppenstall of this place visited Cannington this week in the interest of the local option campaign going on in that place.

SALEM CORNERS.

Our Christmas church entertainment held last Friday night was enjoyed by a large attendance. The programme, which was opened by a selection from the choir, commenced sharp at eight o'clock our pastor, Rev. Mr. Wood, in the chair, and consisted of solos by Mrs. Wm. Edwards, of Manilla; Mr. C. Thompson of Little Britain, accompanied by Miss Coine, which were well rendered and appreciated by all present; a duet by Miss Sarah Graham and Mr. H. Rezin of Salem, accompanied by Miss McInnes; Mr. and Mrs. Milroy, of Mariposa, oleocutionists, whose reciting won great applause; and last, but not least, the Peniel quartette, and it would be needless to say their singing was enjoyed to the fullest extent by all; also choruses and recitations by the school children; closing with a selection by the choir. After the program Santa Claus, who was also present, presented all with a Christmas gift. The proceeds amounted to $20.

Plated knives, forks and spoons, carpet sweepers, coal oil heaters, meat cutters, etc., just the things to buy as seasonable presents, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Misses Metta Varcoe and Fletta Mark, of Lindsay, are spending their Christmas vacation with friends here.

The League service next Friday night will be conducted by Mrs. C. Bott and Mrs. S. Windim. We would like to see a good attendance at a quarter to eight.

Miss Ethel Dean is spending her Christmas holidays with her father, Mr. John Drew, Cannington.

A number of our Salemites were in Lindsay on Saturday last. Among them were Messrs. James and Joe Graham, who brought two fine cows at Fanning's sale.

Skates, pocket knives, razors and carving sets, suitable for holiday presents, cheap at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Mr. C. Bott, of Crosswell, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning, Dec. 21st.

I, the writer of these few items, wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

MANILLA.

We regret to report the death of one of our oldest and most respected residents in the person of Mr. William Barry, who quietly and peacefully passed to his long rest on Saturday, Dec. 14th, at 3 p.m., having reached the age of 72 years.

Mr. Barry had been unable to leave his bed for over two years as the result of a broken back caused by being thrown from his horse some years ago, from which he never fully recovered, but gradually weakened away, and although afflicted so long he bore it with patience and uncomplaining fortitude. Rev. Mr. Ward delivered a very impressive sermon in the home, after which the remains were respectfully conveyed to the Methodist cemetery. The funeral was a large and representative one, showing the respect in which the deceased was held. Those who attended from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Forsyth, and Mr. Malcolm Forsyth, of Claremont, Pickering; and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bray, of Balvoor. The pall bearers were Messrs. Asaph Edwards, William White, John Decker, Henry Wastler, John Kerr and William Dickson. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved widow, three sons and two daughters in their irreplaceable loss.

Mrs. Jessie Van Camp and son, Lauchlin, also Mrs. Parker and daughter, Miss Elva, of Midland, were calling on and visiting old friends recently. They were residents of Manilla about twelve years ago.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Eliza Broad, who has been ill some time of inflammatory rheuma-tim, is much worse, and it is feared she will never regain the use of arms.

The Misses Marjette Minter, Maggie Jewell and Ethel Johnstone, of the Central Business College, Toronto, are home for Christmas.

Mr. John Moore and Charles McKinnon, also Nelson Hunter and Robert Cockburn are home from Cobalt.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper and Miss Mildred went to Oshawa on Saturday to enjoy their Christmas holiday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Conway.

Second-hand wood cook stoves and coal heaters cheap, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Mrs. McPhail and son Frank are spending their Christmas in Toronto, the visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Rutland.

Our village boys are busy preparing a skating rink for future enjoyment.

Mr. Peter Atkinson, proprietor of the Queen's Hotel, is leaving here, owing to the serious illness of his wife.

On school closing day an entertainment was given by the scholars, after which their teacher, Miss Ellen DeLury, was presented with a silk umbrella with the initials of her name carved thereon, and a beautiful hand satchel. The presentation was made by Miss Annie Gibson, and Miss Sarah Gibson, with a well worded address to which Miss DeLury made a very feeling reply. A pleasant surprise was given the children by Santa Claus appearing on the scene heavily laden with candies, making them all happy, and disappearing as quietly as he came.

JANETVILLE.

On Saturday, Dec. 21st a very pleasant event took place at the home of our genial merchant, Mr. Walter McGill, when he and Mrs. McGill gave a party to their daughter Flora on her eighth birthday. At four o'clock p.m., Mr. Lloyd Johnson drove to the door, where over twenty girl friends of Flora's were waiting, and gave them about six miles of a sleigh drive. Returning, supper was ready, after which they enjoyed themselves in plays to the music of the piano which was played very skillfully by several of the girls. They then had a guess at the art gallery, which entertained them for about an hour. After this they were taken to their homes, much pleased with the evening's fun. The many beautiful presents Flora received will keep her in remembrance of her first party.

Second-hand wood cook stoves and coal heaters cheap, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Special services were held in the Methodist church Sunday morning by the Messrs. Sturms, evangelists.

Mr. Christopher McRae, of Regina, is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. Richardson.

Mr. G. Bruce, of Beaverton, was in town on Monday of this week.

KIRKFIELD.

Dec. 16th, 1907.

A very sad event occurred on Wednesday, Dec. 11th, when Mrs. Nell McNabb, of Palestine, died suddenly of heart failure.

She was almost well again, but her death came with an added shock. The funeral took place on Friday at Kirkfield cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Hill, of Victoria Road. The sympathy of all is extended to Mr. McNabb and family in their sad bereavement.

Mr. Andrew Gusty returned from Winnipeg on Wednesday last.

In last week's notice of the Greer fund, we regret that the amount received from Carden was not stated. The Carden donation was $13.50.

Mr. W. A. Graham, of Bobcaygeon, formerly of this place, is seriously ill with pleurisy.

Worth Seeing.—When doing your holiday shopping be sure and see the beautiful display of the celebrated "Peninsular" and "Champion" stoves and ranges, at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

The political meeting on Friday of last week was a great success, and the hall was too small to accommodate all who desired admission. The speakers were Col. Hughes, S. J. Fox and Johnston Ellis. Piper Lunan furnished excellent and stirring music.

A load of our young folks attended Bexley fowl supper on Friday last, and report a glorious time.

The mission band bazaar on Saturday was quite successful, and the children are to be congratulated on their industry and skill in making so many pretty and useful articles.

The story, called on Mr. and Mrs. H. Ewen on Sunday last and left a beautiful baby girl. Congratulations.

FINGERBOARD.

Skates, pocket knives, razors and carving sets, suitable for holiday presents, cheap at Cinnamon's, Lindsay.

Mr. Cecil Tait is absent visiting his friend, Mr. Francis O'Hara, of Port Hope.

On Friday afternoon last a large number assembled at the school house of S.S. No. 15 to say good bye to their school teacher, Miss Nugent. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent. A short programme was rendered after receipt of a nicely worded address and presentation as a memorial from her many scholars in this section. Master Earle Moore read the address, and Miss Zilla Tait made the presentation.

Miss Nugent made a very appropriate reply, referring to the evidence of good will that she always received, and especially thanking her scholars for their gift. Miss Nugent presented her scholars with an embroidered book mark as a token of remembrance. She will be much missed from this community, as she was a general favorite.

CRESWELL.

A goodly number attended the service held here last Sunday afternoon conducted by the Rev. Mr. Menzies. His text was taken from James, II chap., 16th verse. In his discourse it was brought out very vividly the great need of having Pointe-Aux-Trembles Mission Schools in Quebec.

The annual Sunday school meeting was held last Wednesday after prayer service. The following teachers and officers were elected for the coming year: Mr. Jos. Milne, superintendent; Mr. D. McIntyre, sec.-treas.; Miss McIntyre, organist; Mr. Jos. Thompson, Mr. Weaving, Miss Kate Murray, Miss Edith McInnes, Miss Anna McKinnon, and Mrs. Milne as teachers. The school is sure to prove a blessing under such an able staff of teachers and officers.

A pleasant gathering met at the home of Mr. Godfrey Truax last Wednesday evening for the purpose of christening their youngest daughter, Eva Mabel. The Rev. Mr. Wesley, pastor of this church, officiating. Those present from a distance were Mr. Raines and daughter, also Mrs. Jas. Baker, of Salsfield.

BIG EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION

IN CAMBRIDGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH, LINDSAY, ON JAN. 21st to 23rd.

A copy of the "Epworth League Tidings," vol. II, No. 1, is just to hand. The paper is a four-page journal, bright and up-to-date, to say nothing of its inspiration, which may be judged from such sub-titles as: "Look Up!" "Lift Up!" "Read Up!" "Cheer Up!" "Train Up!" "Write Up!" "Pay Up!" and "Sum Up!" The editor is Mr. Fred R. Foley, and he has brought the same energy, the same enthusiasm and the same enterprise to the little journal as he gives to his own business, and that is the best that can be said.

The special object of the publication is to announce and give particulars of the annual convention of the Bay of Quinte Conference Epworth League. The following extract explains fully:—

Hosts of Epworth Leaguers of Bay of Quinte Conference plan to attack Lindsay for first time in its history. Activity all along the line. Great preparations being made by local committee to give them an arm reception, January 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 1908. Strong leaders to lead the forces.

Toronto, Dec., 1907.—It is learned from the Methodist headquarters that Bay of Quinte Conference Epworth Leaguers are preparing to attack the town of Lindsay by storm in January. Lindsay is peculiarly liable to attack, being situated on line of both G.T.R. and C.P.R. Methodism in Lindsay has two strong citadels, one on Cambridge street, the other on Queen street, and it has been arranged that the attack will be made first on Cambridge street, and then on Queen street at noon on 22nd and 23rd. Already it is rumored that the Lindsay young people think they will be forced to capitulate when the first contingent arrives on afternoon train on January 21st. To lead the attack some big guns have been secured in the persons of F. E. O'Flynn, Esq., and Revs. T. Albert Moore, J. A. Graham, B.A., Dr. Crews, R. Emberson, B.A., Geo. Jackson, B.A., and T.E.E. Shore, B.A., B.D. The Gatling gun brigade from the Conference will be strong and alert. The invading hosts have as a rallying cry "For ward in His Name," and will march to the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Special rates have been secured on all railways. Soldiers from local Leagues will buy first-class ticket one way and secure standard certificate at starting point. This entitles them to return home at one-third fare plus 25 cents paid at Lindsay. Official representatives should be appointed at once from every Young People's Society whose "aims and methods of religious work" are similar to those set forth in Epworth League constitution, and one official delegate can be appointed for every twenty members or fraction thereof. Each army is resolved to take no undue advantage of the other, and the name and address of every delegate should be sent early to Miss Edith Maxson, secretary of Billeting Committee, Lindsay, so that quarters may be secured in the camp. It is understood that many will join the army between Cannington and Napanee and between Tamworth and Whitby. Officers ask every society to practise singing "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Under the heading of "District Gleamings," the following from the E. L. Tidings, may also be of interest:—

"Lindsay District.—This district held probably its best convention of all on December 5th, at Bobcaygeon. Advances in membership and interest were reported from various points. A stride forward was planned for the Forward Movement. In view of the fact that there has been a surplus for some years of between $300 and $400 in the support of Rev. of Rev. R. Emerson, our missionary, it was decided that the time is come to divide the four districts that support him and take up a new man. Lindsay District would like to retain Mr. Em- berson and set on foot a movement to secure one-half of his support for next year, which will be an increase of 40 per cent. A committee was appointed to confer with the districts in this partnership at the Lindsay Convention with power to act for Lindsay."
