His sermons were very profitable and appropriate. The concert Monday evening was well attended and we regreat that owing to the crowdel house a number were turned away.

The program was of good variety and every number well rendered. Special mention is due the young indies who took part in the Grecian flora: drill. The movements were graceful and pretty. Miss Mabel Shields pleased al with her solos. Readings by Miss Margaret Shields were well received A solo by Mr. Griffith, of Norland, was much appreciated, and last, but not least, the proceeds amounted to over $50.
