"Monarch Peninsular"

-The Steel Range Which Never Needs Blackening.

"Monarch Peninsular" Range is made of the finest English polished steel. We import this special grade of steel because we have found, by long experience and careful selection, that it is the best steel in the world for ranges.

It has a high polish—is dark blue in color-and only needs an occasional rub with a dry cloth to keep it fresh and bright.

IT NEVER NEEDS BLACKENING.

The finish of the whole range is rich and tasteful. The outside cast parts are nickel plated, and the nickeled edges are removable. We fully guarantee material, workmanship and service of every "Monarch Peninsular" Range and give a bond with each of these ranges which absolutely protects

Our new booklet is eight pages of stove facts with illustrations. Let us send you a free copy to guide you in selecting the right range.
