THE NEW KING.

King George V. Dissolved Parliament Monday

London, Eng. Nov. 28.—There was only a small attendance when the House of Commons convened to-day, and Home Secretary Winston Churchill was the only minister present. Immediately after the Commons were called to order the members marched in a body to the upper house to hear King George's speech.

G.T.R. MAN KILLED. Belleville, Nov. 28.—George Thomas Ramsey, 21 years of age, was killed early this morning at the G. T. R. round house in this city. Ramsey was operating a turntable when he was caught between two engines moving in opposite directions, the buffer beams of which crushed his life out.

CARVED UP HIS WIFE. Hamilton, Nov. 28.—There was a serious stabbing affair this morning when Peter Vironky, a foreigner, slashed his wife with a razor. They had not been living together for some time and this morning Vironky went to his wife's boarding house on Sherman-ave., north, and carved her with his razor.

LOSE THEIR LIVES. Newark, N. J., Nov. 26.—One hundred girls were trapped by the flames in a box factory at High and Orange streets here to-day and half an hour after the flames broke out fire Chief Ashley declared that many had been killed. The building was destroyed.

ROARING, SEETHING FURNACE The flames made such headway upon the paper and other inflammable materials in the building that it was a roaring, seething furnace before the flames got fully into action. Four alarms were turned in, and by the time the flames arrived the flames were shooting from the windows, while girls, hysterical from fright, were clambering through them to seek the air and safety.

immediately stopped the ship. Seamen were placed in the rigging, and everything was done to locate the missing man, who, however, never rose to the surface. It was useless to launch a boat in such angry seas.

ALLIANCE SERMONS On Sunday next Rev. Mr. Hanna, of the Dominion Alliance, will preach temperance sermons in the Cambridge-st. Methodist church and the Baptist church.

BROKE HIS LEG. Engineer Hunt, employed at the Geo. Matthew's Company's factory at Peterboro, had his left leg broken on Saturday evening by the elevator dropping from the third floor. J. Feeley who was on the elevator at the time was not hurt.

DEATHS. HICKS—At Pottery Corner, lot 2, con. 5, on Sunday November 27, William Hicks, aged 70 years. Funeral will take place from his home, on Tuesday, November 29, at 1.30. Service at the house half an hour earlier.

BIRTHS. NICHOLS — On the 15th, in Bobcaygeon, the wife of Mathew Nichols, of a daughter. DAVEY—On Nov. 16th, in Olds, Albt., the wife of Thos. H. Davey, of a son.

OBITUARY. W. WALLACE. It was quite a deep gloom that was cast over the village on Sunday evening last when it became known that Mr. Wallace, merchant, had passed to the great beyond without a word of warning.

SNOW COVERS MANITOBA FALL A FOOT DEEP—WILL BENEFIT THE LAND. Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 27.—A heavy blanket of snow covers Manitoba about a foot deep. It is warm and soft and is what the land required. It extends into Saskatchewan. It is the first good snowfall of the winter.

Fox Hunting at Dongola Dongola, Nov. 26.—We had quite a chaw this week, and the snow is all gone, but it has turned cold again to-day.

Mr. D. O'Brien's shooting match on Wednesday afternoon was a decided success. They disposed of about fifty ducks in a short time. Messrs George and Will Burley were present.

Mr. D. O'Brien's fox hound chased a fox into its den one day this week. They have been digging for him ever since, and have been successful in getting one fox, and have seen two more, but the foxes must have been there for years, as there seems to be no end to the den at all.

Mr. Wm. Eyres, a resident of Kinmount, arrived in town Monday from the Canadian West. In conversation with a Warder reporter, Mr. Eyres had the following to say about that great grain country:

Mr. Wm. Eyres, "but the crops were rather poor this year. In Southern Saskatchewan and North Dakota the crops were generally destroyed by hot winds. Around Regina and Moose Jaw the crops were fine."

Silver Grey Owl Caught In Traps Mr. James Falls, of South Verulam, who makes raising vegetables and poultry a specialty, has been missing some of his chickens. So being somewhat of a sport, he set one of his gas wis spring rat traps at the foot of a tree, where the chickens roost.

Member Predicts Merger of Implement Concerns

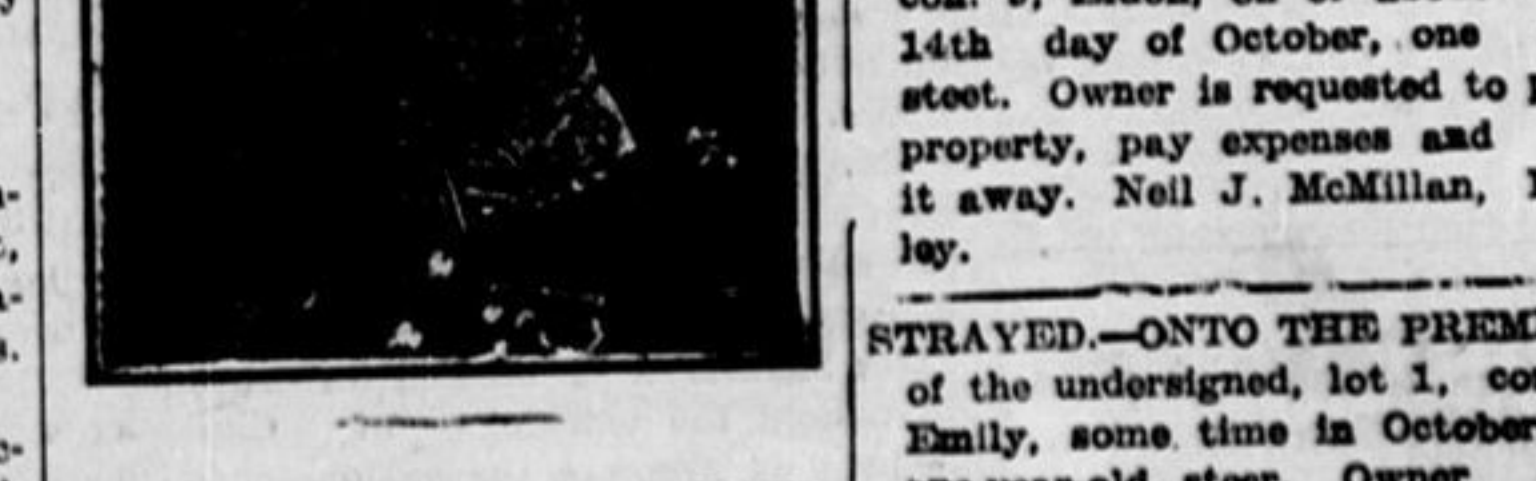

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 28.—Strong speeches were made in the House of Commons to-day in the debate upon the address by Dr. Sproule (East Grey) and Mr. Blain (Peel). Mr. Blain, who was at his best and made one of the most eloquent speeches of the entire debate, created a flutter of excitement among the members of the House by his statement that there was reason to believe there was about to be a gigantic merger of the agricultural implement manufacturers of the United States and Canada, and called upon Mr. Mackenzie King to put into execution his much-heralded statute against trusts, combines and mergers.

Crops Rather Poor In West, Stated Resident of Kinmount to Report

Many Happy Returns

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL. Ottawa, Nov. 28.—His Excellency Earl Grey to-day celebrated his 69th birthday and was the recipient of numerous messages of congratulation.

Congratulations For Dundas & Flavelles

The firm of Dundas & Flavelles, Ltd., are receiving many letters of congratulation on the occasion of this, their fiftieth anniversary. The Warder had the pleasure of reading one of these to-day and publish it here, believing it expresses the sentiments of Lindsay citizens as a whole.—Wm. Flavelle, Esq., President Dundas & Flavelles Ltd., Lindsay.

Notice to Creditors

Pursuant to judgment of the High Court of Justice made in the cause of Forbes vs Aubert, the creditors of Margaret Rennie, late of the township of Somerville in the county of Victoria, who died on or about the fourteenth day of February, A. D. 1880, including the creditors who have specific liens on plaintiff, their christian names and together with satisfactory evidence creditors who have specific liens on the whole estate or any undivided interest or estate therein of any of the parties, are on or before the 12th day of December, 1910, to send centennial of your company, and have great pleasure in extending to you my sincere congratulations. It is rare to-day for a business to continue for fifty years without a break in the same town or city, and when this does occur, it speaks well for those responsible for its vitality. That generations yet unborn may grow up to know familiarly, the lusty firm of D. and F., is the hearty wish of Yours sincerely, Lindsay, Nov. 29, 1910.

A coroner's jury at Hamilton found that Thomas Cain's death was accidental. L. M. Keating, night operator at Oscar, who was lost on a hunting trip, was found by a rescue party with both feet frozen, and he may lose them. Miss Green and her companion, who escaped from St. Mary's Academy at Windsor, were found at a hotel in Lonia, Mich.
