THE HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN

THE HOSPITAL IS A PROVINCIAL CHARITY. The sick child from the most remote corner of Ontario has the same claim as the child living within sight of the great House of Mercy in College Street, Toronto. Our cause is the children's cause. Could there be one that has a stronger claim on the people of this Province?

Another Bubblet From the Bubble

Another story is told of Mr. D. B. Thomas, by a commercial man who visited Lindsay yesterday. The traveller had a friend who met Mr. Thomas in Toronto, and was right after the job of installing a heating system in the new factory. Mr. Thomas was asked for the plan of the building, but he said he had just made one himself. However, Mr. Thomas invited him to spend Sunday in Lindsay with him and arrange matters. Before the Sunday came, Mr. Thomas had disappeared.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY

Nov 30 was St. Andrew's day and as such it will be appropriate to give some of the history of that saint and martyr. Saint Andrew, apostle and martyr, a brother of Simon Peter, a native of Bethsaida, in Galilee. Originally a disciple of John the Baptist, he heard the testimony of his master to Christ (John 1-35-40) and followed the true Messiah, soon after bringing his brother with him. Andrew is seldom mentioned in the gospel narrative. He concurred with Philip in introducing to our Lord certain Greeks, (John 12: 22) and he was one of the four to whom the prophecy was given respecting the fate of the temple. According to tradition he labored after Christ's resurrection in spreading the truth over Asia Minor, Scythia and Thrace, and was himself crucified at Patrae, in Achaia, by order of Aegaeus, on that particular form of the cross (X) that bears his name. His martyrdom is commemorated by the church on November 30. It is uncertain why St. Andrew was adopted as the patron saint of Scotland, but legend attributes the fact to the miraculous appearance of this cross in the sky before the defeat of Athelstane by the Picts and Scots.

Valentia Village Has Callers

Valentia, Nov. 29—Mr. Victor Suggitt of Port Perry, spent Sunday under the parental roof. Mrs. T. C. Birchard, of Cobocok, is visiting friends in this vicinity. Last Sabbath afternoon Mr. William Suggitt gave a splendid report of the general conference held in Victoria, B. C., which was most interesting and inspiring. We feel proud that one from our village was a delegate to this great gathering where such important questions were discussed.

HYMERAL

LOWE-WALTERS. A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walters of Woodville, on Nov. 23rd, when their youngest daughter, Emily Gladys, was married to Mr. Wesley W. Lowe, of Derryville. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of lavender crepe, the only ornament being the groom's gift of a pearl-set necklace. Rev. R. A. Whatham conducted the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Later Mr. and Mrs. Lowe left for Toronto and Hamilton, and on their return will reside at Sprucedale Farm, Derryville.

ONDERKIRK-BOWMAN

A very pretty nuptial event took place Nov. 30, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman, Adelaide-st. south, when their eldest daughter Lavinya was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Onderkirk, of Kirkfield. The service was performed by the Rev. J. W. Wallace, the bride being attended by her sister Ada, and the groom being supported by Mr. Alfred Bowman.

HADDEN-WHITE

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, 31 Melbourne-st., when their only daughter Miss Pearl was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Richard Hadden, of Picton, Ont. At five o'clock, leaning on the arm of her father, and carrying a sheaf of bridal roses, the bride entered the drawing-room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Cora Watkin, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Wilson. The bride and groom were unattended.

Milady's Mirror

Here are a few rules that the girl who is determined to diet does well to observe. There is too much trifling with our digestions these days, and not the least harm is done by the notion for underating. Never diet on the advice of a friend. Her regime may have done wonders for her and will put you to bed or make you a sorry looking wreck. Don't diet to excess at any time.

Points For Mothers

Don't snub the child who is a perpetual interrogator mark. It is a big temptation, but think how dreadful it would be if your little questioner had been born deaf and dumb or mentally deficient. Losing your patience when Willie bothers you with his "Why? or Nancy never speaks without a question to be answered then by servants when you refused to gratify childish curiosity because you were too busy. Do not feel that your child is an infant prodigy because he is given to the "why and wherefore." His quest is in its only nature's way of making instruction easier to you. See that you heed it.

Care of the Feet

The American woman is said to rival the Chinese in the abuse of her feet. But the oriental woman has the advantage over the occidental—the waddlers frankly, while the American girl cultivates grace and elegance of carriage in the narrowest of shoes, the highest of heels or the most treacherous of pumps. Corns on the soles of the feet are often developed by wearing shoes which are too narrow. They can be removed with a lotion composed of colloid and salicylic acid. Callouses made by the pump which slips can be rubbed off with pumice stone, after which cold cream must be applied.

Sweeping Good Exercise

Sweeping exercises every muscle of the body. It is sufficiently vigorous to give good exercise, and at the same time it is not so strenuous as to over-tire. A woman who sweeps does it regularly at certain hours of the day, and regularity in exercise makes for good. Then, again, the exercise is exercise with a definite object in view. The mind is interested at the same time as the body is employed.

FILING A SCREW THREAD

Simple Device Insures Accuracy Without Use of a Cutting Die. It sometimes happens that the threads of a bolt or pipe break off and must be cut without the aid of a screw cutting die. This can be accomplished very easily with the aid of an ordinary half round file and a little patience. Take a block of wood and fasten it in a vise. Make a V groove in the wood deep enough for the center of the pipe to come a little below the surface. If the pipe is long it will be better to make two of these blocks, so as to keep it steady. Now into this groove place a pipe with thread the same as wanted and on one side of the block drive in a nail. Place the flat side of a half round file against this nail and see that it forms the same

Train Your Child

Correction due much, but encouragement after censure is as the sun after a shower. Blessed be the hand that prepares a pleasure for a child, for there is no saying when and where it may bloom forth. In the man whose childhood has known caresses there is always a fiber of memory that can be touched in gentle issues. When a child returns from a neighbor's house don't question him as to what was said or done there unless you wish to sow seeds of gossip and mischief.

Modern Paintings Fade

A prominent French artist, M. Paul Signac, has just asserted that certain ruin awaits the majority of modern paintings. A few artists spare no pains to obtain pure and durable materials for their pictures. But most painters purchase ready made preparations that are chemically adulterated and must soon fade. "Works I painted once, prominent dipple in chin. He was formerly employed as a railway

Seventy Nine Years Young "Fruit-a-tives" Keeps Health Perfect

OTTERTVILLE, Ont., July 8th 1910. "I am a seventy-nine year old man, and a great believer in, and user of, 'Fruit-a-tives.' It is the only medicine I take, and I can truly say that 'Fruit-a-tives' and exercise keep me in my present good health. Stricture of the Bowels, was the complaint I suffered from and I found 'Fruit-a-tives' to do me more good than any other remedy. My doctor advised me to stick to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I have done so with the best results. I have been in business here for a good many years and have been a resident of Otterville for over fifty years, so that if you think this little reference from me will serve to induce some others to try 'Fruit-a-tives', I hereby authorize its publication. W.M. PARSONS. Obsolete Constipation, Paralysis of the Bowels and Stricture of the Bowels can never be cured by common purgatives, salts, castors, 'liver pills' and oil, have positively no action on the liver. One may as well try to cure Constipation with poulticing one's head against a stone wall, as to try to cure Constipation with common purgatives. 'Fruit-a-tives' is the only true liver stimulant. 'Fruit-a-tives' is fruit juices and nerve tonics, and will always restore the liver to its proper condition and cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. Daddy's Bedtime Story—How a Little Dog Saved an Army

"I BELIEVE, children," said daddy one evening to Evelyn and Jack, "that you are both fond of dogs, and I am sure you will be glad to hear the story of how a little dog which belonged to a great prince was the means of saving the prince's army from being defeated by his enemies. This is a true story, and it happened more than 300 years ago. The prince's name was William, and he was the ruler of the Dutch people. The Dutch in those days were fighting very hard indeed against the Spaniards. 'What were they fighting for, daddy?' asked Jack, who likes to hear stories of war and fighting. 'They were fighting because the Spaniards wanted to rule the Dutchmen's country, which is called the Netherlands. The Dutchmen would not let them. The Spaniard nation was much greater and more powerful than the Dutch, but the Hollanders were brave, good fighters. And the best of them all was their prince. 'William had a little dog, a spaniel, of which he was very fond. Whenever he went he took with him the little dog. I am sorry that I cannot tell you the name of the little dog, because he deserves to be well known. One night the Dutch soldiers were lying in camp near a city called Mook. The prince was in his tent, thinking of the next day, when he was to fight a great battle with the Spaniards, who were not far away. He was all alone. Suddenly he looked around for his little dog, but the animal was nowhere to be seen. 'I wonder where that dog can be,' said Prince William. 'I hope he is not wandering around the camp of the Spaniards.' 'As it turned out, the dog had not gone to the camp of the Spaniards, but the Spanish had come to the camp of the prince. They intended to surprise the camp, capture the prince and defeat his army. And they might have done so if it had not been for the prince's little dog. He had wandered away from the prince's tent early in the evening. When night came he was some distance away from the tent. Suddenly he saw coming toward him some strange looking soldiers. He knew they were not Dutchmen, for when they spoke their voices were different. And the quiet, sly way in which they walked made the dog believe that they were coming for no good purpose, so what did the smart doggy do but run to the prince's tent, jump at his master's feet and bark as loudly as he could. 'The dog must have seen something suspicious,' said the prince to himself, and he called his guards. In a short time the whole army was aroused and was able to defeat the Spaniards' night attack."

Warrant Issued For His Arrest

"Edward Elmer McIntosh—Height 5 feet 6 inches, weight 160 lbs., age 25 years, brown hair, full face, clean shaven, fair complexion, straight nose, prominent dimple in chin. He was formerly employed as a railway brakeman." Toronto, Nov. 30—A warrant was issued yesterday afternoon by the Attorney-General's Department for the apprehension of Edward Elmer McIntosh, the railway brakeman, who is charged with the theft of a package of $20,000 unsigned Traders' Bank bills, consigned from the American Bank Note Company, Ottawa, to the Traders' Bank, Toronto, in March of last year. The notes were in the care of the Dominion Express Company, and while suspicion was directed against McIntosh, at the time of the robbery nothing could be brought home to him, although shortly after the occurrence he was discharged by the railway company.

HIT BACK AT ALDERMEN

PICTURE MEN WAR ON THOSE WHO RAISED FEES. The Ottawa city council decided some time ago to raise the license fee for moving picture theatres from $25 to $300 a year in spite of the howl set up by the proprietors of these establishments. Now, to get back at the aldermen who were instrumental in bringing about this increase, which goes into force Jan. 1, the proprietors of the "nickel shows" have decided to throw the names of the aldermen in question on the screen at every show, with a request to the patrons of the theatres not to vote for these aldermen at the coming election. "We will leave it to the public as to whether we had a square deal," say the theatre men.
