Irregularities of Ex-Town Clerk Total $20,541.49

The special auditor appointed by the town council to audit the books of the corporation of the Town of Lindsay, at the meeting of the council held Wednesday submitted the following report on the progress of the special audit:

next municipal elections for the purpose of granting the Central Power Company the privilege of erecting poles on Lindsay-st., etc., was discussed and on motion was given the first and second readings. The ratepayers will have the say in the third reading by their vote.

which had been sent them. I am pleased to report that, with very few exceptions, I have been able to get the desired information from the people to whom I have written. During the course of the audit discoveries have been made which prove conclusively that part of the irregularities reported above has occurred in the period prior to January 1908.

READY FOR APPLICANTS

The new town clerk of the Town of Lindsay, who is yet to be appointed, will receive an initial salary of $1,000 per annum, and will besides doing the work in connection with the secretaryship of the town, be secretary of the Board of Water Commissioners and also secretary of the Board of Education.

Witness Swore he Did Not Sign the Check

Mr. Hopkins, K.C., Corrects Report In Warder

Dear Sir,—I take exception to your report in my firm's case against the town. In the first place we got judgment for two dollars with costs and not without costs. In the next place Mr. McLaughlin did not prove clearly that there was no understanding between him and the council that I should attend the meeting in Toronto.

Mr. O'Reilly Requests That Town Council Object to Proposed Route of C.P.R.

At last week's council meeting Mr. John O'Reilly, of the east ward, presented a grievance on behalf of the citizens of that part of the ward around the corner of St. Paul and Dennison-sts. Mr. O'Reilly stated that he had seen the route of the new C.P.R. Georgian Bay line, which would be presented to the council in the near future.

A Re-Union May Be Held

The editor of the Millbrook Reporter says: It has been suggested to us that a reunion of Cavan and Millbrook Old Boys next summer, would be well thought of by the home guard, and especially by the many sons and daughters of the district now far or near in other lands and climes.
