class presented him with a handsome signet ring and a beautifully worded address as a mark of appreciation of his in the Sunday school. Next came old Santa Claus and distributed lavishly among the little folk. At the close another surprise was in store when Mr. Sutherland on behalf of the St. Andrew's Session presented Rev. Mr. Lord with a handsome gold headed cane. Mr. Lord, thought completely taken by surprise, thanked the co-workers for their loyalty and support during his pastorate in this church.

Mr. Robert Bell, of Lindsay, and Miss T. Henry spent Christmas the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bell.

Miss C. Lodge, of Toronto, spent the holiday in town.

Captured Prizes at Cannington Show

Mr. Harry Lush, the Peterboro poultry breeder, has returned with his birds from Cannington, where he had splendid luck at the poultry show which was held there last week. With sixty-seven birds he won sixty-four prizes, including the special prize for the best bird in the show, which he won with a spangled ham-burg cock, also eight other special prizes.

Mr. Lush says the Cannington show was a grand success. At the dress poultry show which was held on Thursday in conjunction with the other show, there were fifteen tons of chickens sold. The turkeys brought as high as 20c per lb., the geese 13c, and the prize butter 28c per lb. Mr. Lush also won many prizes at Guelph.

McTaggart is Still Missing

Coboconk, Dec. 26.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of young McTaggart deepens. For over three weeks nothing has been heard of him. The theory that he is working in some other lumber camp is discounted by the fact that all his clothes and his wages await him at his last place of appointment.

Burton, one of his companions, now denies the reported encounter between himself and McTaggart, and claims that they parted as good friends.

A preliminary hearing was held at Fenelon Falls, but owing to the absence of an important witness a postponement was taken.

A Worthy and Popular Reeve

Mr. Chas. Cornell, the popular reeve of Emily, decided this year to withdraw from municipal matters, after serving the township in the above capacity for two years. Although his many friends pressed a desire that he should still represent the people of Emily in the county and municipal council his modesty and wish that others should have an opportunity to hold the honor, appealed to him that it was prudent to retire.

Few men who have served the people as Mr. Cornell did for 26 years have left behind the clean record which he has to his credit. The retiring reeve acted in the capacity of assessor for five years and in the reeve's chair for two years. During this time $250,000 passed through his hands and not one mistake occurred to mar the dignity of his duties, and no dissenting voices were heard to clamor against the raising of the assessed value of the township of which he discharged his duties of office. There is a vague possibility that through the action of friends, who would wish to see Mr. Cornell in the reeve's chair again, he might concede to their wish, but not through any desire of his own.

As a member of the county council he displayed ability, manliness and force of character, which proved him to be a power for any municipality and a credit to the township which he represents.

CHARLES CORNELL, Reeve of Emily, who retires this year.

MR. HAWKINS POSITION

EXPLAINS HIS POSITION RE CERTAIN MATTERS.

Mr. Peter Hawkins has volunteered the following information to The Watchman concerning the municipal matters. As certain parties made statements which led the public to believe the reeve favored the raising of salaries at the last meeting of the county council, he wishes to state that this is an erroneous idea, and that he was powerless to act as he was chairman at the time the motion came up and could only show his hand if he were called upon to decide by casting a vote for or against the measure. In reference to Hutton's grove bridge he also wishes to state that a saving of $2200 was made by his judicious attention to the affairs of the township.

More Indian troops have been killed by the Persians.

Mr. Miyako, M.P., of Japan, who is visiting Ottawa, says his Government intends to stop the emigration of Japanese to Canada.

School Teacher Remembered by The Pupils

Omenee, Dec. 22.—Mrs. White, who has been assistant teacher in the public school for the past term, and whose labors concluded on the 22nd inst., was the recipient of a very pretty handbag and a complimentary address from the pupils of her room. The address was read by Daisy Adams and the presentation made by Doris Sandy. The address follows:

Mrs. White,—We your pupils of Omenee school are sorry to know that you are about to leave us. Your short stay has been profitable to us and we have grown to love you. We would ask you to accept this gift from your scholars as a slight token of good-will. We wish you and yours all prosperity and happiness. Signed on behalf of the school, Irene Clemet.

Wedding bells were merrily ringing on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McQuade on Sturgeon-st., when her daughter Miss Gertrude McQuade was married to Mr. Robt. Williamson of town. The Rev. Robert Burns tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a number of invited guests. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. After a sumptuous wedding repast the young benedicts left on the 8.30 p.m. train for a honeymoon trip east. The contracting parties are popular citizens and will reside in Omenee.

SIXTEEN DROWNED

BRITISH STEAMER GOES DOWN — SEVEN RESCUED.

Glasgow, Dec. 26.—The British steamer Guillelot, from London for Genoa, foundered in the Bay of Biscaya on December 21. The captain and fifteen of her crew were lost. Seven survivors were picked up by the British steamer Lincoln and landed here to-day.

CANOEES OUT.

Huntsville, Ont., Dec. 26.—Owing to the remarkably mild weather prevailing here, instead of the usual winter pastimes of skating and sleighing, many of the citizens of Huntsville enjoyed a few hours on the water on Christmas day. A number of canoes and rowboats were seen, and Mr. J. E. Mosley treated some of his friends to a launch trip up the lake.

IMPORTED TOILET WATERS

That every lady who has used them loves toilet waters, is so heartily an absolute truth that you will welcome this gift suggestion in our Christmas display. We have many favorites, being productions of the Oriental type fragrant and subtle yet not too heavy. We have them in beautiful boxes, also in pretty bottles that on sight will give you the impression that they are of the classy kind.
