Many growing girls in school or business are frail—delicate—anaemic—lack energy and ambition and have thin blood. It is all unnatural and unless checked leads to serious and chronic illness. Nourishment, not drugs, is the law of reason to build strength—but when appetite is poor and digestion weak, ordinary foods do not nourish—then SCOTT'S EMULSION is necessary. SCOTT'S EMULSION overcomes just such conditions; its tissue material enters the blood without digestive effort and makes it rich. It tones the whole system and starts the healthy action of cells throughout the body. Imitations are often offered, but to get results you must get SCOTT'S. A BLOODY SCRAP

WEST OPS FARMER FOUGHT ON KENT-ST. Saturday night about 8.30 a fight took place on Kent-st. in which two West Ops farmers played a prominent part. It was a rough and tumble scrap and the participants received more cuts and bruises than the average pugilist would receive in a thirty thousand purse. Fully two hundred people witnessed the disgraceful exhibition. No one seemed to know how it originated.

A COLD

However Slight MAY TURN INTO BRONCHITIS.

You should never neglect a cold, however slight. If you do not treat it in time it will, in all possibility, develop into bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or some other serious throat or lung trouble.

On the first sign of a cold or cough it is advisable to cure it at once, and not let it run on for an indefinite period.

For this purpose there is nothing to equal Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used for the past twenty-five years.

You do not experiment when you get it. Mrs. Louis Lalonde, Penetanguishene, Ont., writes:—"When my little boy was two years old he caught a cold which turned into bronchitis. I tried everything to cure him, even to doctor's medicine, but it did him no good. One day I was advised to give Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup a trial, and before he had half a bottle used, he was cured. I would advise all mothers to try it, as good results will follow. My home is never without it."

See that you get "Dr. Wood's" as there are numerous imitations. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, 3 pence the trade mark; the price, 25 and 50 cents. Manufactured only by The T. Millers Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dramatic Circles

"The Fortune Hunter" is a play full of humor, much wit, and not a little beautiful sentiment of the homely sort, and it enables Winchell Smith, the author, to marshal a group of rural characters that are quite as faithful to a sort of life which would go on in Sam Graham's drug store in Dadville, Penna., as "Shore Acres" and "The Old Homestead" are to the best phases of rural life in New-England. It causes the emotions to stir as well as pleases with its wit and original un-hackneyed plot. Nat Duncan, the unsuccessful in everything he has undertaken, who goes into the small city far from the metropolis to seek his fortune by marrying an heiress, ultimately finds happiness, learns how to make money, and wins a wife, but it is by ways that are not of his own or his friends' devising. How he does so is clearly told in this best of American plays, the play that ran continuously for two years in New York City. It will be presented at the Academy of Music on Saturday, December 28th, with John Meehan, the former Lindsay young man, in the leading role.

Her Mother Did Not Shop Early

No goods purchased abroad are cheap that take the place of our own labor and our own raw material.

Therefore she got left, and this little girl was cheated of Christmas.

There are few sadder sights than a child crying on Christmas. Let us hope that YOUR child may never have this sorrow through YOUR neglect. The way to avoid it is to shop early. It was last Christmas that this little girl failed to get her presents because her mother left buying them to the last moment and then fell ill. It is safe to say that mother has learned her lesson and will never procrastinate again.

You should learn your lesson without being taught it by the tears of a child.

Make sure by doing your Christmas buying today. Then no accident can keep from your little ones their Christmas joy.

AUCTION ADS. IN DAILY.

The rapid growth of Daily Watchman circulation in rural sections should be noted by auctioneers with a view to insertion of auction sale advertisements in the Daily as well as the Weekly. So many farmers are now taking the Daily that it is necessary to include both. This can easily be done at little difference in cost. People contemplating the holding of a sale should also note this suggestion and not leave it to the auctioneer only to think of it.

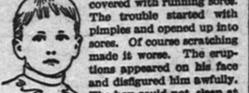

SHERIFFS' SALE

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of His Majesty's County Court of Huron and to me directed and delivered against the lands and tenements of Thomas Windrim, wherein the McPherson-Hooley Company are plaintiffs and Thomas Windrim is defendant. I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest and equity of redemption of the above mentioned Thomas Windrim in or out of the following lands and tenements viz: the north half of lot 6 in the 6th concession of the township of Emily in the County of Victoria. All of which right, title, interest and equity of redemption I will offer for sale by public auction at my office in Lindsay, on Monday, the 23rd day of December, 1912, at the hour of 2 o'clock p.m.

DISFIGURED WITH ERUPTIONS ON FACE

Body Covered With Running Sores. Could Not Sleep from Itching and Pain. Cross and Fretful. Tried Fifty Remedies Without Result. Cured in Nine Days by Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

30 Champagne St., Montreal, Quebec.—"I have a five-year-old boy who was suffering from what the doctor said was 'eczema.' His body was all covered with pimples and opened up into sores. Of course scratching made it worse. The eruptions appeared on his face and disfigured him awfully. The boy could not sleep at night from the itching and pain, and I did not know what to do with him. It made him cross and fretful. If I had tried one, I have tried fifty remedies without result. At last I got samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using them two days I noticed a change made in his condition. I used Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I used to give the boy a hot bath daily using Cuticura Soap freely, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. He had suffered three months with the horrible disease before I started to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and nine days after the boy was cured and has not been troubled since." (Signed) E. Cloutier, Dec. 12, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A single sale is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. BIRTH OF COLONEL BOGY.

Origin of the Term That Has Become a Part of Golf.

"Who is Colonel Bogey?" That is the first question usually asked by the recruit when he steps on the golf links. Professionals and veterans never tire of explaining that the bred is the imaginary opponent, with the bred score for each hole, but few can tell how the name originated.

It generally is accepted that an Englishman was first to set forth the idea. In December, 1890, the scratch score of the Coventry course was taken, being the score that a good scratch player would take to each hole of the grounds, making no mistakes, but also flunking nothing nor being fortunate with any special strokes of brilliant play.

At the time they called this "the ground score," and later several tournaments were given under the system. The name, however, followed soon, and its origin was a curious one. Dr. Thomas Browne, R. N., went out to play against a friend, Major Charles A. Wellman, and they agreed instead of playing directly against each other to play against the ground score and decide their match accordingly as each fared in this way. It so happened that about the same time the bogey score was being sung by the boys on the links at the London Gaiety theater, and everybody else was singing it. The words of the refrain were:

Hush! Hush! Hush! So hide your head beneath the clothes. He'll catch you if he can! "He'll catch you if he can!" And it flashed across the mind of Major Wellman when he was playing this game and was getting "caught" by the ground score. "Why," said he to his friend Browne, "this player of yours is a regular 'bogy' man." A considerable piece of golf history was made in that chance remark, for "bogy" was that moment established in golf. Some time later "colonel" was added.—Exchange.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

EXECUTORS' SALE

There will be offered for sale by public auction on Saturday the twenty-first day of December, 1912, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Simpson House in the town of Lindsay, by Elias Boves, auctioneer, the east half of lot No. 15, in the 10th concession of the township of Ops, containing 100 acres more or less. The property is situated about six miles from the town of Lindsay. There is a good comfortable house built upon the same, a frame barn 30 x 60, a log stable for horses and frame cow stable and hen house. There are about 60 acres of the land under cultivation, a good orchard and the balance is pasture and swamp land, which is timbered with tamarac and elm. The property is all fenced and there is a good well on the same.

The said land will be sold subject to a reserved bid and to the usual standing conditions of sale of the high court of justice.

Possession to be given on the first of March, 1913.

Terms—10 per cent of the purchase money to be paid down at the time of sale and the balance within 30 days thereafter without interest.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to McLaughlin, Peel, Fulton & Stinson of the town of Lindsay, solicitors for John H. Peel and Charles Hartley, executors of Charles Peel, deceased.

Dated at Lindsay this 26th day of November, A.D. 1912.

OBITUARY

MICHAEL FOX

Death came suddenly to Mr. M. Fox, an old and respected pioneer of Ops township, at his home on Monday afternoon, December 9th. Mr. Fox had been in his usual health in the morning and performed some minor duties around the home. About dinner time he walked to the barn and fed the cattle, from there he went to the well and pumped water for the stock, after which his housekeeper, Miss K. Roche, saw him coming towards the house. As he passed through the woodshed he was noticed to fall and on Miss Roche going to his assistance she found life was rapidly fleeing away. She at once set out for assistance to Mr. John Walker's and Mr. A. Cunningham's, nearby neighbors, who on their return to the home of Mr. Fox found his spirit had fled, heart failure was the direct cause.

The deceased was one of the most favorably known men in Ops, being possessed of a generous spirit and a willingness to assist a friend or neighbor at all times. Mr. Fox was a resident of the township for twenty years, having come to the municipality from Emily, where his parents previously resided. He was 78 years of age at the time of his demise. His wife predeceased him about ten years ago. The following children survive: Jas. and Ed. in Ops; William on the homestead; Michael and Thos. in Lindsay; Mrs. Jos. Breen, Lindsay; and Mrs. John Whalen, Ops. He has also two brothers and one sister which survive. They are: Mr. Richard Fox, Emily; Mr. Jas. Fox, Fenelon; and one sister, Mrs. Patrick Tracey, of Ops.

The funeral will take place from the late home of the deceased at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, Dec. 11, 1912, and proceed to St. Mary's R. C. church, where high mass will be celebrated by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, and thence to the Catholic cemetery for interment.

HERE'S FUN.

Definitions is a Game For Old or Young. Definitions is an interesting game, suitable for young folks, and their elders need not disdain to join in. The leader gives to each a slip of paper, on which he or she writes the word given to define and the definition of it, according to the idea of the writer.

Each player in turn has the right to give a word that has some connection with the Yuletide festival, and all these words are written down before the definitions are given. The object is to allow each to be epigrammatic, poetical, ideal or imaginative.

REMOVED THE PROUD FLESH

And Healed The Wound With But Three Applications.

You could not have a better proof of the value of Egyptian Liniment than is given by the experience of Mr. C. A. Holden, of Montreal, as given in his letter. "My pony received a deep cut across the back of her leg below the hock joint, after trying several remedies, without any beneficial results, I was induced to try Douglas' Egyptian Liniment. Proud flesh had formed the size of a hickory nut. After three applications it was entirely healed, which I consider marvellous, as a small artery had been cut, which spurted blood every time the wound was disturbed."

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. CARMICHAEL.

Manilla, Dec. 10.—There occurred in Manilla on Wednesday, December 4, the death of Mrs. Carmichael, wife of the late Archibald Carmichael. The deceased lady had not been feeling well for a few days previous to Sunday, when suddenly she was seized with hemorrhage of the stomach. Medical aid was quickly summoned, and everything done possible to alleviate her sufferings, but it was all of no avail, and she passed to the great beyond at 7 o'clock p.m. Mrs. Carmichael had reached the advanced age of 74 years and 9 months. She was of a kind and cheerful disposition, and respected by all who knew her. Her husband predeceased her some eight years ago.

The funeral service, conducted at her late home, was short but impressive; the Presbyterian pastor of Cunningham officiating.

A large number of sympathetic neighbors and friends of the departed attended the funeral, as a mark of esteem and respect.

Those left to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted mother are: Miss Belle and Duncan Carmichael, at home; Mr. Archibald Carmichael, of Woodville; Mr. Dan Carmichael, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. Hugh Carmichael, of Winnipeg; and John, of Vancouver. The last two named sons were not present. The remains were borne to their last resting place and tenderly laid to rest by her husband in Eldon cemetery. Her brother and three sons, Archie, Dan and Duncan, being the pall-bearers. Sympathy and condolences are extended to the bereaved in their great sorrow and loneliness.

GRAB BAG IS LOTS OF FUN

There are many jolly games that can be played on Christmas night, and one of the jolliest is the grab bag, which has afforded much fun in times past. There should be a big window hanging a pillowcase will answer tied from the chandelier. In this bag put dozens and dozens of little gifts, not one of them expensive, just all sorts of trinkets that you can pick up for a few pennies each, every one neatly tied in paper, so no one knows what's inside.

Then a boy or a girl is blindfolded, given a cane in one hand, turned round three times and told to strike at the bag.

It is great sport for the watchers to see the frantic efforts made to hit the bag, and equally exciting when, having succeeded, the blindfolded player dips into the grab bag and pulls out a gift.

Such fun it is to open the packages! For there are enough gifts in the bag to give every brother or sister or cousin lots of hits.

A STOCKING CONTEST.

For this contest make as many small stockings of net as there are children to play. Then cut from magazines and advertisements pictures of articles suitable for a Christmas stocking, such as books, games, toys, etc. Mount these on thin cardboard and then cut into irregular pieces for picture puzzles. Place each puzzle separately in a small red envelope or tissue paper and fill the stockings, avoiding duplication. When ready give each a stocking, the object being to find its contents by putting the puzzles together one after the other. A prize should be awarded to the one who first solves all the picture puzzles, and this prize may be one of the filled stockings. They can easily be filled at home for 25 cents each. The same contest may be given for older children by using anagrams instead of the picture puzzles, and these will be found less troublesome to prepare. If desired Christmas boxes may be used instead of the stockings. Place the puzzles or anagrams in small boxes, packing in with cotton as if fragile, and tie up and mark the boxes as if they had come by express or mail.

"YOU'LL SUFFER ALL YOUR LIFE"

That's what the Doctor told him

"Fruit-a-tives Cured Him"

CHRISTEVILLE, ONT., Jan. 25th 1911. "For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and that I would be a sufferer for the rest of my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but none of them suited my case. Nearly a year ago, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives'. I have been using this fruit medicine nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I give 'Fruit-a-tives' the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am now seventy-six years old, and in first class health!" GEO. W. BARKLEY.
