Population Table

Table showing population of Canada and various provinces from 1871 to 1911. Columns include Year, Province, and Population.

Commerce and Naval Power

Canada is a commercial country. It is decided by Providence that this should be so. No one can doubt this if he will take the trouble to examine our lines of sea coast...

Small in population though we may be our exports of grain will in a very short time exceed that of any country in the world.

As our material prosperity increases the prize becomes more dear to the cupidity of foreign nations and our commerce will always be endangered in the event of Great Britain becoming involved in war if we have no appearance of naval force.

Bautiful Crossed Fox Captured at Manilla

Manilla, Dec. 9.—Last Saturday Mr. J. R. Sonley's home was the scene of a happy concourse of Sunday school scholars and teachers...

Mr. Robert Brown of the west ward, succeeded in capturing a nice cross fox recently, having run for several hours Mr. Brown ran into his den. Mr. Brown worked faithfully, digging for several hours, and having seen the fox during the day he felt certain that either a black or silver grey had dened, but night coming on had to cease as his dogs would not grapple with the fox.

May Choose Hon. Sam. Hughes To Serve Canada in London

Ottawa, Dec. 10.—There is a great deal of discussion here as to what minister of the crown will be detailed to serve on the imperial defence committee. Naturally, Hon. J. D. Hazen, as minister of naval affairs, has been mentioned, as also has Colonel Sam. Hughes, minister of militia and defence.

Bear and Cub Shot - One Cub Got Away

Nogie's Creek, Dec. 10.—Mr. Geo. Quibell and son Albert, also Mr. John Ascott have returned from the west. On Thursday of last week little Norman Oliver, second son of Mrs. Wm. Oliver, met with a very painful accident. He was leading one of the horses, when it trod on him, the calk of the shoe cutting through the boot and cutting Norman's ankle very badly.

Lindsay Man Invents a Corner Feed Box

Mr. Jas. Flury, of East Kent st., has invented and patented a corner feed box for use in horse stables, or wherever grain or chaff is fed to animals. The invention promises to do away with horses bawling and wasting their grain, while eating, thus protecting them from many diseases which such inattention invariably causes.

Two New County Constables Appointed

The county court on Monday session of the peace, was held on Tuesday before his honor Judge Harding. Two cases were before the court—one the naturalization of an alien, and another the appointment of two county constables. This concluded the business of the court.

Municipal Candidates in Ops Tp.

It is reported that the following parties will offer for the position of township councillor in Ops this coming year: Messrs. J. Payne, John Brock, William Sloan, G. Maloney and W. Best. They are all good men and any of them are well fitted for the position.

Obituary: JAMES HELME

Mr. Jas. Helme, an old and respected citizen, passed away on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 12th, to join the great majority.

Council Talk In Ops Township

Election talk is quiet in the Township of Ops this year, although it is expected that by the day of nomination there will be several candidates in the field.

Read Newspaper by Moonlight

On December 23rd and 24th it will be almost possible to read a newspaper by the light of the silvery moon. On the first mentioned date the orb will be at the zenith of its power, which, coupled with the fact that the earth will then be at its nearest point to the sun, explains the reason for the unusual brilliancy of the moon on this occasion.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

It is evident, judging by the large crowd which were in town on Saturday last, that the public have decided to take The Watchman's persistent advice to Shop Early. It is not too late to yet to buy (eight more days), but the first comer gets the best selection.

All Skin Diseases ARE OCCASIONED BY BAD BLOOD.

No one can expect to be free from some form or other of skin trouble unless the blood is kept in good shape. The blood can easily be purified and the skin disease cured by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, that old and widely known blood medicine.

Council Talk In Ops Township

It is understood that Reeve Robertson will be again in the field, and that his opponent will be Mr. Peter Hawkins, ex-reeve. For the council it is understood that Messrs. Wesley Waldon and Fred Hickson will drop out this year.
