Where The Good Clothes Come From.

OAKWOOD.
Oakwood, Dec. 9.—We are pleased to learn that Mrs. R. Gardner has improved during the past week, and hope for her speedy recovery.
The Oakwood and East Oakwood Sunday Schools are both preparing for a concert. East Oakwood will have their concert on Monday evening, Dec. 22nd, beginning at 8.00 o'clock. A good program, consisting of two good dialogues, songs and recitations is being prepared. Oakwood concert, which promises to be good, will be given Xmas eve. Our merchants already have their stores in holiday attire, and are very busy with Xmas trade. We are glad to see some signs of a sleigh ride, and hope there will good sleighing for the holidays. Mrs. Davies entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid at their last meeting. After the meeting lunch was served to about forty ladies by Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Rodman, Mrs. Neill and Miss Mitchell.

SALEM CORNERS.

Salem Corners, Dec. 7.—The fine weather has given the farmers a chance to get their fall work and plowing completed.
Quite a number from here attended the funeral of the late James Varcoe, of Toronto, which was held at Zion Methodist Church on Monday, he being an old resident of this vicinity at one time.
Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Davison have returned from Streetsville, where they attended the funeral of her sister.
Mr. Richard Pascoe and Mrs. J. Rundle, of Solina, are spending a few days with their cousin, Mr. Wesley Thorne.
Several successful shooting matches have taken place here lately. A goodly number of geese have been taken home by the winners.
Mrs. Burrows, of Newcastle, is visiting with her daughter, Miss M. Burrows.
Thank-offering services will be held here Sunday, December 14th. Rev. W. Dafeo will preach at 11 a.m. and Rev. E. Morton, from Little Britain, in the evening at 7 p.m.
Mr. Arthur Nash spent the weekend with friends in Toronto.
