WILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Doucette Tells of her Distressing Symptoms During Change of Life and How She Found Relief.

Belleville, Nova Scotia, Can.—"Three years ago I was suffering badly with what the doctors called Change of Life. I was so bad that I had to stay in bed. Some friends told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me. It is the only medicine I took that did help me and I recommend it to all women who are approaching the period in which a woman's great change may be expected."

Dr. E. F. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the organism and builds up the weak nervous system. It has carried women safely through this crisis. You want special advice write to Dr. E. F. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be read and answered by a physician, and held in strict confidence.

Wedding Bells
WETHERALL-GALLAGHER.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, Nov. 26th, at 2:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Gallagher, Bethany, when her only daughter, Ruby May, was united in wedlock to Mr. Thomas Milton Wetherall, son of the late W. J. Wetherall, of Bethany. The ceremony being performed by Rev. W. W. Jones, of Janetville, and Rev. P. H. Neville, of Bethany.

The bride, given away by her uncle, Mr. T. E. Staples, of Lifford, looked charming in a white marquisette dress, trimmed with point lace and embroidery, and wearing a bridal veil, arranged in Juliet cap. The bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Staples, of Lifford, cousin of the bride, was dressed in pink eoline, while Mr. Ed. Lethangue, of the same place, acted in the capacity of groomsmen. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Mervin Mounjouty, of Burketon.

The ceremony was witnessed by 40 of their most immediate relatives, who, during the signing of the register, enjoyed a social time. This over, the wedding party repaired to the dining-room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The waiters were Misses Florence Ernot and Vera Staples, of Lifford; Ethel Gilbank, of Burlington, and Edna Manning, of Peterboro. After the repeat the happy couple motored to the C.P.R. 6 o'clock train to visit Peterboro, Newcastle and other points, and upon their return will reside at "Fairview" Farm, Bethany.

The presents to the young couple were handsome and costly. The groom's gift to the bride was an amethyst pin.

Death of Rev. John Creighton
Last Friday Rev. Canon Marsh, of St. Paul's Church, received the sad message from Port Hope announcing the death of Rev. John Creighton, for six years a resident of Lindsay.

It appears that death occurred at his Port Hope residence after a short illness, the members of the family, Mrs. Creighton, Miss Creighton and Rev. Walter Creighton, of Bradford, being present.

The deceased gentleman was a devout clergyman, one of the old stock, sincere in every right purpose. He was born in Ireland, and for thirty years was stationed in Cartwright Township. The funeral took place Saturday from Cartwright, near Blackstock.

To Xmas Shoppers
Buy your Christmas presents early—early in the day—and do it now. That will be your biggest gift of the holidays to the workers behind the counters and on the delivery wagons.

That is the reminder that comes from the National Consumers' League of the United States, which, with its fifty-six branches in nineteen states, grew out of the case of a little cashboy more than twenty years ago. This little boy spent January on a hospital cot, sick with pneumonia, because he had worked six days from sun up to midnight in foul air and with irregular meals. One day he had neither luncheon nor dinner, and this was all because the idea of early Christmas shopping had not been spread over the land.

In the new literature of the recurrent campaign the liericks are in evidence. Here are a few of them:
Two days before Christmas, calm Kate Started out on her shopping in state;
But in all the mash She found nothing but trash;
Kate, why did you wait till so late?
We hear much about the bad Turk, Why should we our own duty shirk?
If we shop long and late We show the same trait,
And act like a Turk to the clerk.
Miss Folly her shopping did late, Now mark her unfortunate state;
She was worn to a thread And spent Christmas in bed;
Thus shared she the shop girls' own fate.
Here is the question put by Florence Kelly, general secretary of the league:
Why should the holiday season be a time of torturing overwork for any man, woman or child?—New York Times.

Dr. Blanchard Inspected Schools
The Ops Board of Health composed of Dr. F. Blanchard, M.H.O., Rev. Jas. Robertson and T. Dowhey, of Rebaro, met in the township clerk's office on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 9th. Dr. Blanchard presented his report to the board, which proved very satisfactory to the members. The doctor visited all the schools in the township under instructions received from Dr. Clinton, Provincial M.H.O. for this district, and reported favorably of those seats of learning. For many months the M.H.O. stated that the township was immune from all contagious diseases.

Other incidentals relative to closing the business for the year were transacted by the members before they adjourned.
Toronto police officials will seek legislation to prevent newspapers from publishing racing information. More stringent laws against immorality and the abolition of race-track gambling were urged at Ottawa by a strong deputation.

You Can Cure CONSTIPATION By The Use Of MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

GOLD DUST
not only cleans, but sterilizes
Gold Dust does more than wash the surface—it digs deep after germs and hidden particles of dirt and decay. It purifies and makes everything sanitarly safe. Neither dirt nor germs can live where Gold Dust has made its appearance.

Gold Dust needs little help from you; it does most of the work alone. It is a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, to which are added cleansing and purifying ingredients which get busy the moment they touch the water.
Use Gold Dust for all cleansing purposes. It saves time, saves labor, saves backs, and saves money.

CITY FOLKS LIVING LIKE ANTS
That we are living like ants in the big cities to-day is the statement of George E. Hooker, civic secretary of the Chicago City Club. Speaking at the third annual session of the national conference on housing he said that crowded conditions necessitated larger buildings, where human beings swarmed, and required to burrow into the ground to give them means of transportation to and from their places of business. He advocated the building of garden cities. But what about moving out altogether into the country where there is no congestion, and where work brings a healthy life and a living.
