Entertainment at Murphy's Schools. Murphy's schoolhouse, in South Ops, was the great centre of amusement on Friday night, Dec. 19th, when upon the closing of the school the teacher, Miss Lucas, with her pupils, gave to the parents and ratepayers of the section a very high class and grand entertainment, which lasted for over two hours.

The program was composed of sand drills, dialogues, speeches, music, and a real live Santa Claus. The school room was crowded to its fullest capacity, and after electing Mr. John Hill to fill the position of chairman, the concert was proceeded with. Each number seemed to improve on the previous one, and the parents were filled with a pleasurable pride at the excellence of the performance and the training which Miss Lucas had given those who took part.

Mr. Owen Trainor, as vocalist, and Mrs. Trainor, as organist, rendered the evening's entertainment complete with the choice selections rendered. The concert was closed with a hearty vote of thanks to the chairman and teacher.
