ROUGHRIDERS DESERVE GREAT CREDIT

After seeing the Bobcaygeon Roughriders in action again on Friday night, this column and some 100 fans who attended the game certainly can be proud of the Blue and White.

They made an excellent showing against the prized imports of the County town, and the patrons were well satisfied.

Lindsay certainly speaks well for itself about poor hockey attendance. If their people wouldn't support a winning team then what would it support?

Bobcaygeon fans probed their arena with anyplace from 500 to 600 fans every game. That is of course O. H. A. Intermediate), despite the fact that the boys have only won one game in four starts defeating Fenelon Falls 12-2, and losing to Port Perry 4-3, and dropping a 5-4 decision to Cannington, and were squeezed out by Lindsay, with a 5-6 loss.

Perhaps Lindsay take a different attitude to the rest of the hockey circuit. "Why should the fans patronize the game?" Bobcaygeon fans patronize it because they like to see their own kids out there fighting, no matter how badly they get licked, as long as they play it square. Lindsay fans won't even come out to see their team win. We'll wager its because some of the Lindsay players are complete strangers to them.

The roughriders journey to Fenelon on Friday night. Where they will take on the Fenelon crew. The odds need this win so make it a point to go with them. The bus is making a special trip for the fans. Leaving Bobcaygeon at 7:30. The return fare is 30 cents.

Yes, friends Lindsay have been up to their old tricks again, that is the very bad habit of playing illegal men.

One Lindsay hockey fan is very put out about it and says, "I don't know why they do it. They ruined a good team last year by the same practice, and they have done it before, they know they can't get away with it! I often wonder the same thing myself. Why do they do it. But you know Lindsay."

Last year Lindsay played two illegal men, Beare and Wakelin with the results that these two young chaps were out of hockey for the rest of the year.

How come there is always a sweater shy when the locals step on the ice for a game. When the imports came there were enough for all. But the last two games has found "Ace" Nichols has been wearing a red and white sweater. Its about time the management dug up that other sweater and lets have a look at a full dressed team

X X X X
It was a good game in Lindsay on Friday night with the Roughriders stealing the whole show in the third period. Even going so far as to tie it up. But one Lindsay player scared the referee to death after they had made their way to centre. But then skated back to the blue line. No goal says Aldus but unable to give reason.

X X X X
The game in Lindsay will be played over again if it has any bearing on the locals chances of getting into the playoffs.

X X X X
The disputed goal was over the line all right, but it was worth an argument, so much so, that it cost a Lindsay player a misconduct penalty.

X X X X
The Lindsay scribe says he can get people who would swear on a bible that the disputed goal was not in.

Very well, I was talking to several people at the same end of the rink that the occurrence took place who said with a sad smile, "It was a goal alright. But perhaps the Lindsay scribe meant he could get people from the opposite end of the rink."

X X X X
The Lindsay scribe (Daily Worker) claims the Bobcaygeon goal judge had difficulty in finding the red light. We cannot say this about the Lindsay Judge, as he could find it too easy, as he would snap it on when one of the Lindsay players would shoot proving that he was not a capable goal judge.

X X X X
A good hockey player should know how far to go in an argument with a referee. But some can never learn.

JUNIOR HOCKEY

The junior hockey club will play a team from Buckhorn, on Monday night at the local arena. This ought to be fairly exciting. Come and see your future intermediates.

X X X X
Before this group started the schedule the Cannington Club wrote each club a letter asking that Woodville be allowed in the group, and everyone said yes except Lindsay, and why did Lindsay say no, because they wanted two players from Woodville and so without the consent of Lindsay Woodville could not enter this group. And now Lindsay turn around and say things about Cannington because they had two players kicked out for the season. Lindsay didn't think anything, when they had a whole team kept out of hockey over their selfishness.

X X X X
Tuesday night Port Perry defeated Fenelon Falls, 2-1. While Cannington showed Lindsay out in the cold with a 7-4 defeat.

Diner: "Waiter, look at the ends of this sausage."
Waiter: "What's wrong with them, sir?"
Diner: "They're very close together, aren't they?"

A cold can take hold quickly and develop seriously. Don't let a cold take hold on you. At the first sign of a cold go right to your druggist. Buy a package of GROVE'S BROMO QUININE. Grove's has what it takes to knock that cold right out of your system the first day.
