Five minutes more of still greater excitement and still no goal, and the Referee declared the game a tie. The Referee was elaborately costumed, and performed his duties with great judgment, keeping the fence well decorated with the heated, panting, (short pants) athletes. His skating was the admiration of the fair spectators, and there was just a suspicion that the English of the gentleman's French name was McIntyre. Spreading A Good Report.

We believe in printer's ink. Its a great thing. Hundreds of people in this and surrounding settlements tell their neighbors how well they have been treated by us the low prices they have paid for goods in our store, the advantage of trading and saving the retailer's profit. Almost everybody who buys once from us comes again because they find we tell them the truth about the goods we sell them. Our theory is that it pays to be honest with them. We pin our faith to a tair, square deal every time. Everything on a plain business basis and get as near as possible to the actual cost of production.
