

Eye Troubles are Manifold.

For a long period there has been chronic discontent in Ireland. The Irish people for generations have been "agin the Government" and the popular cry has been against the "Saxons."

Some are inherited. Some arise from previous injuries. Many of them come from advancing age.

In any case you should have determined by an examination what the trouble is.

We make the examination free. If you require the services of an Oculist we will tell you so.

W. H. HAMILTON Post Office Bobcaygeon

The Bobcaygeon Independent and Midland Counties Herald

Friday, April 10, 1903.

Lord Roberts is not coming to Canada this year. It might be inferred from this that they are catching on to the fact that home in Canada is not to be joined in midwinter.

The Ganey branch of promise case is on before the Commission, and like all such cases the bunch of letters is immense. They are about as gummy as a lot of mud in such cases.

Insurrection returns show that over twelve thousand settlers arrived in western Canada during March. That is a splendid record of purchasers of the land we give, free of taxes, to the C. P. R. and a fine increase of freight payments for the C. P. R. And is not the C. P. R. Canada. Of course it is.

A movement has been started for increasing the salaries of the judges. They are certainly underpaid. Judge Frick, of Hastings County, and Judge Barron, of Perth, were in Ottawa last week representing the county judges of Ontario who are looking for an increase of salaries. Mr. Gus Porter, M. P., accompanied them to the Minister of Justice. If Canada can afford to give subsidies to railway speculators it can certainly afford to give respectable salaries to judges.

The Globe estimates that during the last five years, at least $75,000,000 of Canadian money has gone into non-entireties in this country. That is not paper stocks, but the actual money paid for the stocks. That does not look like this country was suffering much with inflation. Not just yet, at any rate. This is a young country, and youngsters have been known to have eyes larger than their families, when sweets have been offered. There are generally very unpleasant moments when the comparative estimates run out of gear. The 375 million of sweet stuff may be all right. And then again there may be demands for cool bean dices to the head, and mustard diet, elsewhere.

Mr. Putter, a British Columbia Member of Parliament proposes that the Government should extend the Intercontinental line to the Pacific. Certainly, dead boy. This country with its five millions of population means less than one million heads of families, has given enough cash and lands to build the C.P.R. It is paying about half cost of the Northern, and will pay about half cost of the G. E. Pacific. Certainly, through a line of rails across the continent on our own account, and why stop at that. Why not string out a branch to the Yukon, another to the Arctic along the east side of the Rockies, tap Hudson Bay. In fact why not everything in sight. In fact why not get them, let all hands get into the pot, and have a bully good time. There are only one million of heads of families why not borrow a million each, make a big bold bluff at a grand scheme in which the Atlantic and Pacific will shake hands around the North pole, and let it go at that. That is the ticket. A million a piece. What a royal bang just this great country would go on.

IRISH LAND BILL

For a long period there has been chronic discontent in Ireland. The Irish people for generations have been "agin the Government" and the popular cry has been against the "Saxons."

The Bill proposes to aid the Irish tenants in purchasing their farms from the landlords. Money for such purpose will be lent to Irish tenants who will pay 3 per cent interest on the loan.

A free grant of sixty million dollars from the British Treasury will be made to the Irish tenants.

There is much discussion in the farm papers about the new Bill. The Irish tenants in purchasing their farms from the landlords.

British Reform

Public opinion in England is decidedly changing. The people no longer adhere to the old opinions, simply because the opinions were held by their grandfathers. They have changed, and talk of progress. An illustration of this change which has taken place is furnished by the House of Commons.

The House of Commons is a body of men who are elected by the people. They are the representatives of the people, and they are responsible to the people.

Rapid Transit

In his report upon the results of the transit experiments on the Grand military road between Berlin and Zossen, Chief Engineer Reichel states that several long distance trips were made with the electric rapid transit cars, and that the velocity was from 120 to 125 kilometers per hour (75 miles per hour).

At a speed of 160 kilometers per hour (100 miles) the required power was 2,500 kilowatts (3,300 horse power). For starting the train the mechanical power was equal to 2,500 kilowatts (3,300 horse power).

Each of the two motor cars carried three kilometers easily at a speed of 120 kilometers per hour (75 miles per hour), the total weight being about 200 tons.

The chief engineer says as his opinion that a speed of 200 kilometers (120 miles) could be attained, provided the required amount of electric energy can be supplied, as during full motion from 400 to 1,500 horse power is required.

These statements of Lord Rosebery were favorably received, and that such a change in the case is a clear proof of the progress of the country.

It appears that for the last forty years St. James Methodist church, of Montreal, was the distinction of its Minister, Dr. Ross, liked the gown in the pulpit.

At Dominion church, Ottawa, that tradition was raised, and the Methodist Act of Union of '84 did not forbid the use of the gown, and certain that the General Conference had not prohibited it.

It is interesting to note that the gown is still worn in some churches, and that it is a mark of distinction.
