POST OFFICE SITE

The Federal Government's selection of a new site for the New Post office, has created considerable dissatisfaction in town, and the latest move to try to alter the location was in the form of a petition to the council.

The site selected was part of the Tennis-court at the Canal Park; thought by many as the ideal location, and also disapproved by many.

The property is owned by the village on which has been built a tennis court, at considerable expense and is felt by many to be too bad to interfere with it.

Mr. Bruce McNevin, M.P., was in town the other day, and as no other lot was suggested by the petitioners, it is expected the park site still stands.

CUTWORM CONTROL

At this time of year all gardeners should be prepared for attacks of cutworms. A limited number of plants may be saved by a wrapping of brown paper around each. Application may be made at planting time and the paper should cover the plant from one inch below the ground surface to one half or one inch above.

For larger plantations a poison bran mixture is recommended. Bran 25 pounds; Paris Green 1/2 pound; Molasses 1 quart; and Water 2 gals. The bran and poison should be mixed together while dry after which molasses should be added. Use enough water to bring the mixture to a crumbling condition. The mash should be sprinkled lightly around plants in the evening. This mixture is poisonous to hens and birds as well as cutworms.

Trio Hunts Cutten Gold At Guelph

CHICAGO SEARCH PARTY LEAVES FOR CANADA TO TRACE RECORDS

ASSERTS ONLY $400,000 DISCOVERED WHEN PROBATE OF WILL SOUGHT

A treasure hunt for the fortune of the late Arthur W. Cutten, Chicago grain speculator, reported to have been hidden in Canada, starts Sunday, when three men leave for Guelph his birthplace.

Probate Judge John F. O'Connell, today authorized the search. The men are Attorney Dwight Green representing the estate, Arthur Evans a trust officer for the American National Bank, executor; and I. J. Berkson, counsel for Harry A. Ash, a creditor with a claim of $158,000.

Cutten died last June 24 ending a dazzling market career, during which at one time it was said he controlled a fortune of $100,000,000. He rose to command the grain pits of the Board of Trade after starting life as a $7. a week clerk.

But the liquid assets so far discoverable total only $400,000. Mr. Cutten left his estate to his widow, the former Maude Boomer of Chicago. However the Federal Government has a claim of $3,300,000 in unpaid income taxes and interest, and the claims of other creditors total more than the gross estate.

Soon after his death Canadian dispatches reported that the speculator may have transferred $90,000,000 of his money to Canadian securities. If this is found true, Ontario stands to collect about twenty million dollars in inheritance taxes.

Ash whose claim concerns a joint market venture with Cutten declared that a year before his death, Cutten told him he had secreted to bulk of his fortune elsewhere. For this reason a search is being made among bank and brokerage house records in Chicago and New York as well as Canada.

Cutten was born at Guelph where, his body is buried. For many years he contributed generously to the welfare of that community.

WHEN TOURISTS VISIT TRY COURTESY

NEARLY 10 MILLION WILL COME FROM U. S. A. THIS SEASON ESTIMATES INDICATE

NOW SECOND INDUSTRY

Toronto, June 29—With the approaching celebrations of Dominion Day, July 1 and Independence Day, July 4, Ontario's Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn yesterday declared the holiday and tourist season in Ontario officially open and in full swing.

Tourist bureau estimates he stated indicate that between May and September of this year nearly 10,000 people will cross the International Boundary from the United States into Ontario in more than 3,000,000 automobiles and during their stay here will spend about $150,000,000. Over 500,000 of these visitors will travel to Callender, near North Bay to view the pranks and home-life of the world-famous Dionne quintuplets.

"The tourist business," Mr. Hepburn said, "now ranks second among the three leading industries of the province. Agriculture still ranks first, though our great mining industry in Northern Ontario has moved to third place to make way for the business of entertaining our United States cousins."

He pointed to the responsibility which every Ontario citizen must assume in connection with the summer tourist season.

"Each of us" he emphasized "must take on the duties of 'official host, and be sure our touring friends have as pleasant a time during their stay in Ontario as we would want them to have if they came to visit your private homes or summer cottages."

Since the vast majority of visitors will be travelling by automobile, explained Mr. Hepburn, a greater responsibility rests on Ontario's motorists to see that visiting drivers are accorded every highway courtesy.

He urged every driver to remember the "campaign slogan" of Highways Minister Hon. T. B. McQueen, who, in a concerted effort to reduce and check traffic accidents and fatalities, is endeavoring to have each one of Ontario's 800,000 motor vehicle operators "Try Courtesy" behind the wheel.

"No better opportunity is offered," Mr. Hepburn declared, "to promote international amity than for all of us in Ontario to 'Try Courtesy' on our American Friends when they come to visit us this summer."

Last year, he said, the Ontario government travel bureau had handled 50,000 inquiries for holiday information and had distributed chiefly in the United States, more than 600,000 official Ontario road maps and booklets picturing the natural beauties of Ontario as a vacation land. Another 600,000 pamphlets and folders describing camps and summer hotels of the province had also been distributed. There was every indication, Mr. Hepburn stated, that the 1937 tourist season in Ontario would show a general increase in visitors, cars and spending of at least 20 per cent.

ROBERT IRWIN SURRENDERS TO CHICAGO NEWSPAPERS AFTER 11 WEEK MANHUNT

Chicago June 27—Robert Irwin the mad sculptor of Beekman Hill, wanted for the Easter Sunday Murder of beautiful Veronica Gedeon, New York artists' model, her mother and lodger in their home today ended a three months' manhunt by surrendering to police.

Later he signed extradition waiver and in charge of two detectives left by train for New York city.

The 29-year-old artist, one-time divinity student and twice an inmate of an insane asylum, walked into a Chicago newspaper office last night asked for a cigaret and then said: "I'm Robert Irwin."

Today the newspaper, the Chicago Herald-Examiner, turned him over to police, together with a purported confession, in which Irwin assertedly confessed to killing Mrs. Joseph Gedeon, her daughter and Frank Byrnes, roomer at their Beekman Hill apartment.

Identified by Maid. Irwin, identified by a kitchen maid in a Cleveland hotel where he worked as a bar-boy for eleven weeks while the nation's police were looking for him, fled here last night.

Police were unaware that he had been found until the Herald-Examiner published his "confession," in which he described the murders as an "accident," explaining he had intended to kill Miss Gedeon's sister.

The newspaper said he had considered suicide a few hours before he entered Veronica's home intending to kill her sister, Mrs. Ethel Kudner, who had repulsed him to marry another man. While awaiting her, he quarrelled with Mrs. Gedeon and strangled her. He next strangled Veronica on her return home, and then stabbed Byrnes to death because he feared that the lodger might connect him with the earlier crimes.

Irwin who had previously confined himself to insane asylums, was described as indifferent to his fate—which may be death in the electric chair—although he believes he will be found insane.

Irwin looked fresh and comfortable in a white linen suit when he arrived at headquarters. He seemed to have had a good night's sleep and was not distraught.

Eminent Sculptor's Protege. The one-time protege of the late Lorada Taft eminent sculptor, who died recently seemed relieved to have fled to Cleveland Saturday when a girl in the hotel where he was employed as a bus boy recognized him from a photograph in a detective magazine.

The girl, Miss Henrietta Koscianski knew him as Robert Murray and, when the photograph impressed her as familiar, recalled that "Murray" had made several sketches of her.

Police had sought Irwin almost from the moment that the bodies of Veronica, her mother, Mary 54 and Byrnes, a lodger were found in the fourth floor apartment on Easter Sunday.

The two women had been strangled. Veronica a beautiful girl earned her living by posing in the nude and semi nude for artists and photographers. Many of her photographs were used to illustrate stories in detective magazines. She was married at 16 to Robert Flower, but the marriage was annulled because she was under age.

Husband finds Bodies. Mrs. Gedeon, of Hungarian descent, was estranged from her husband, Joseph Gedeon. An upholsterer by trade, Gedeon was on friendly terms with his family and had been invited to have dinner with them on Easter. He arrived at the apartment, accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kudner.

The door of the apartment was ajar. A pekinese dog frisked through the rooms. Byrnes body was found in his bedroom. He had been stabbed eleven times in the head with a sharp instrument, Mrs. Gedeon's body, half clothed was found under a bed in another bedroom. On the bed was the body of Veronica.

Breaks Off Relations Italy Has Told

NATION READY FOR WAR, FIERY FASCIST EDITOR WARNS WORLD

BETTER FIGHT NOW RUPTURE OF DIPLOMACY WITH BRITAIN AND FRANCE URGED

Roberto Farinacci, member of Premier Mussolini's Fascist Grand Council tonight advised Italy to break off relations with Gr. Britain and France and warned that the Italians are ready for war.

Farinacci, fiery early-day Black-shirt, who was talked of a few years ago as Mussolini's successor advised the rupture of diplomatic relations in an editorial in his Cremona newspaper, Regime Fascista.

"Confronted by a resolute and strong tone from Italy and Germany Eden and Blum will (as usual appear as lambs in lions skins, he said.

"But if they are ready to resist, despite Britain's present war insufficiency and the internal weakness of semi-Bolshevist France, it undoubtedly would be far better to come to grips today rather than in the distant tomorrow when it is convenient to our enemies."

Called "Vice-Duce." Farinacci a luggage carrier at the Cremona Railroad Station before Mussolini's rise to power held the high office of Secretary-General of the Fascist Party in 1925. In those days he was called the "Vice-Duce."

Always a "treat 'em rough" extremist he was punished several times by Mussolini for violence to Fascist foes.

He fought in the Italo-Ethiopian war and his left hand was blown off by a bomb at Dessie.

A hint of what might happen came from the newspaper 11 Tevere, which said:

It would be strange that Italy and Germany would permit free passage to those who, in furnishing unitiments to the Valencia (loyalist) government, would be arming a Marxist revolution in Europe."

IMPOSE LIGHT SENTENCE ON THREE YOUTHS

Three youth, two from Verulam and one from Woodville pleaded guilty to the charges of consuming liquor illegally and were fined $10, and costs amount to $30.25 by Magistrate Langley in police court Monday afternoon. The charges laid by Traffic Officer Massingham had been reduced from having liquor in other than a private residence.

The case was the result of an accident on May 30th, when the three accused were proceeding to Minden and just outside of Fenelon Falls on the Fenelon-Rosedale road they collided with another car.

A second charge of driving a car and causing bodily harm to the driver of the other vehicle was laid against the driver of the car, but he was let go on one year's suspended sentence with orders to report to County Constable Gordon at Fenelon Falls once a month.

L. M. Frost K. C. acting for the accused, stated that the injuries to the driver of the second car were very slight.

In passing sentence, Magistrate Langley warned the youths to be more careful in the future.
