This report was read at the December session, and is an able, exhaustive and interesting document. EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Ontario legislature has been called to meet for the despatch of business on Wednesday, the 11th of February.

The London Star says Mr. Parnell has definitely and finally abandoned all idea of resuming leadership of the Irish parlia-

Lively provincial election contests are in progress in North Perth and North Norfolk. Nominations take place to-day, and polling on the 23rd. Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q C., of Lindsay is addressing meetings this week in North Perth. The reform candidates, Ahrens and Charlton confidently expect election. In East Durham the contest is tween Mr. Collins and Mr. Campbell.

Toronto Globe: Between the high tariff men in the States who won't let him sell and the high tarin men here who won't let him buy to the best advantage, the Canadian farmer occupies a position not unlike that of "Little Bill" in the mournful ballad of the "Three Sailors of Bristol City," who took a boat and went to sea;

Says guzzling Jack to gorging Jimmy,
"I am confounded hungery."
Says gorging Jim to guzzling Jacky,
"We have no wittles, so we must eat we." Says guzzling Jack to gorging Jimmy, "Oh, gorging Jim, what a fool you be!

"There's little Bill, as is young and tender; We're old and tough, so let's eat he. Oh Bill, we're going to kill and eat you; So undo the collar of your chemee."

There is something delightfully enter taining in the Globe's suggestion that Mr. Dewdney should be sent to "Darkest Africa" to open up new avenues of trade with the inhabitants, thereof, in imitation of Mr. Foster's visit to the West Indies. It requires no powerful imagination to picture the unrestrained joy of the Avissibba warriors or the tribes of Bangala, if the well-groomed and rotund Superintendent-General were to appear before them as a patronage from the gentry of Lindsay and the trade commissioner. "What richness," He is now prepared to give lessons in the latest style of fashionable dancing. Round from No. 1 tenants wanting good farms to the latest style of fashionable dancing. Round the leaders would exclaim; and the juveniles would eagerly compete for the "wish-bone" and the "cracklin." This would be a neat solution of the cabinet puzzle of the day. Perhaps Mr. Carling would make a more popular commissioner from the Mwanga point of view or rather point of taste. Certainly Mr. Foster would never do. When they regarded his attenuated figure they would simply exclaim in the words of a lamented po itician. 'there ain't nuthin' to it." By all means send Mr. Dewdny up the Congo.

An £cbo from the Battle-Field-Mr. J. S. Larke Cornered on His East Ward

The celebrated speech of Mr. J. S. Larke at the east ward meeting in the recent Dominion election campaign in South Victoria was not intended for circulation in other parts of the country and especially in Oshawa, and, therefore Mr. Larke endeavored to get out of the difficulty by stating that the report printed in THE GLOBE and THE POST was false. Mr. Larke stands convicted, however, by the following cor-

[To the Editor of the Oshawa Reformer.] SIR,-In a late issue of your paper there appears a letter from Mr. J. S. Larke, of your town, in which he presumes to deny, though in a somewhat gingerly manner, the truthfulness of a report that appeared in the Globe of a speech that was delivered by him as a parting shot at Lindsay during the late South Victoria campaign. Having been present at the meeting in question, I unhesitatingly affirm that every paragraph in the Globe report, in so far as it purports to represent the utterances of Mr. Larke upon that occasion, is absolutely correct. was so amazed at the black ruin which he painted as existing in the town of Oshawa, that I took the precaution in my remarks, when following Mr. Larke, to remind the electors what that gentleman had said, having two or three objects in view. (1) To give him an opportunity to set himself right, if my hearing had played me false, in the presence of those before whom he and myself were then appearing. (2) To fasten his responsibility, so that he could not afterwards brazen a denial, as had known him to do upon previous occasions. (3) And to expose his dishonesty and hypocrisy by contrasting the remarks that he had delivered upon other occasions during that campaign. In order that there he had then made about his own town with factory property for $15,000, which had been given to a manufacturing firm as a bonus, and which was again on the hands of the ratepayers-the recent sale of a $40,000 factory equipment for $8,000-his expressed willingness to part with $35,000 interest in the foundry for one-third he amount so that he might leave the not now be made. Mr. Larke sat within ten feet of where I stood as I reminded those present that these alarming state hearing. Iciaimed that, if such was what the national policy had done for Oshawa, where there was a lake shipping port, in addition to the fact that it was on the main line of the Grand Trunk railway, it was high time the N. P. was swept out of existence, and hat that was more important than a problematical C.P.R. connection. And yet Mr. Larke did not enter a protest signifying his dissent in any way whatever from my account of what hehad been saying, although there was ample time to doso. Under such circumstances I think I can claim, with some degree of reasonableness, that Mr. Larke's denial, while it may be worthy of him, is not one that can now be accepted by the public. - Yours very truly, W. T. R. PRESTON. Toronto, Jan. 5th, 1891.

[To the Editor of the Reformer.] LINDSAY, Jan. 5th, 1891. SIR,-Mr. Larke's utterances about Oshawa and the Grand Trunk railway, at a meeting in Lindsay, South Victoria, referred to in the Globe and CANADIAN POST can be proved by many responsible persons here as being correctly reported. -Yours truly, D. R. ANDERSON. THE LADIES' JOURNAL.

NUAL CLEARINGSALE

It is but thirty days till the carpenters, masons and plasterers will be overhauling the CITY STORE to make the premises ready for our removal there. During the intervening time we must sell as much as RICH.—In Little Britain, on Thursday, January 15th, 1891, Henry Rich, second son of Mr. Richard Rich, aged 24 years. can possibly be disposed of, and we would say if you have not bought your Winter Overcoats we would ask you to look at our $4.00 ULSTERS, (tweed lined). If something more dressy is required put your tragic form into one of our $5.00 WORSTEDS. You will find there is a decided break in all prices of CLOTHING, which embrace Men's, Boys' and Youth's Suits, Pants and Overcoats. We have about twelve FUR COATS in Men's, about eight LADIES' ASTRACHAN MANTLES, and about three dozen MEN'S FUR CAPS, which we are going to make every effort to dispose of. Profit is not the consideration with these goods; turning them into cash is of more consequence.

> We have been talking about Men's Wear-we will now turn to the side of the house devoted to selling Ladies' Wear. We have noticed in other years during the month of January there is a larger percentage of Wedding Outfits bought in and around the vicinity of Lindsay than in any other period of the year. To meet this increasing demand we have decided to place our large stock of Silks, Satins and Fine Dress Goods at prices that will make these goods come within the reach of the most careful buyer. It is surprising the Mantle and Mantle Cloths we are still selling. We still have a very nice stock to select from, which will be offered along with some handsome pieces of Sealette at about one-third less than ordinary prices. We have the facility for making Sealette Mantles up in a very handsome style. Orders left for Sealette Caps, Muffs, Collars or Mitts will receive prompt attention.

Remember everything is moving during this month, and Lindsay's Leader of Low Cash Prices has never been undersold yet. He leads the van still, and for everything in Dry Goods that you will require visit us in the NEXT THIRTY My Office is the proper place to rent your pro-DAYS and secure these bargains. - - - -
