The Belle Stevenson Dramatic Co. This company opened a week's engagemen at the opera house on Monday night to "standing room only," many patrons of the opera house being turned away, unable to obtain seats. The play was Bartley Campbell's fiveact drama, "Fate," and was put on in an artistic manner. Miss Stevenson as "Florence Grantley," the wronged wife, proved herself to be an emotional actress of the first rank, and received great applause. Mr. C. J. Stevenson as "Harry Grantley," received much applause, and made himself a favorite with the audience at once. Mr. Harry C. Todd as "M. T. Muggs," rate of premium is only a secondary matter.
The possession of a solid cash capital to back up the company's contracts should be the first consideration when purchasing Insurance that brought forth laughter and applause. He is certainly one of the best comedians that has ever appeared in Lindsay. The balance of the company are excellent and their strong support helped in no small degree to make "Fate" such style, the company again acquitting themselves style, the company again acquitting themselves as thorough artists. Miss Stevenson, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Todd, Mr. Rowland and Mr. Summers came in for the lion's share of the applause....On Wednesday the beautiful play of "Enoch Arden" was produced, with Mr. C. J. Stevenson as the noble-hearted "Enoch Arden." Mr. Stevenson has evidently made a great study of this character, and his scene on the island and his return home after many years absence to find his wife married again, and his death scene, were without doubt the finest pieces of acting in that line ever seen here..... The beautiful guitar and mandolin selections by the Stevenson family, and other refined specialties, are all good. Miss Stevenson has a fine soprano voice, which she uses to good effect.... The company play here the balance of the week, with an entire change of bill each evening, and we predict crowded houses for the rest of the engagement in Lindsay.

Lindsay Board of Trade. A meeting of the council of the Lindsay board of trade was held Monday evening, all the members being present but three. Several subjects of importance were discussed. A committee was appointed to wait upon the town council to urge upon that body the advisability of properly advertising the town, with a view of encouraging the establishment of additional factories in our midst. A resolution was also passed expressing the satisfaction of the board with the able, exhaustive and interesting report of the committee of the Victoria county council on the question of houses of refuge, and a deputation was appoin ed to wait upon the county council at the January session for the purpose of urging upon that body the advisability of establishing a house of refuge with as little delay as possible. It was decided to discuss the following schemes at the annual meeting of the board on February 10th: The town waterworks; the consolidation of the town debt; and the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool railway. The annual tes of the Baptist Sunday school was held in the church last Tuesday evening. The tes was dispensed from 6 to 8 p.m., and about 200 persons were served. While the older persons were having their teathe children were amused in the church by a magic lantern. At 8 p.m. sharp the program was commenced, and consisted of dialogues, recitations, songs, etc., by the younger portion of the school. Mr. Hardy then read the treasurer's report. After a few remarks from Rev. Mr. Anderson, the pastor, the meeting closed at 9.30, all feeling that they had spent an extremely pleasant evening.

St. Andrew's Church Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's church, Lindsay, was held in the spacious auditorium on Wednesday evening of this week. There was an unusually large attendance and much interest was evinced in all the proceedings. Rev. Robt. Johnston, B. A., pastor of the church, presided, and Mr. J. R. McNeillie acted as secretary. Devotional exercises were conducted by the pastor, and during the evening appropriate solos were pleasingly rendered by miss A. D. Jackson and Mr. Duncan McSweyn....The address of the session was read by the secretary, reviewing the work of the past year. It referred to the continued blessing of harmony and peace, and noted with thankfulness to God the increased appreciation of the ordinances of the church. The congregations on the Sabbath have increased in size and are still increasing. During the year ninety members have been added to the church, and there have been twenty-four removals. Thirtythere have been twenty-four removals. Thirty-five children and one adult have been baptized. The liberality of the people, both for congrega-tional work and for the schemes of the church, still continues and the session trusts is still in still continues and the session trusts is still increasing, and this, together with increased interest in the societies of the church, and in the weekly prayer meeting, gives cause for joy, The address closed in a spirit of deep thankfulness for the past and of great topefulness for the future. Interesting reports were presented by the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, 'Ivy' Mission Band, Juvenile Missionary Society, Visiting Committee, Ladies' Aid Association, the Sabbath school, and South Ops bible class. The Sabbath school, besides maintaining its own work, has raised over seventy dollars for miswork, has raised over seventy dollars for missions, the school having decided at the beginning of 1890 to set aside the first Sabbath's collection in each month for this purpose..... The managers then presented their report, accompanied by the treasurer's statements. It is an interesting document in which the ficancial Leaders in low prices of Boots and Shoes.
