THE COMING CONVENTION.—There will no doubt be a fair representation of Emily and Omemee at the convention in Lindsay Saturday, Jan. 31st., to name delegates to the great liberal convention at Toronto on Feb. 18th and 19th. People are anxious to hear and see the Dominion's feelings of to-day. Many farmers are still holding on to their products, owing to the low prices, causing merchant's and other business men to become very much hampered.

CHANGED HANDS.—Arnold & Graham have purchased the grocery and boot and shoe business of Mr. H. Austin. Both are straightforward business men. Mr. Arnold has been with the firm for the past four years. Mr. Graham is son of Mr. John Graham of Fenelon.

PERSONAL.—Rural Dean Allan of Millbrook preached the annual missionary sermon in St. James' church here last Sunday....Mr. Thomas Austin took in Lindsay on Saturday.....Mr. Charles Burgoyne has completed his course at the Belleville business college and returned to town to occupy a position in the firm of Burgoyne & Co.....Mr. John A. Ellis left town this morning for Minden, where he intends buying logs for his new mill. He will be greatly missed at the coming tea meeting at Coboconk, as it was intended that he should occupy the chair on that occasion. Mr. Ellis is a strong man at a tea fight.

LUMBER SHIPMENTS.—Mr. Geo. H. Miller of New York is in town, having returned from a business trip to Midland, from which point he has for the past month been shipping out lumber to the New York market purchased by him last fall. He is now engaged shipping balance of stock purchased from Mr. John Ellis. We are informed that Mr. Miller is largely interested in mining enterprises at both Sudbury and Port Arthur. He has recently formed a joint stock company to be known as the "New York and Midland Land and Mining Co., limited," the stock of which is largely owned by Midland capitalists.

A MATRIMONIAL TRIP.—Mr. S. Hooper, the genial manager for Messrs. Burgoyne & Co., is down east at present on a business trip of very great importance, namely, matrimony. His many friends here join in wishing him and his prospective bride a long, happy and prosperous life.

THE POTATO TRADE.—Mr. R. M. McKenzie, late of Fenelon Falls, but now of New York, is buying potatoes for that market. It is very enjoyable to hear Mr. McKenzie's graphic description of his ride to the metropolis in the palace potato car. He was only a week on the trip.

DISAPPOINTED.—A party of Fenelon Falls skaters drove to Lindsay on the afternoon of the day the carnival was advertised for, but on arrival there were greatly disappointed to find they had their drive for naught, as the affair had been postponed on account of bad ice.

TELEPHONE AT LAST.—Fenelon Falls is at last going to be connected with the outside world by telephone. The Bell Telephone Co. have made arrangements with several local dealers in telegraph poles to supply a sufficient quantity to build a greater portion of the line to Lindsay.

JEWELRY.—Mr. R. J. Frost, our popular jeweler, reports trade as being very brisk. He has a large and first-class stock of everything pertaining to his line and his prices are bound to please.

PERSONAL.—John A. Barron, M.P., paid a flying visit to our town Tuesday.

CONCERT.—A grand concert will take place here on the 5th of February under the auspices of the Lindsay octette club. Lovers of high class music may expect a rare treat, as all members of the club are highly cultured musicians.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Donald Ferguson, one of our most estimable settlers, was buried on Tuesday. He had been unwell for some time.

A HAPPY MEETING.—Twenty-four years ago Wm. H. Herdman, brother of our genial landlord, Mr. C. N. Herdman, left Fort Erie. From that time until a year ago nothing was known of his whereabouts, and he was thought dead. Last winter news came to his father that he was located as a prosperous farmer in Iowa. A few weeks ago in company with his wife and children he visited his father in Fort Plain, New York state. It is needless to say it was a happy meeting.

OBITUARY.—It is our sad duty this week to record the death of one of our most respected and oldest settlers, Mr. William Cowan, which sad event took place at Kirkfield on Sunday night at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. R. McKenzie. The deceased gentleman, previous to his death, had been enjoying good health, and it was not until a short time before his death that his friends entertained any serious fears for his recovery. Mr. Cowan was born in the County of Tipperary, Ireland, in the year 1818, and came to this country when eight years of age, and, with his father, settled in the township of Brock in his early years. He was a most vigorous and robust man and possessed of more than ordinary strength. He was the eldest of a family of five. His brother, Capt. Cowan, is living in the United States and is still alive. Mr. Cowan occupied a seat at the council board in the township of Brock for about twenty years, and was a member of the county council. He leaves behind him a family of three daughters, namely, Mrs. M. Perry, Mrs. Wm. Gibbs and Mrs. R. McKenzie, and two sons, James and John. By his genial and affable disposition he won the respect of all with whom he came in contact.

CHRISTMAS TREE AND ENTERTAINMENT.—The annual Christmas tree and entertainment in connection with the Presbyterian Sabbath school was held on the evening of the 23rd inst., when a most pleasant and enjoyable time was spent by all present. Rev. Mr. Anderson, the minister of the congregation, met the Sabbath school children at three o'clock and conducted an examination on the Sabbath school work. The bible classes were put through a close examination on the gospel of St. Luke and the remaining classes on the shorter catbechism, after which prizes were awarded to those worthy. The prizes for the bible classes were won by Miss Angelina Hay and Miss Aggie Woollard. In the medium classes the prizes were awarded to Miss Jennie Gow and Miss Leacan Irwin, while the lower classes were found so perfect in their work that it was necessary to give a prize to each. After the examination was completed tea was served by the ladies from 5 to 7.30 in the church, where everyone partook of a hearty supper, which was shown by the number of smiling faces to be seen after it. Tea being served, all repaired to the hall where a christmas tree that would be hard to excel for a load met their eyes. At the appointed hour Mr. Murdoch, the superintendent of the Sabbath school, took the chair and a very lengthy programme, consisting of dialogues, readings, recitations, singing and club swinging was carried out successfully, much to the credit of all who took part in it. It was carried out as follows:—(1) Music by the choir, entitled "Nearer Home." (2) An opening speech by Willie Jackson, which was well received by the audience. (3) An opening dialogue by twelve little girls representing the twelve months of the year, led by Father Time. The girls were dressed in white with crowns on their heads bearing the name of the month and each one carrying an emblem of the month which she represented, while Father Time was dressed in an oldish manner and carrying a sword. (4) A recitation by Jennie Gow, rendered in a very pleasing manner. (5) A piece of music by the school as a whole, entitled "We" are out on the Ocean Sailing." (6) A dialogue, entitled "Cruelty is not courage," where a good moral was set forth. (7) A solo by Maud Woollard, where a fine talent for music was shown. (9) A dialogue, entitled "Santa Claus," nicely acted by one boy and two girls. (9) A recitation by Rosie Hay, entitled "Farmer Brown," which caused a good deal of laughter. (10) Song by a group of girls, entitled "The Fairies." (11) A dialogue by nine boys, entitled "What I would be." The boys were dressed according to their different occupations, which brought great applause from the audience. (12) A duet by Miss Angelina Hay and Miss Jennie Gow, entitled "When the mists have rolled in splendour." (13) Recitation by Effie Gow, entitled "Pussy Willows," nicely recited with motions. (14) A dialogue, entitled "Wishes." (15) A calisthenic song by a group of girls, entitled "Over the Mountains," (16) Recitation by Eva Hay, recited in a distinct voice. (17) Dialogue, entitled "The Little Mushrooms," which astonished the audience by their rapid growth on the stage. (18) Club swinging by Rosie Hay, for which Rosie deserves credit for the active manner in which she can handle the clubs. The children's part of the entertainment was then closed. (19) Music by the choir, entitled "Gently down the Stream of Time." (20) A reading by Mr. Francis Willock, entitled "Sandy and the Minister," where the Scotch accent was well displayed and received great applause from the whole house. (21) A dialogue, entitled "Running for office," a two act scene conducted by three characters. (22) A recitation by Miss Aggie Woollard, entitled "The Curfew shall not Ring To-night," where good emotional qualities were clearly presented. (23) Dialogue, entitled "The Shop Girls Victory," where a good warning was set for young men. (24) Recitation, entitled "Barbara Frietchie," by Willie Hay. He captured the house at his appearance, every word and gesture bringing forth laughter. (25) Dialogue; entitled "Practical Joke," which brought the house completely down. (26) Reading by Mr. Bruce Greer, which was well
