Sound to Blunder.
 The editor of the Warrior seems bound to slander and to keep on slandering. For the slanderous and malicious attack on Mr. H. B. Dean, an apology was published in the Warrior and costs paid, and now in the last issue the editor withdraws the apology, which he says was printed in his absence, and repeats the libel in an aggravated form and more maliciously. Mr. Dean has, of course, offered another action for libel, and no doubt the malicious slanderer will be taught a lesson. But will it have any effect or will a mutual defence association or vigilance committee have to be organized with the slanderer? There ought to be enough public spirit in the community to stamp out this slanderous business.

Prime Beef for Easter.
 Coun. O'Halloran, the popular and enterprising butcher, is always on the lookout for a prime stock for Easter, and has purchased from Mr. John Campbell, the well-known stock-raiser and prize-winner of North Marlboro, the following fine animals, which will be delivered in time for the Easter market:
 One Steer, 10 months old, weight, 1,100 lbs.
 " 1 yr. and 10 mos. old, " 1,500 lbs.
 " 2 years old, " 1,400 lbs.
 One Heifer, 2 yrs. and 11 mos. old, " 1,300 lbs.
 These and others will make a splendid display. Coun. O'Halloran's customers and the public in general will have a fine lot to select from.—33-1.

Personal.
 —Mrs. Sid. Smyth left town Thursday morning to visit friends in Port Huron.
 —Dr. George Gladman of Syracuse, N. Y., son of our respected postmaster, was in town for a few days last week.
 —Miss S. Keyes of Cobocook, who has been visiting friends in Lindsay for some time past, returned to her home Saturday.
 —Mr. E. A. Hardy visited Peterboro Friday last as a delegate to a district meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor.
 —Mr. Charles Laidlaw, who has been Junior accountant in the Bank of Montreal for some years, has been appointed to a higher position in the Kingston branch of the same bank.
 —Mrs. Crevier of Bobocook, accompanied by her bright young son Frank, passed through town Monday last on her way to Cobocook, where she will spend some weeks with her sister, Mrs. W. G. Kilmer.

—Mr. John McSwain of North Marlboro, one of the oldest subscribers of The Post, was in town yesterday and renewed his subscription. Mr. McSwain is one of the pioneers of the township, and is hearty and vigorous.
 —Mrs. P. Pickle of Lindsay gave several numbers at the Calceolonia Society's concert in Toronto Tuesday evening (Burn's anniversary) and was repeatedly cheered. The Toronto papers speak in very high terms of Mrs. Pickle's vocal powers.
 —Mr. Herbert Kent, some years ago manager of the Bell telephone system in this town, and of Peterboro, we understand, to leave for British Columbia about February 1st, where he will superintend the completion of a railway now being developed. His many friends in town will be pleased to hear of his promotion.

—Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q. C., returned Saturday morning from nearly two weeks speaking in the Norfolk and Perth counties. He addressed a good many meetings, and is hardly necessary to say, in a way that enhanced his reputation as a public speaker. The Norfolk Reformers appear to have been very much pleased with the political views of Mr. O'Leary's ability as a political speaker.
 —Mr. J. J. Hanna, merchant, of Uxbridge, passed through town the other day on his way to a short visit to the home near Janetville, Manvers. Mr. Hanna has had a serious illness during the summer, but is now regaining his health. He intends going to the Pacific Coast in a few weeks, as the mild climate there will be more suitable to him. Mr. Hanna's many friends will join in wishing him all prosperity and full restoration to vigorous health.

Local Brevities.
 —Remember the carnival next Friday evening.
 —Ask for Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and take no other.—38-1.
 —The council of Ops will meet Monday, Feb. 2nd, at 10 a.m., in the council chamber, Lindsay.
 —We understand that Mr. Wm. Bradburn of Onemee has disposed of his hotel business to Wilson, Isiah H. Wilson, formerly proprietor of the Clarke house.
 —Mr. Church has at the present time five students under training in the auto-voice method, and this excellent method seems to be gaining ground very rapidly.
 —The monthly concert under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. will take place Friday evening, Feb. 10th, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A good program is in preparation.
 —Messrs. McNeill & Cowdry, grain buyers, have leased Mr. E. Woods' commodious store-house, nearly opposite the Queen's hotel. It will be much more convenient for farmers.
 —Mr. John Wallis, a prosperous farmer from the vicinity of Hastings, last week purchased the well-known "Onward" farm in Fenelon, containing 200 acres, and intends taking possession shortly.

—Some in the red parlor: Sir John—"Is the north ward safe, Harry?" "Safe and solid for a good big majority," came the ready reply. "Then let's drink to the home and go to the country," said Sir John turning to Speaker Outmet.
 —The Port Hope hockey club was to have visited Lindsay on Monday last, but was at the last moment... Lindsay's return match with "C" school, arranged to take place on Thursday, was postponed owing to the unfavorable weather.
 —We have been asked by Mr. Livesley, manager of the Bell Telephone Co. in this town, to announce that hereafter the office will be kept open each evening until 9 o'clock, with the exception of Saturday evening, when the time will be further extended to 10 o'clock.
 —The other day in Hamilton the police magistrate inflicted a fine of $3 and costs on a ten-year-old boy for snowballing an old man. The young lad in Lindsay might learn a lesson from this. This snowballing habit by school children is a nuisance, and a dangerous one as well.

—The annual meeting of the Riverside Cemetery Co. was well attended. The report was satisfactory and showed a comfortable balance at the bank. The old board of directors was re-elected with the addition of Mr. Kennedy in the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Hutcheon.
 —Mr. Samuel Swanton of Toronto was in town Saturday last on his way north. Mr. Swanton does a large business in the shipping of cedar poles to the United States, and for some time past has been rushing them across the line at a lively rate in anticipation of a 20 per cent. duty being put on about Feb. 1st.
 —Leaders in low prices of Boots and Shoes. Bryans & Co. in order to make room for their immense stock of spring goods, which will begin to arrive about the first of February, they will sell the balance of their Felt Boots, Heavy Rubbers, etc. Overstocked for the next two weeks at a great reduction. BRYANS & Co., first door east of Daily House, Kent-st., Lindsay.—32-4.

—Tuesday afternoon a serious accident happened the little son of Mr. T. J. Harrington of the collegiate institute staff. The little fellow, following the lead of other boys, was running himself "hangin'" on "peeing" slings, and boarded one loaded with wood lost his hold and fell, one runner passing over his leg and crushing it badly, though fortunately no bones were broken.
 —A report was current last week that Mr. C. F. Fober, who had been ill at the hospital with typhoid fever, had died there. This was not correct, and Mr. Fober himself put in appearance Monday to pay a short visit and to recognize. He received a cordial welcome. Mr. Fober has been carrying on the photographic business, and will return to the city in a week or so.
 —Mr. S. D. Thorton, in addition to his other undertakings, has gone extensively into the raising of hay and straw this season. He has already purchased over 400 tons of hay and nearly the same number of loads of straw, and half a dozen men and two teams of horses are kept constantly employed. To-day he will ship two car-loads of the neatly packed bales to Toronto.

—The C. P. R. announces a series of People's Popular Parties to British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and California, to be held on Friday, Jan. 31st, on the Vancouver route. Those who wish to take Horace Greeley's advice and "go west" will find this the popular route, the most comfortable, the cheapest, and a large majority. See advt. and apply to the agent, Mr. T. C. Mitchell, at Lindsay.
