ndigestion

IS not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich .: -

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near anding my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. - All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at Within the time mentioned several hysicians treated me without giving re-ief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

Dearest father, thou hast lef us. Vainly we thy loss deplore In our dear home so lonely, Thou upon a brighter shore.

Thou art gone, beloved father, All thy labor now is done; Fought the fight-the battle over. And the crown of life is won. Watch we vainly for thy coming,

Listen vainly for thy footstep, Orithy welcome joyous call. Never more our eyes shall see thee, Or thy smile that was so dear;

Through our silent, lonely hall;

Thy kind voice, like sweetest music, Never more our ears shall hear, Vainly, vainly, wait we for thee,

Thou who bore the cross so nobly. Now on high the crown shall wear, Patient, kind and noble father, May thy family meet thee there. MARY C. FORBEARE.

COMMENTS ON TOLSTOI'S VIEWS. VHAT FRENCHMEN TRINK OF STIMULANTS The Revue Scientifique having published a study of Count Leon Toistoi, denouncing the use of stimulants and parcotics, the Figaro has written to several of the leading French writers of the day, asking their opinion on the subject. Among those opinions are the following. Charles Richet says:-"There is no doubt that it would be better to abstain from these, and everyone, I think, will agree with Tolstoi in saying that one progress of future civilization will be to suppress those poisonings." Jules S.mon says: "I am a great enemy of alcohol, which is more dangerous than the piague, since it is a perpetual plague. Tolstoi, as great as be is, cannot increase my hatred for it."
