LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

DOWNEYVILLE.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

ILL.—With much regret we learn of the severe illness of Mr. William Murray, who is now in a very critical condition. Mr. Murray has been ill with inflammation for the past week or more, it being thought at no time that his condition was dangerous. We hope that his illness will not prove serious, and that we will see him able to be up and around again in a short time.

SUCCESSFUL.—We congratulate Mr. Daniels Scully on the successful stand made by him at the recent municipal elections. Mr. Scully's worth as a councillor is known throughout the municipality, and the electors have shown their appreciation of his services by electing him for the nineteenth time as their legislator in that capacity.

OBIT.—It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Wm. Suggitt, of the township of Somerville, who departed this life on Wednesday, 8th inst., at the age of sixty-four years. She was a native of Yorkshire, England. She leaves a loving husband, five sons and three daughters, to mourn her loss. She was fully prepared for death. Mr. Suggitt and family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. The remains were followed by a large concourse of people to the Fenelon Falls cemetery on Friday, the 10th inst. May she rest in peace.

SNOW.—Snow has come again and made roads good. Things more lively at present.

WANDERERS.—The wandering Arabs who caused so much excitement in Opsare now encamped about two miles south, much to the dissatisfaction of the neighbors, who have raised their hen roosts. ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Miss Ida Richardson, on Thursday evening, Jan. 2nd, before she left to take charge of her school near Millbrook. During the evening Miss Richardson was presented with the following address and presentation by her Sunday school class: Miss Ida Richardson, DEAR TEACHER,—Your class desire to-night two things—publicly, to acknowledge our appreciation of the faithful services which you have rendered us; privately, to remind you by some tangible expression of our good will of the love you have won from every heart. They wish us, therefore, to tender you this bible and hymn book, asking you to associate it forever with the names and faces of the donors. We are sure you will, for many of those who give it to you have been led by you to love Christ, and must be grouped around you at the last great day—just as we were in the Sunday school—when you say 'Lord, here am I, and the children thou hast given me." Signed in behalf of your class, ROBERT MOORE, FRANK COAD.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. H. Brewer, of Carrickville, died at her residence this morning, Jan. 13th. Deceased was a very aged lady and for the past three weeks had been prostrated by the shock sustained at the time of her sister's death. She had lived very many years in this vicinity and will be greatly missed by a circle of intimate friends and, indeed, by all who knew her.

BURGLARY.—Our townspeople stood aghast on Sunday morning last at the news that Mr. L. Pearce's boot and shoe store had been entered and burglarized $25 were taken. This is the fourth or fifth time that Mr. Pearce has met with similar losses, and it is to be hoped that the party or parties will be speedily apprehended and dealt with.

[Correspondence of THE POST.]

BACK AGAIN.—We are all pleased to see our old friend, Mr. John Frise, in our midst again, and as he has commenced business for himself at the blacksmith shop, we wish him every success. We are somewhat disappointed that he did not bring a partner in the business with him. .....Mrs. R. Moase spent Christmas with her parents in Toronto.

OBIT.—In the early dawn of Christmas morn, while so many childish hearts were overflowing with joy, we learned with sorrow that death had removed from our midst one much beloved by all in the person of Winnifred King, aged 9 years, 10 months. We deeply sympathize with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. King, in this sore bereavement. Winny's loss is most keenly felt in the home. The gap in the fireside circle, the vacant chair, a fond voice no longer heard, the playthings now unused, all remind us that one we cherished so dearly is absent now forever. The pupils, among whom Winny was a favorite, miss her in the schoolroom, in the class and during the play hours. She was much respected and loved by all who knew her. On Friday, Dec. 27th, we paid our last respects to the remains of a loved one. The scholars with whom Winny had so often intermingled joined solemnly in the funeral procession. Rev. Mr. Cragg, of Little Britain, who conducted the service, spoke kind words of condolence to the sorrowing friends. And as we watched the closing of that early grave in the Pleasant Point cemetery, we realized the loss of a daughter, a sister, a schoolmate and a friend, but this early friendship, though severed for a time, may yet be united in that distant heavenly clime.

GREENBANK.

Correspondence of THE POST.

PERSONALS.—Mr. F. Walker and Mr. A. H. Reid, of Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. A. Ewen here.....Mrs. Roundtree, of Uxbridge, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dusty, at present.....Miss Rose Brown, of Toronto, is spending a few days in our village visiting friends.....Misses Nellie and Maggie McMillan have gone to Toronto to live for a time. They will be much missed in the Sunday school and choir.....Mr. Wm. Carnegie has gone to Illinois to live with his brother.

CHURCH SERVICES.—Rev. P. A. McDonald, of Zephyr, occupied the pulpit here on Sunday evening. All were pleased with his excellent sermon.....Rev. R. H. Leitch had charge of the anniversary services in connection with the Methodist church of Zephyr on Sunday last.....Last week, being the week of prayer, services were held every evening excepting Saturday. On Wednesday the two prayer meetings were held in the Presbyterian church, and then on Friday evening Rev. J. M. Cameron gave an excellent address on Armenia in the Methodist church.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—The contest for the ensuing quarter is to be the girls against the boys. A lively time is expected. The ladies give the first entertainment on Saturday evening next. There is some talk that the Sons of Temperance will likely purchase the church lot and shed, and perhaps the brick church also, provided they can get it at a reasonable figure.

LACONICS.—Plenty of cold and stormy weather at present, but not the best of sleighing....Some of those least expected are the very first to get "wed up." Come boys! don't go on in that same old way, keeping people expecting it to come off soon and still putting it off. By what we hear, however, there will likely be some more go to housekeeping before many weeks pass..... Some of the boys have been disturbing certain meetings, and as the parties are known steps will be taken to stop it if it continues. You will find both "Love and Money" in it then.

FIRE.—On Sunday, the 5th inst., Mr. Warriner, who recently moved into the neighborhood to work during the winter, was so unfortunate as to have his recently constructed forest home destroyed by fire. He and his wife and child were homeless for a few days, but Mr. Geo. Hutcheson came to the front and soon had some ten dollars collected for the sufferers, besides clothing for the wife and child, who had been left pretty much in need of clothes. They are now once again housed, this time in Mr. Jno. Anderson's house in the village.

REVIVAL.—Mr. C. H. Coone commenced a series of meetings in the Methodist church on Monday evening.

HOME AGAIN.—Mr. Lewis Fallis, who for the past two years has lived in Dakota, has returned here to make this his permanent home. We heartily welcome Mr. Fallis to our midst again. He is too fine a specimen of manhood for Canada to lose to Uncle Sam's advantage.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The Trustee for S. S. No. 7, Ops.

[To the Editor of THE POST.]

SIR,—Please allow me space in your valuable columns to say a word in regard to the selection of a trustee in S. S. No. 7, Ops. Never in my remembrance has there been such excitement among the ratepayers of the said section. At a recent school meeting a dispute arose concerning the increase of salary of the present teacher, which means an election at an early date. I understand the candidates chosen are Messrs. Porteous and Reid, the former being in favor of an increase in salary, which means high taxation. Now, sir, I would like to know, are the ratepayers able to bear this burden under the existing hard times, while neighboring school sections have equally as good teachers employed at salaries ranging from $100 to $150 less.

A number of ratepayers think that Mr. Porteous has taken a wrong stand on this question, although he put forth the strong argument that he, as trustee, always worked to the best of his ability toward the welfare of the school section, and would not, for the sake of a few dollars extra, have the intellect of the children of his section blighted, and that for these reasons he was entitled to another term of office; but they said "no," and have chosen Mr. William Reid, an intelligent, respectable farmer, to be their standard bearer in the coming contest. Mr. Reid's motto is to "live and let live," and he cannot see why the ratepayers of this section should be trampled upon by a few.

Let the free and independent electors of this section rally around Mr. Reid (on election day), who was one of the first ratepayers to stand up and demand "equal rights," and place him at the head of the poll by a large majority.—Yours,

RATEPAYER.

Reaboro, Jan. 8th, 1896.

Something Municipal Bodies Should Know.

[To the Editor of THE POST.]

SIR,—As the municipal elections are now a thing of the past, and as the electors have decided on whose heads shall rest the responsibility of municipal government for the year 1896, and furthermore, as my writing at this date can not be construed to be for or against the interests of any candidate, who sought municipal honors—I take the liberty of calling the attention of your readers to what I have always considered to be an erroneous idea that seems to be growing in the minds of our municipal representatives re the appointment of officers, viz., the allowing of applicants for important positions, such as assessor and collector, to tender for the position sought by stating in their application the sum or salary for which they, "the applicants," would perform the duties pertaining to the office. The law (Revised Statutes Chap. 184, Sec. 278—(2) prohibits and I think wisely so, every council from giving those positions by tender—but leaves it to the good judgment of the council to fix a salary that they, "the council," consider fair remuneration for the work that is to be performed, and then from amongst the applicants to select 'a conscientious and competent person to the position.' Any applicant who would name in his application a salary or price for which they would do the work shows clearly that he or they have not got a true conception of the law, and therefore should be considered incapable. If in the selection of officials the council will only adhere to the law they will find it advantageous in more ways than one. Cheeseparing ratepayers who always look to cheapness, utterly regardless of efficiency, will then be deprived of the privilege of going about during election times with the cry that "Smith, whose tender was seven dollars less than Jones, did not receive the appointment, though according to their judgment he was just as good a man." My remarks as above set forth are not intended, and I hope will not be taken, as a reflection on the past record of any councillor, and if any future benefit accrues I shall feel well repaid.—Yours,

OPS RATEPAYER.

Toronto Live Stock Market.

Too many of the wrong kind of cattle kept the market depressed Tuesday. Any number of common ones were left in the pens at the close. The only line which showed any firmness was hogs. Buying of export cattle was quiet and steady. Altogether there were 65 carloads of stuff in the pens at the Western Cattle Yards Tuesday, including 494 sheep and lambs, 1,200 hogs and about 25 calves. For the week ended Saturday, January 11, total receipts at the two yards were:—Cattle, 1,975; sheep and lambs, 912; hogs, 2,739; weigh fees, $64 18.

Export Cattle—Not many offered. All the good ones were soon taken. About the best sale of the day was a bunch of 17 cattle, 1,338 lbs. average, which sold for 4¼ per lb, less $1 per head on the deal. The range of prices was from 3¾c to 4¼c per lb.

Butchers' Cattle—Trade was active for good cattle, but it was the same old story about poor and common. The market was glutted and dull. Good cattle will fetch 3½ per lb, but the majority of the best deals were made at from 3½ to 3¾ per lb. The ruling figures for common to medium cattle were from 2½ to 2¾c per lb. A lot of stuff was left over. A bunch of 32 pretty fair cattle could not be sold for as low as 2c per lb. Buying for the Montreal market was fairly brisk. Mr. Halligan bought four carloads for there. Mr. Roy one load and Mr. Vincent four loads, for which fair prices were paid. Sales:—2 extra choice cattle, 2,700 lbs weight 4c per lb; 25 cattle, 1,000 lbs average, 2½c per lb; 27 cattle, near-ly 1,000 lbs average, 2½ per lb; 15 cattle, about 900 lbs average, $20 per head and $10 over on the deal; some cows 1,200 lbs average, 2½ to 3c per lb; 1 carload cattle, about 1,000 lbs average, $2.40 per cwt; 4 carloads cattle, about 1,100 lbs average, 2½ per lb; 5 cattle, 1,000 lbs average, $108 for the lot; 4 heifers, 1,800 lbs weight, $88 for the lot; 2 heifers, 2,100 lbs weight, $51 for the two.

Stockers—Hardly anything doing, only one or two head being taken for farmers at about 2½ per lb.

Feeders—Quiet. Odd ones are being picked up at from 2¾ to 3c per lb.

Bulls—Good bulls are in fair demand at from 2c to 2½ per lb. Fancy for export would bring 3½ per lb and are wanted.

Sheep—Shipping sheep are dull. Not many are moving. Prices rule at from 2¾ to 3c per lb, mostly 2¾ per lb. A bunch of ten head, 130 lbs average, sold for 2¾ per lb.

Lambs—In Buffalo lambs are off $1 per head, which has had a depressing effect on this market. As many as 20 carloads of Canadian lambs were left unsold on Monday at the Buffalo market. Only a few ordered lambs brought 4¼c per lb, the ruling figures being 3¾c to 4c per lb. Some lambs which weighed on an average 86 lbs each sold for 4c per lb. A bunch of 10 good ones, 85 lbs average, sold for 3¾ per lb. There were plenty of deals below 3c per lb.

Calves—Offerings were fairly liberal and the demand was steady, prices ruling from $2 to $6.50 per head. Choice veals are wanted.

Milch Cows and Springers—This market was slightly firmer Tuesday. From $15 to $40 per head were the prices. Too many poor cows were coming in. Only really good ones are wanted.

Hogs—The feeling in this line was firmer Tuesday. Offerings were 1,200 head, but all sold. Choice bacon hogs sold at from $3.70 to $3 80 per cwt, weighed off the cars. One bunch, which included a few head of light hogs, sold for $3.75 per cwt. Other hogs rule about as usual.

GRATIFICATION SALE

Preparatory to Stock-Taking!

Our gratification for the successful business which our big store has been favoured with during the year just closed, is oozing out of every pore.

Our bounding enthusiasm urges us—perhaps rashly—to making our January business something phenomenal—something better and greater than anything in the past! Besides—

It's Price-Pruning Time, Previous to Taking Stock.

That usually means selling about cost, but we mean to crowd business by crowding down prices away below anything you've ever known before.

The whole of our immense stock of Men's, Youth's and Boys' Clothing, Furnishings, Hats, Caps, etc., have been marked down for immediate sale to prices that will make the whole Town and Country ring with startling news!

Our Prices are Dwarfs! Our Values are Giants!

You lucky fellows who have been waiting for the cold weather, have struck it rich! Don't let go of that mighty dollar until you have seen what we are doing in the way of cut prices on SUITS, OVERCOATS, UNDERWEAR, HATS, CAPS and FURNISHINGS.

The season is almost over with us, but it is only beginning with you. Gough Bros. don't propose to permit an accummulation of stock from season to season—even if it should take to clear the decks. We reign to-day, sure! We are much alive to the sacrifices we are making, and we haven't lost our heads either.

Every table abounds with Bargains—every Price has been clipped a third or more—and you can't find such Prices at other stores, because you can't gather figs off thistles.
