THE PARK QUESTION.

It is to be regretted that the council for 1896, after successfully surmounting many difficulties and establishing an excellent record, left themselves open to misconception and censure at the close of the year owing to the manner in which they handled the proposed purchase of the park lots. We do not propose to discuss the adaptability of the lots for the purpose mentioned—that they adjoin an acre and a half of land already owned by the town, and that the position is most favorable for park purposes, form good and sufficient reasons why their purchase should have been seriously considered by councillors who were in favor of initiating a system of parks. While the matter had been fully discussed in secret committee, however, and the merits made plain, the public remained in the dark until the council meeting on the evening of December 21st, when the somewhat obscure resolution carried by the vote of Mayor Smyth, and the subsequent discussions and explanation by Coun. Sootheran, gave the citizens grounds for believing that the purchase of the lots for $1,100 was an accomplished fact. Then certain councillors, who likely knew better, worked with a will to spread the error and excite ward jealousy. The fact is, there was no possible chance of the deal being closed by this year's council, as under the new rules which came into force on the 19th December a by law would have to be submitted at the next meeting on Dec. 29th, after which the finance committee would have to consider the financial details, and report at a subsequent meeting. According to the statutes the life of the council terminates on Dec. 30th, and the voting of money after that date becomes an illegal act. Some, if not all, of the members of council forgot this important point on the night of meeting, hence the trouble.

NORTH ONTARIO.

The riding is opened, and the Warder, as usual, seeks to cover up the criminal misdoings of the appointees of the late government by sophistry of the thinnest kind. It will be remembered, however, that the Warder defended Chamberlinthe Winnipeg plugger-and the same pen will now do service in defence of Sir Charles Tupper's officials at Winnipeg, recently arrested for the biggest conspiracy to stuff ballots this continent has ever known, though not one whit more damnable than the plot which cheated Duncan Graham of his rights, and, by his taking the benefit of it, secured for Mr. Mc-Gillivray nothing but scorn and contempt. Henceforth he is a political outcast as a punishment for his infamy in taking the benefit of stolen ballots, and the Warder's certificate of character is perhaps the worst thing Mr. McGillivray could have asked for, because its rule is, the greater the crime, the more praise. The proceedings must not end with the anseating of Mr. McGillivray. The purpose of the election courts is not to discover or punish crime, any more than the court at which a recount is held. Once discovered, however, unless pursued, and the criminal run to earth, there is winking at election frauds, and honesty is positively discouraged. The late Judge Burnham found as a fact that good ballots for Graham had been stolen from the box, and bad ballots for McGillivray substituted therefor. Here is the existence of crime. OBIT—Death has again visited us. Mrs.

Jas. Flood, who has long been ailing, was taken ill with hemorrhage of the lungs and expired suddenly last Tuesday week. Her remains were taken to Bobcaygeon on Christmas day and interred there. She leaves a sorrowing husband and several small childrer, who have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their great loss.

ENTERTAINMENT.—On the fifteen of January we understand there is to be an entertainment at Simmon's hall, at which outside as well as local talent will assist. Dr. Williams, ex-missionary to West Africa, has kindly consented to give us a little of his experience in that country. This is the first time he has ever consented to give any insight of his labor publicly, and it will no doubt be appreciated.

Notes. - Christmas was spent very quietly by the people of this place.....Our local municipal politicians are preparing for a rush of business. Good Stock.—Notwithstanding the dull times finely bred stock will sell to enterprising farmers. Mr. Robert Pogue recently sold to Mr. T. G. Irwin a fine pair of Clyde fillies for a handsome figure. Mr. Pegue has also added to his fine equipment of farm machinery a grain chopper with latest improvements.

Well Deserved.—Mr. A. E. Silverwood bas been re-engaged as teacher in cur school for a third term. His services are Literary.—The Glandine Literary and Debating Society held a very erjoyable meeting on Tuesday evening, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The old officers gracefully retired, and the newly elected officers were installed, the principal offices being filled by A. E. Silverwood, as president; J. D. Hutton, vice-pres.; W. T. Davidson, sec.-treas.; W. Sloan, sentinel; all of whom gave short, withy speeches on accepting office. Mr. W. W. Webster, on behalf of the programme committee, made a brilliant address which speaks well for future programmes. A half-hour's lecture on the silver question was listened to with deep interest, while recitations and songs concluded an excelrecitations and songs concluded an excelent programme.

REGRETTED -The news of the death of Mr. James Clarke, cf Ozs, a former resident of this village, at the ripe old age of 90 years, was received here with regret by his old friends.

COUNTY COUNCIL.—The candidates for the county council are very busy men, and availed themse'ves of the of the presence of electors at the municipal nominations last Monday. Dr. Cornwall, who was not in the field until the day of his nomination, is making a gallant fight for a place on the board.

NOMINATIONS.—At the municipal nominations for Emily last Monday there was a large crowd of electors present, and during the after meeting there was some pretty sharp shooting among those who had been placed in the field as candidates. For the reeveship it finally narrowed down to Wm. Adams and Jas. R. Boate, and this alone will make quite a lively fight. John J. Mitchell, who had numerous opponents for deputy-reeve for a time, was finally elected by acclamation. There were five candidates proposed for the ccuncil, tut the choice will likely be Dannis Scully, D. M. Kennedy, from the 14th con., and Isaac Fee from the east of the township..... The nominations for the village corporation were a kind of a farce, and the charces are that the returning officer will have to call for another nomi nation. COMMUNICATIONS.

The Council and the Park Lots. [To the Editor of THE POST]

DEAR SIR,-The cutgoing mayor and council claim credit for a surplus cf $4,-000, or at least $2,000. Is that result independent from the sale of that G.T.R. debenture? If not, their boast is uncalled for. Would the members of the council individually pay $1,100 for that park lot? Toronto freight. If not, how can they justify their paying Bran—Trade quiet and prices unchanged. the people's money! It was well said that Bran is quoted at $7 to $7.50 west, and $500 could not be borrowed on it. A very | shorts at $9 to $9.50. important point, which seems to have been altogether overlooked, is the dangerous proximity of the railway track, with a particularly awkward grade at that point. The park, no doubt, would be intended to a great extent for the benefit of children and their nurses. That arrangement is hardly prudent. Placing a gate at that crossing during the summer months would cost money. Why buy a piece of bog for twice its value when good dry ground can be bought for a fair price in a less dangerous situation? Decidedly, for the last month or two the council have concluded that they owned the town, -Yours, etc.,

Taxes and Township Affairs in Ops. [To the Editor of THE POST.] SIR,—This time last year I wrote a letter to the press complaining that the council, by forcing the psyment of taxes by Dec. 14 h, were causing many farmers to suffer a hardship. At the township hall the day of nomination I showed the electors that the Assessment Act allows the council to fix any time up to Feb. 1st as the last day to pay the taxes. Every farmer knows that the best time for him to pay debts is December and January, as farmers then have spare time to go to market, whereas they have to lose time in Ostober when they should be doing fall work and improving the land for next year's crop. With the present system from $5,000 to $8,000 of paid up taxes lies in the bank from Dec. 14:h to Feb. 1st, drawing 3 per cent. How much better it would be if this money was left with the people, many having to borrow money at large interest council has the power to extend the time for payment, and in refusing to do so they cause many farmers both loss and trouble. There is something peculiar about the way Ops taxes are collected. The Assessment Act provides that the collector after getting the roll must make a personal demand on the farmers, and fourteen days after this personal demand legal collection can be enforced. This personal demand is required by the act unless the council passes a by law to permit the collector to leave a printed slip which states the amount of taxes and makes a demand for them, and
