LITTLE BRITAIN.

SETTLED DOWN.—The holiday season is now over, and the voices of the children are no more heard on the streets except as they sing to the school.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. B. Greatrix of Cannington, exchanged with Rev. Mr. Stratton last Sabbath, the former holding the missionary anniversary services. His sermons were good and results excellent. Rev. Newton Hill opened a four days campaign in the Methodist church on Tuesday morning. He gave us three fine discourses. The special services thus started are expected to be continued some time.

HAD TO GO.

Mr. Elliott, superintendent of Hamilton city schools, was obliged to leave on Monday for duty, notwithstanding the critical condition of his wife's parents.

ON SABBATH NEXT.

The subject announced for Rev. Stratton's Sunday evening lectures next Sabbath is, "From the Prison to the Throne."

TEA.—Our New Year's tea scored one of the best successes of its history.

The speakers were all on hand and gave excellent addresses—such as must aid in building up a social, moral and religious character. The music was good and everything went off in a most satisfactory manner. The finale was on Monday, when over a hundred of the guests of the tea, attended the social to aid in despatching the surplus of provisions. When all had done their best more than two baskets remained. The tea proceeds over $107.

NEW YEAR'S TEA.

Our annual tea was a great success in every way. Though the weather was slightly unpropitious, the speaker was sought after by those who were seeking a good treat. The proceedings began at 3 o'clock. Addresses were given by Rev. W. J. Wickert, of Mount Pleasant, and E. Farnsworth, of Sonzog, were introduced, and spoke for a few minutes. The best address of the evening was given by the Rev. D. N. McManus, of Port Perry, who spoke for 30 minutes on "True Courage and its Consequences." His address was most timely and his address cannot well be imagined, brilliant as it was with clear logic, wholesome advice, and welcome counsel. A duet by Miss Stratton and Mr. Brown, and a quartette by Misses McNeill and Stratton, Messrs. Dwyer and Brown, were rendered in good style. The choir did its part in its well known manner. The choir was occupied by Rev. F. B. Stratton. A social was held on Monday evening and was well attended. The proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of $107; net proceeds, $82. These results are very gratifying indeed. All concerned may justly feel proud.

SOFT HIS PRACTICE.

Our genial townsman, Dr. Froomer, has suddenly surprised the community by taking down his sign on New Year's eve, having sold out his place and practice to his co-partner, Dr. Hall. No man will be more missed than he when the time comes for his removal, which will likely not be before spring or summer.
