Bill to Strengthen the Lord's

Day Act.

NOW INCLUDES "ALL PERSONS."

Corporations Will Also Come Within the Scope of the Measure-Some Necessary Exceptions-The Piggery Matter Again-Important Bills Read-Demands of Labor Stated.

Toronto, Dec. 30.-Yesterday was a very busy day at the Legislature. Many private and public bills of importance were advanced a stage. An important Toronto bill extending the franchise was allowed to pass its second reading and go on for discussion to the Committee. The Government measure dealing with the Lord's Day Act will be read with interest and will doubtless stir up considerable discussion in the country. The bill that caused the debate of the day was , that of Mr. Smith to prevent dual voting for County Councillors. Two-thirds of the members of the House spoke upon this subject and there seemed to be no politics in the discussion. First Readings. These bills were read a first time:

Mr. Garrow-Respecting the town of Goderich. The bill provides that the town may take steck to an amount not exceeding $50,000 in the elevator situated there, or to grant aid by bonus or loan to such elevator and for leave to sell certain old for the management of the same.

The Lord's Day. Hon. Mr. Hardy introduced a Govern ment measure to secure a better observance of the Lord's day. He said a large number of deputations had waited upon the Government urging strenuously that action should be taken in this direction. There had been recent decisions in the courts exempting corporations from the penalties of the present Act. It had been pointed out that while individuals employing labor could be punished the judges had held that corporations could not, because it would be impossible to send them to jail. He thought it wrong that unnecessary labor should be employed on the Lord's day. (Hear, hear.) The bill provided fines to cover such cases. It would apply to excursions, etc., whether by rall or boat. Farmers were exempt under the old Act, but had been included in the present bill. The new law would apply to all persons except milkmen, icemen, liverymen, cabmen, newspr permen, bakers and telephone and telegr...ph companies. The bill did not touch the question of travel; this would be 1 it to the courts. (Hear, hear.) He had introduced the bill between the holidays so that it might be discussed by those interested in the country. In this way the members would when home for the New Year holidays learn the wishes of their people and be prepared to deal with the question upon their return. A Toronto Bill. Mr. Marter moved the second reading of his bill to permit persons in municipal elections in Toronto to vote upon an assessment of $300. The second clause provided that municipal elections should be held on New Year's day, and the last | force the demand. that the polls should be kept open until seven o'clock p.m. Hon. Mr. Hardy opposed the bill. He stated that it came before the Legislature yearly about election time and had been again and again thrown out by the Municipal Committee. Under these circumstances it was but natural the City Council of Toronto should wait until a new Parliament should be elected. He agreed, however, to let the bill go again to the Municipal Committee.

Against Dual Voting. Mr. Smith moved the second reading of his bill respecting County Council elections. It provides that the voter may cast but one vote for any one candidate. At present should there be two or more candidates the voter could plump for one candidate, thus giving him two votes. city, was run over by a train at Yorkton The bill forbids this. demnation of the County Councils (Hear, hear.) Upon that basis of reasoning every Act that had ever been amended would be considered bad and this would be absurd. No doubt weak spots would be found in the Act from time to time and they could be dealt with as they arose. As to the dual vote he did not think it a matter of importance one way or the other. Mr. Caven thought the bill one of the most popular that had ever been passed. It had reduced the expenses of County Councils just one-half. (Hear, hear.) He intended moving in the same line with reference to Town Councils. He would support the amendment, however, because he believed in "one man, one vote." After considerable further discussion the bill was read a second time and passed on to the committee for future

Mr. Haycock said he thought settlers were the very men who ahould pay. He read a letter stating that in one of the northern districts over two hundred deer been called Mr. St. John found his charges had been killed by settlers during December and sold to the shanties. The bill was withdrawn.

Labor's Wants. The Executive Committee of the Dominion Trades Congress, which met at Hamilton last September, waited upon the Government last evening and requested that legislation should be introduced to remove the numbers from ballots in provincial elections; that local factory inspectors may be appointed in cities outside of Toronto; that two-acre farm lands in cities shall not be exempt from full taxation, and that the Government shall include the union label in trades mark legislation. The Premier said he would place all these matters before the other members of the Cabinet. Large Deficits.

The first report of the Municipal Auditor was laid on the table yesterday afternoon. He began his audit last May and stated he had made investigations which disclosed deficits as follows: County of Simcoe, S. J. Sandford, treasurer, $62,-857.02; County of Frontenac, W. T. Van Luven, treasurer, deficit $31,380.89; Town of Niagara Falls, J. R. Peckham, treasurer, deficit $3,000. The last enquiry was not considered to be fraud, but a case of bad bookkeeping, but the money was lost, just the same. Investigations were also held in the town of Niagara, the townships of Manvers, Roxborough, St. Joseph and Ridgetown Collegiate. The auditor suggests these changes in

He to both sides. forgot that Mr. Garrow had made the first move to investigate the killing of the hogs at the piggery. At the first meeting of the committee Mr. Garrow had moved a resolution requiring certain witnesses to be called and placed upon oath. This resolution was passed without opposition. After several witnesses had found he would have to go on with the business of the committee in the regular way he sulked, and, springing to his feet and followed by the other members of the Opposition, he left the committee, threatening to bring the matter up in the House. This he could have done with perfect propriety on a motion to adjourn if he was anxious for an immediate hearing, or he could have moved in the matter in the regular way when the House chose rather to be out of order by attempting to refer to the matter on a question of privilege. It is the opinion of many of the members that Mr. St. John knew Feb. 1. The Canadian Government has ety from drunkenness and all kindred this would not be allowed and simply adopted this course to make a bluff and give the country the impression the Goyernment was attempting to burk inquiry. IMPORTANT FREIGHT CHANGES.

The Grand Trunk and the C. P. R. Will Reduce Rates on Jan. 1, 1898. Montreal, Dec. 31 .- According to a circular just issued, the two big railways will, commencing January 1st, make a number of important changes in their freight rates. On wheat, oats, barley, rye and corn products a reduction will be made to 20 cents per 100 pounds, on the basis of the haulage from Chicago to New York. It applies to freight for the Atlantic seaboard, from western points in the United States. On October 15th last the rate was raised to 221/2 cents from 20 cents, so that it is now placed on its former standing. The second section refers to corn only, for domestic use or for export, from western points in the United States to the scaboard, on which a reduction of 21/2 cents per 100 pounds is also made, the former figure being 20 cents. It is thus reduced to 171/2 cents per 100 pounds. Another change affecting more directly Canadian traffic will also go into effect on the first of the new year. From main line points in Canada, on both railways, the tariff will be reduced 21/2 cents per 100 pounds on export traffic for the seaboard, or from 1714 cents to 15 cents.
