NDSAY, FRIDAY, FEB. 22, 1895. SERMON TO THE LINDSAY CURLERS.

On the evening of the 17th inst. the Lindsay curling club attended divine service at St. Andrew's church in a body, and their chaplain, Rev. Robt. Johnston, B. D., preached an appropriate sermon, an outline of which is given below.

The text was taken from Judges 20: 16. "Among all this pacple there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; everyone could sling stones at an hair-breadth

Far Reaching in its Benefit.

The last day of January ended our year's business—a successful one in every respect in spite of the hard times. We are getting closer to the people every year, and we are gratified that the people appreciate our efforts so unmistakebly. Growth is proof, continuous growth is proof positive. Our business proceeds on SOLID IDEAS PESISTENTLY FOLLOWED, and not upon spasmodic excitements.

We have sold more goods, counted more dollars, and entertained bigger crowds than ever before. Our best expectations have been more than realized and we enter upon a new year with our stores standing solidly on our past records, more than ever determined to beat that record, if possible.

STARTING SATURDAY MORNING

We commence our annual STOCK-TAKING CLEARANCE SALE. The recollection of last year's and previous season's mammoth sales will be ample to incite enough people to crowd our store from end to end. Unbounded attractions will prevail in every department, and another triumph will be added to our long list of irresistible bargain sales.
