Scott's Emulsion.

conditions

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is rapid. For this reason we put up a 5oc. size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children.

In other conditions gain must be slow, sometimes almost imperceptible, health can't be built up in a day. For this Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment, food rather than medicine, food prepared for tired and weak digestions.

Michael Brennan Shoots Mr. John Strathy

AT HIS OWN DOOR IN COLD BLOOD

Simply a Repetition of the Murder of

Carter Harrison, Mayor of Chicago -The Assassin Went to His Victim's House to Do the Awful Deed.

Barrie. Feb. 18 .- (Special) -- A most cold-blooded murder was perpetrated here this morning, the victim being John A. Strathy, a prominent banker, and old resident of the town; the murderer, Michael J. Brennan, a former resident, who is said to be insane. The cause of the awful tragedy is a mys-

Brennan called at Overden, Mr.

Strathy's house, at Lake and Duckworth-streets, and asked the servant who answered the door for Mr. Strathy. The girl asked who wished to me him, and Brennan replied, "A mend." Mr. Strathy came to the door and Breaman deliberately shot him in the bullet entering just heart. Mr. Strathy fell to and his wife, who had heard can to him. He said to her: has shot me," and then lost Dr. W. A. After committing the dastardly act, aped upon a rig, driven by Andrew raham, a farmer, from Oro Townhip. Mrs. Strathy shouted to Graham and a man named Thomas Ambler, who was also in the sleigh, to capture the murderer. But Brennan coolly told the men that the woman wascrazy, and to take no notice of her. When the sleigh arrived at the Victoria Hotel, Brennan alighted and went in and had a drink, afterwards walking down to the market square, where he coolly told Constable Marrin that he had shot

Jack Strathy. The constable took him into custody, and, together with County Detective Beardsley, went with him to the jail, where Brennan freely admitted his guilt, stating that Mr. Strathy had shoved him out of the house and that he drew his revolver on the spur of the moment and fired. He further said to Detective Beardsley that last summer he had another revolver that he intended to use for the same purpose, but he consulted the priest in Midland, who told him to at once destroy the revolver, and never take any person's blood. He decided to take the priest's advice and, to use his words, ouried the revolver in the waters of Georgian Bay. Detective Beardsley at once informed Crown Attorney Cotter, who told him to notify the coroner. Dr. Wallwin, who at once empanelled a jury, who viewed the remains and then adjourned until to-morrow morning. A post mortem examination is being held to-night by Dr. W. A. Ross and Dr. Raikes. The news of the horrible affair spread quickly throughout the town and relatives of Mr. Strathy in Toronto were notified and a number of them came here to console the bereaved wife and children. Dr. Grasett came up on the afternoon train, accompanied by a little daughter of the deceased, who has been at boarding school in Toronto. Mr. Henry Strathy, Q.C., a prominent lawyer here and a brother of the murdered man, told The World representative to-night that he could assign no cause for Brennan's awful act. The victim was of a most inoffensive disposition and was a friend of every one and a most popular man. It was said that some time ago Brennan had some trouble with his family and he asked Mr. Strathy to help him, but the latter had said that he could do nothing in the matter at all. Brennan is said to have stated after committing the crime that he had had financial troubles of which Mr. Strathy was the cause. There is nothing, however, that would lead to this being believed, as Brennan was always hard up and bad

Brennan gave up carpentering and went into the hotel busitaking charge of the Victoria hotel, which he ran for a couple of years, until the Scott Act came into

Brennan left Barrie about six years ago for Midland, taking his wife and family with him. While there he became involved in trouble with a lawyer named Steers, whom he accused of undue intimacy with Mrs. Brennan. The lawyer had Brennan arrested on a charge of lunacy, and he was committed to Barrie jail, where medical men examined him, but were not satisfied that he was income. fied that he was insane. Mrs. Brennan subsequently separated from her husband, and said to be now living in Toronto, where she has a brother who is a bank employe. Brennan went to Torento a few months ago and secured en.ployment with the Massey-Harris Company. He was in Barrie twice at the early part of the month, and did business with Barristers Lennox and Pepler. He did not turn up here again until last night, when he arrived from Tcronto on the afternoon train. When arrested he had $36 in cash and a Massey-Harris cheque. Besides those in the revolver, he had three extra

At the conclusion of the inquest tomorrow the prisoner will appear in the Police Court. The house in which the murder occurred was where Brennan met the woman he made his wife 20 years ago. Public sentiment here is very hot, and all kinds of threats are being made as to what may occur to the nrisoner; but it is not likely that anything unlawful will be done.

Drs. H. Wallwin, R. Raikes and W. A. Ross conducted the post mortem examination to-night at the home of the deceased, with a result that the bullet was extracted. It had entered the chest an inch below and 3 1-4 inches to the right of the left nipple, passing through the cartilege, entering the right side of the heart, which it Pills she determined to give them a trial. general elections. > Notes of the Tragedy. The weapon used by Brennan was a 44 calibre, five chambers, British bulldog revolver. One chamber was empty, another contained a shell that had been discharged, and three chambers were loaded. The revolver was purchased in Toronto.

Brennan has a brother, Jas., residing in Phelpston and owner of a planing mill; another brother, John, is an employe of the G.T.R. at Allandale. The town is in mourning owing to the sad event.

St. George's Society concert, which was to have taken place to-night, is postponed, as are other social events. Provincial Detective Greer is in town in connection with the case. The coroner's jury is composed of the most prominent business men of

The funeral arrangements have not yet been decided upon, but it is altogether likely that the remains will be interred in Toronto, where the remains of other members of the family have been buried.

When Brennan was taken to jail it was noticed that the knuckles of his right hand were badly scraped. A special issued by The Examiner, containing an account of the affair, was eagerly sought for by the townspeople during the evening. , Mr. Strathy's Career. The deceased was a son of the late John Strathy, who practised as a barrister in this city. He was born in Torento about 45 years ago, and spent his earlier years in this city. For 25 years he had been connected with the Barrie branch of the Bank of Toronto, of which he held the managership until three months ago. H. S. Strathy, manager of the Toronto office of the Traders' Bank, and Senator Gowan of Barrie are his uncles. His brothers are H. S. Strathy, Q.C., of Barrie and R. Utica, N.Y., Feb. 18 .- John Watson HI: dredth, Fred Bristol, Herbert Plato and Theodore Hibbard, who have been confined in the jail in this city for some months on the charge of wrecking the fast mail on the N.Y.C.R.R., near Rome, on Nov. 19 last, are now under indictment for murder in the first degree. The grand jury, now in session here, has been considering their cases more than a week, and to-day the indictments were found by the unanimous vote of the jury. The wreck caused the death of Engineer Nathan Hager of Albany and Robert Bond of Syracuse. The young men will be tried in Rome in March. Bristol is ill with consumption in the jail in this city. He has been removed to a bedroom in the house part and his mother is with him. It is believed he will live but a short time.

Since the Record began to publish accounts of the cures by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink P.lls, its representatives have found that half the wonderful cures effected by this medicine have not yet been given to the public. The about a month the nervous headache and thankfulness felt by one who receives such benefits as the above can better be imagined than described. Here are Mrs. Cotnam's words : "If you could only know or if I could but tell of the intense suffering which I have endured and the many sleepless nights I have spent in mental and physical agony, you would not wonder at the degree of thankfulness I feel for my restoration to health." schools, but whether we have in Canada a free Parliament and those British institutions of which Mr. Laurier has always been the champion. The letter seems to put the great Liberal party in the position of having for its leader not a statesman, but the creature of a bench of eastern bishops. He will show the country that the Quebec hierarchy make a mistake in supposing they can degrade him to the position of a mere voting machine to go in any direction contrary to his convictions as a serious and resposible public man. They are trying to make a religious question out of a political question. They threaten to destroy him if he does not come to the support of the position taken by certain bishops who have mismanaged and bedeviled this subject from the start. They have made a bargain with the Government of the day, and Mr. Laurier is to be sent to Jericho if he does not assist in the consummation. If he did he would still lose, because the Government would claim that, having honored the draft of the bishops, it should go to the credit of their account at the Quebec hierarchy are said to be of a that the Government must be upheld and Parliament is asked to adopt that opinion by voting for the Remedial bill. The letter has two or three features. It is dated Jan. 20. The Remedial bill was not introduced until Feb. 11, three weeks later, yet in the name of the hierarchy, whose voice he is, Pere Lacombe asks the leader of the Opposition to support the bill. This shows that the Quebec bishops were consulted, and approved of the bill before it was introduced in Parliament. The letter reveals the existence of a bargain between the Government and the bishops of Quebec. The spokesman of the bishops says that if the Government is beaten on the bill the episcopacy and the clergy will as one man support the Government in the elections. That is the bargain. The Government said to the bishops : "If we fall on the bill you ask us to introduce we rely on your united support in the elections. In the meantime we rely on

The letter betrays a knowledge even of the date of the introduction of the bill. A priest, even a good priest like Father Lacombe, or a bishop, is not usually a good politician, and in this case a letter has been written, which busides being in contempt of the high privileges of Parliament, is that most imprudent thing-a threatening letter. If a judge about to try a case in a court much lower than the High Court of Parliament were to receive such a letter, the writer of it would find that he had placed himself in a precarious position. It is not believed that Father Lacombe speaks for the hierarchy of Ontario, who knows well that if the heather gets afire in this way the interests which they have at heart would be gravely imperilled. The Liberals in Parliament can be relied on to stand firmly to their guns and to the policy they have placed before the country.

Montreal, Feb. 20 .- (Special)-The following is a copy of the letter which the Rev. Father Lacombe, the Oblat missionary, sent to the Hon. Wilfrid Luarier, asking the Liberal leader to vote for the Remedial bill : St. Peter's Church, 107 Visitation St., HARDY'S MUNICIPAL BILL. A Scheme to Reorganize the Conduct of the Affairs of Cities.

Hon. A. S. Hardy's bill respecting city councils and other matters proposes some important changes. It proposes, in the first place, to extend the term of office of aldermen to two years. Half the aldermen are to retire at the end of the first your following the first annual election after the act comes into force, and the other half shall retire the following year, and so

The question of retirement at the end of the first year is to be regulated as follows: Where an even number of aldermen is elected for each ward, the retiring members shall be those receiving the smaller number of votes. When three aldermen are elected for each ward, those receiving the smallest number of votes shall retire, and one alderman for the least populous ward for whom the smallest number of votes were polled, shall also retire, and so on, the aldermen for whom the next smallest vote was polled in the next least populous ward retiring until half the aldermen, less one, have retired. When an equal number of rotes has been received, the question of who shall retire shall be decided by

The next part of the bill deals with the constitution of the Board of Control of cities having a population of 160,000 and over. The board is to consist of the mayor and three aldermen, the aldermanic members to be elected by the council. The members may be compensated to the extent of $1000 per annum. The elected members may be removed and others appointed by a two-thirds vote of the whole council. The duties of the board shall be to prepare annual estimates, which shah not be exceeded by the council, except by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole council; to call for tenders and award contracts, and to cominate the heads of departments and other permanent offices; to inspect all municipal works. The council may impose other duties, and the decision of the board in all cases shall be finar, except when over-ruled by a twothirds vote of the whole council. Under the head of miscellaneous provisions is a section providing that the Court of Revision in any city having a population of 30,000 or over shall consist of three members, one to be appointed by the council, one by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trade, and the third by the official arbitrator, or, in the absence of such an official, by the sheriff. The salary is to be $200 per annum, and no municipal employe or member of the council is to be eligible. The act also provides that in cities and towns, after the close of the polls and the counting of the ballots, the D.R.O. shall deliver on the same day the ballot boxes to the clerk. Power is given to councils, upon the certificate of the police commissioners, to pay the costs and damages recovered from members of the police force for actions done by them in the discharge of their duties, The power of police inspectors with regard to releasing persons arrested for drunkenness is extended to the third offence. The bill will be read a second time on Tuesday.
