SPECIFIC SCROFULA

"Since shildhood, I have been afflicted with scrofulous boils and sores, which caused me terrible suffering. Physicians were unable to help me, and I only grew worse under their care.

Sarsaparilla, and very soon grew bet-After using half a dozen bottles I was completely cured, so that I have not had a boil or pimple on any part of my body for the last twelve years. I can cordially recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the very best blood-purifier

in existence." - G. T. REINHART, Myersville, Texas. THE ONLY WORLD'S FAIR

Sarsaparilla Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cures Coughs and Golds

Pain Killer.

Croup. Coughs, Colic, Tooth-Colds, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, and all BOWEL COMPLAINTS. A Sure, Safe, Quick Cure for these Used Internally and Externally. Two Sizes, 25c. and 50c. bottles. 00000000000

Canadian Lost. LINDSAY, FRIDAY, FEB. 19, 1897.

THE GREAT

(Continued from last week.)

"Oh," she cried, interrupting me, "I don't mean that way. I mean that when you try to fib you always do it so badly that one sees right through it. Now, acknowledge that you wouldn't stop work

If you could. "Well, no, I wouldn't," I owned up. "The truth is, Miss Cullen, that I'd like to be rich, because, -well, hang it, I don't care if I do say it-because I'm in Madge laughed at my confusion, and said, "With money?"

"No," I said. "With just the nicest, aweetest, [rettiest girl in the world." Madge took a look at me out of the corner of her eye, and remarked, "It | say." must be breakfast time,"

Considering that it was about six-thirty, I wanted to ask who was telling a tara- seemed to me that he had come bediddle now, but I resisted the temptation, cause he was jealous; and that wasn't and said,-

"No. And I promise not to bother you about my private affairs any more." Madge laughed again merrily, saying, "You are the most obvious man I ever met. Now, why did you say that? "I thought you were making breakfast an excuse," I said, "because you didn't like the subject."

"Yes, I was," she said, frankly. "Tell me about the girl you are engaged to." I was so taken aback that I stopped in my walk, and merely looked at her. "For instance," she said, coolly, when she saw that I was speechless, "what | does she look like?" "Like, like-" I stammed, still embarrassed by this bold carrying the war into my own camp,- "like sn

"Oh!" said Madge, eagerly, "I've always wanted to know what angels look like. Describe her to me.'

"Well," I said, getting my second wind, so to speak, "she has the bluest eyes I've ever seen. Why, Miss Cullen, you said you'd not seen anything so blue as the sky yesterday; but even the sky of 'Rainless Arizona' has to take a back seat when her eyes are around. And they are just like the atmosphere out here. You can look into them for a hundred miles, but you can't get to the bottom." "The Arizona sky is wonderful," said

Madge. "How do the cientists account I wasn't going to have my description of Miss Cullen side-tracked, for since she had given me the chance I wanted her to know just what I thought of her. 1 didn't follow the lead on the Arizor a skies,

"And I really think that her hair is just as levely as her eyes. It's light brown, very curly, and ______, "Her complexion!" - xclaimed Madge.

"Is she a mulatto? And, if so, how can a complexion be cul; ?"

"Her complexion, I said, not a bit rattled, "is another great beauty of hers. She has one of those skins-" "Furs are out of fashion at present, she interjected, laughing merrily. "Now look here, Miss Culleu," I cried indignantly, "I'm not going to let even you make fun of her."

"I can't help it," she laughed, "when ou look so serious and intense. "It's something I feel intense about, Miss Cullen," I said, not a little pained, I confess, at the way she was joking. I didn't mind being laughed at, but Miss Collen knew, about as well as I, whom J was talking about, and it seemed to me she was laughing at my love for her.

ot es

suppose it is funny to you; probably so many men have been in love with you that it has come to mean very little in her eyes which showed them full of your eyes. But out here we don't make suppressed merriment, even while her a joke of love, and when we care for a face was grave. In spite of her predicwoman we care—well, it's not to be put in words, Miss Cullen." "I really didn't mean to hurt your feelings, Mr. Gordon," said Madge, gently, and quite serious now. "I ought not to have tried to tease you.'

"There," I said, my irritation entirely "I had no right to lose my temper, and I'm sorry I spoke so unkindly. The truth is, Miss Cullen, the girl I care for is in love with another man, and so at once. I'm bitter and ill-natured these days." My companion stopped walking at the steps of 218, and said, "Has she told you so ?" "No," I answered, "but it's as plain as she's pretty."

Madge ran up the steps and opened the door of the car. As she turned to close it, she looked at me with the oddest of expressions, and said,-"How dreadfully ugly she must be."

CHAPTER X.

WAITING FOR HELP. If ever a fellow was bewildered by a single speech, it was Richard Gordon. 1 walked up and down that platform till I was called to breakfast, trying to decide what Miss Cullen had expressed, only to succeed in reading fif y different meanings into her parting six words. I wanted to think that was her way of suggesting that I deceived myself in thinking that there was anything between Lord Ralles and herself; but, though I wished to believe this, I had seen too much to the contrary to take stock in the idea. Yet I couldn't believe that Madge was a coquette; I became angry and hot with myself for even thinking it for a moment. Puzzle as I did over the words, managed to eat a good breakfast, and then went into the Cullens' car and electrified the party by telling them of Camp's and Fred's despatches and how I had come to overhear the former. Mr. Cullen and Albert couldn't say enough about my cleverness in what had really been pure accident, and seemed to think I had stayed up all night in order to lear that telegram. The person for whose opinion I cared the most-Miss Cullendidn't say anything, but she gave me a look that set my heart beating like a triphammer and made me put the most hopeful construction on that speech of hers. It seemed impossible that she didn't care for Lord Ralles, and that she might care for me; but, after having no hope whatsoever, the smallest crumb of a chance nearly lifted me off my feet. We had a consultation over what was best to be done, but didn't reach any definite conclusion till the station-agent brought me a telegram from the Postmaster-General. Breaking it open, I read

"Do not allow service of writ, and retain possession of letters according to prior instructions. At the request of this department, the Secretary of War has directed the commanding officer at Fort Whipple to furnish you with military protection, and you will call upon him at once, if in your judgment it is necessary. On no account surrender United States property to Territorial authorities. Keep Department notified."

"Oh, splendid !" cried Madge, clapping "Mr. Camp will find that other people can give surprise-parties as well as himself," I said, cheerfully. "You'll telegraph at once?' asked Mr.

"Instantly," I said, rising, and added, "Don't you want to see what I say, Miss

"Of course 1 do," she cried, eagerly Lord Ralles scowled as he said, "Yes let's see what Mr. Superintendent has to '.You needn't trouble yourself," I said, but he followed us into the station. was disgusted, but at the same time it an unpleasant thought. Whatever his motive, he was a third party in the writing of that telegram, and had to stand by while Miss Culler and I discussed and draughted it. I didn't try to make it any too brief, not merely asking for a guard and when I might expect it, but giving as well a pretty full history of the case, which was hardly necessary. "You'll bankrupt yourself," laughed Madge. "You must let us pay. "I'll let you pay, Miss Cullen, if you want," I said. "How much is it, Welply? asked, shoving the blanks in to the

"Nothin' for a lady," said Welply, grin-

"There, Miss Cullen," I said. "Does the East come up to that in gallantry?" "Do you really mean that there is no charge?" demanded Madge, incredulousy, with her purse in her hand.

"That's the size of it," said the operator. "I'm not going to believe that! cried Madge. "I know you are only deceiving me, and I really want to pay." I laughed, and said, "Sometimes railroad superintendents can send messages free, Miss Cullen." "How silly of me!" exclaimed Madge. Then she said, "How nice it is to be a railroad superintendent, Mr. Gordon! I should like to be one myself. That speech really lifted me off my feet, but while I was thinking what response to make, I came down to earth with a bounce. "Since the telegram's done," said Lord Ralles to Madge, in a cool, almost com-"Suppose we take a manding voice,

"I don't think I care to this morning," answered Madge. "I think you had better," said his lordship, with such a manner that I felt inclined to knock him down. To my surprise, Madge seemed hesitate, and finally said, "I'll walk up and down the platform, if you wish. Lord Ralles nodded, and they went out, leaving me in a state of mingled amazement and rage at the way he had cut me out. Try as I would, I wasn's able to hit upon any theory that supplied a solution to the conduct of either Lord Ralles or Miss Cullen, unless they were engaged and Miss Cullen displeased him by her tehavior to me. But Madge seemed such an honest, frank girl, that I'd have believed anything sooner than that she was playing with me. the hour that followed, but I didn't care how miserable I was myself, so long as was sure that I was blocking Lord Ralles; and his grumpiness showed very clearly that my presence did that As for Madge, I could'nt make her out. I had insomina, nervousness, and, always thought I understood women a f not relieved, billious fever little, but her conduct was beyond under- or blood poisoning. Hood's

Apparently Miss Cullen did not relish rouse the liver, cure headache, diggines stipation, etc. 25 cents. Sold by all drug stipation, etc. 25 cents. Sold by all drug the only Pills to take with Hood's Sarsap

Under this impression, I went on, "I was going to the car. "I'm sure you tion, the moment Miss Callen was gone Lord Ralles and I pulled apart about as quickly as a yard engine can split a

I moped around for an hour, too unsettled mentally to do anything but smoke, and only waiting for an invitation or some excuse to go into 218. About eleyen o'clock I obtained the latter in another telegram, and went into the car

"Telegram received," I read triumph-"A detail of two companies of the Twelfth Cavalry, under the command of Captain Singer, is ordered to Ash Forks, and will start within an hour, arriving at five o'clock. C. D. OLMSTEAD, Adjutant."

"That wen't do, Gordon," said Mr. Cullen. "The mandamus will be here before that."

"Ob, don't say there is something more wrong !" sighed Madge. "Won't it be safer to run while there is still time? 'asked Albert.

"I was born lazy about running away," "Oh, but please, just for once," Madge "We know already how brave

"I'd do it for you," I said, looking at Miss Cullen so that she understood this time what I meant, without my using any emphasis, "but I don't see any need of making myself uncomfortable when I can make the other so. Come along and see if my method isn't quite as good." We went to the station, and I told the operator to call Rock Butte. Then dictated-"Direct conductor of Phoenix No on its arrival at Rock Butte to hold it there until further orders. RICHARD GORDON, Superintendent."

"That will save my running and their chasing," I laughed, "Though I'm afraid a long wait in Rock Butto won't improve

The next few hours were pretty exciting ones to all of us, as can be imagined. Most of the time was spent, I have to confess, in manœuvres and struggles between Lord Ralles and myself as to which should monopolize Madge, without either of us succeeding. I was so engrossed with the contest that I forgot all about the passage of time, and only when the sheriff strolled up to the station did I realize that the climax was at hand. As a joke I introduced him to the Cullens, and we all stood chatting till far out on the hill to the south I saw a cloud of dust, and quietly called Miss Cullen's attention to it. She and I went to 97 for my field glasses, and the moment Madge looked through them she cried-"Yes, I can see horses, and oh! there are the stars and stripes. I don't think i ever loved them so much before.' "I suppose we civilians will have to take a back seat now, Miss Cullen, 'I said, and she answered me with a demure smile worth-aell, I'm not go ng to put a value on that smile. "They'll be here very quickly," she

"You forget the clearness of the air," l said, and then asked the sheriff how far away the dust cloud was.

"Yer mean that cattle drive?" he asked. "'Bout ten miles." "You seem to think of everything, that distances are deceptive in Arizona was wonderful. I sometimes think that one gets the most praise in the world for what least deserves it. I waited half an hour to be safe, and called to dinner, and this time I didn't first arrived in Ash Forks. There weren't refuse the invitation to eat mine in 218. towards the end I looked at my watch, but in what time there was I did a lot of wendering what could keep the cavalry head-work, without, however, finding

"Not the slightest," I assured her. "You're just too late, gentlemen," hours, and the cavalry had only five miles to cover forty minutes ago. I must say, they seem to be taking their time."

said, pointing out the window. There wote being: D. Graham 240.

McLeod 2364. There were 26 solutions and 59 rejected ballots.

The three conspirators jumped to their lots and 59 rejected ballots.

An order for a recount in No. "The train won't be here under two said, pointing out the window. "There

"There they are now," cried Albert. Listening, we heard the clatter of horses feet, going at a good pace, and we sent them all sprawling on the floor in all went to the windows to see the arrival. a pretty badly mixed-up condition. I Our feelings can be imagined when across made a dash for the door, and as I went the tracks came only a mob of thirty or forty cowboys, riding in their usual "show-off" style. "The deuce !" I couldn't help exclaiming, in my surprise. "Are you sure you saw a flag, Miss Cullen?"

"Why-I-thought-" she faltered. "I saw something red, and-I supposed

Not waiting to let her finish, I exclaimed, "There's been a fluke somewhere, heads, as only western horses will stand. I'm afraid, but we are still in good shape, It didn't take me 1 ng to have those for the train can't possibly be here under | bridles back in place, and as I tossed an hour. I'll get my field glasses and each over the peak of the Mexican saddle have another look before I decide I gave two of the ponies slaps which sent what--"

My speech was interrupted by the entrauce of the sneriff and Mr. Camp!

CHAPTER XI.

THE LETTERS CHANGE HANDS AGAIN. hensible puzzle had, as we afterwards place, but two of them were standing in learned, a very simple explanation. One of the C. S. directors, Mr. Baldwin, who to take in what I was about till I was had come in on Camp's car, was the well mounted. Then I heard a yell, and, owner of a great cattle-ranch near Rock | fearing they might shoot-for the cowboy Butte. When the train had been held does love to use his gun-I turned sharp at that station for a few minutes, Camp street, just in time to see Camp climbing went to the conductor, demanded the through the window, with Baldwin's head cause for the delay, and was shown my in view behind him. telegram. Seeing through the device, the party had at once gone to the ranch, me, and considering that he had covered where the owner, Boldwin, mounted over forty miles that afternoon in pretty them, and it was their dust-cloud we had | quick time, it is not surprising that there seen as they rode up to Ash Forks. To wasn't much go left in him. I knew that make matters more serious, Baldwin had rounded up his cow-boys and brought and that then they would overhaul me in them along with him, in order to make very short order. Clearly there was no any resistance impossible.

1 made no objection to the sheriff serving the paper, though it nearly broke my heart to see Madge's face. To cheer her I said, suggestively, "They've got Hood's Pills. going to Policings give Lord Relies the right of way, and soon as I had made certain that the as soon as I had made certain that the is caused by torpid liver, which prevents digesas soon as I had had a safely started I joined the telegram was safely started I joined the ion and permits food to ferment and putrify in the stomach. Then follow dizzness, headache, the stomach.

STAND STILL.

Every one is either growing better

How is it with you? You are suffering from KIDNEY, LIVER

OR URINARY TROUBLES. Have tried doctors and medicine without avail, and have become disgusted.

DON'T CIVE UP:

O Mainer's

WILL CURE YOU. Thousands now well, but once like you, say so. Give an honest medicine an hon-

Accept no substitute. Write for free treatment blank to-day. Warner's Safe Cure Co., Rochester, N. Y.

me, but they haven't got the letters, Miss Cullen. And, remember, it's always | might be its best chance of success. darkest before the dawn, and the stars in their courses are against Cæsar," With the sheriff and Mr. Camp I then walked over to the saloon, where Judge Wilson was waiting to dispose of my case. Mr. Cullen and Albert tried to come to, but all outsiders were excluded by order of the "court." I was told to show cause why I should not forthwith produce the letters, and answered that I asked an adjournment of the case so that I might be heard by counsel. It was denied, as was to have been expected; indeed, why they took the trouble to go through the forms was beyon? me. told Wilson I should not produce the letters, and he asked if I knew what that meant. I couldn't help laughing and

"It very appropriately means 'contempt of the court,' your honor.' "I'll give you a stiff term, young man," he said. "It will take just one day to have habeas corpus proceedings in a United States court, and one more to get the papers here, I rejoined, pleasantly. Seeing that I understood the moves too well to be bluffed, the judge, Mr. Camp, and the lawyer held a whispered conversation. My surprise can be imagined when, at its conclusion, Mr. Camp said-"Your honer, I charge Richard Gorden with being concerned in the holding-up of the Missouri Wes'ern Overland No. 3 on the night of October 14th, and ask that he be taken into custody on that I couldn't make out this new move, and puzzled over it, while Judge Wilson ordered my commitment But the next step revealed the object, for the lawyer then asked for a sea ch-warrant to look exclaimed Miss Cullen, as if my knowing for stolen property. The judge was equally obliging, and began to fill one

This made me feel very serious, for the letters were in my breast pocket, and I swore at my own stupidity in not having then released No. 3, just as we were put them in the station safe when I had many moments in which to think while We didn't hurry over the meal, and the judge scribbled away at the warrant more than one way out of the snarl. "I hope there is no danger of the train And when I saw the judge finish off his arriving first, is there?' asked Miss signature with a flourish, I played a pretty desperate card.

sheriff turned to look. As he did so I gave him a shove toward the three, which throught it I grabbed the key and locked them in. As I turned to do so I saw them struggling up from the floor, and knowing that it wouldn't take them long to get through the window, I didn't waste much time in watching them. Camp, Baldwin, and the judge, had left their horses just outside the saloon, and there they were still patiently standing with their bridles thrown over their them off on a lope accross the railroad tracks. I swung myzelf into the saddle of the third, and flicked him with the loose ends of the bridle in a way which made him understand that I meant

Baldwin's cowtoys had most of them What seemed at the time an incompre- scattered to the various saloons of the quickly, ho rever, that they didn't serm

> Before I had sidden a hundred feet l realized that I had a done-up horse under in plenty without wasting many minutes, use in my attempting to escope by running. And, as I wasn't armed, my only hope was to test them by some

Ash Forks, like all western railroad towns, is one long line of builin s running parallel with the railroad tracks. Two hunared feet, therefore, brought me to the edge of the town, and I wheeled the pony and rode down behind the rear of the buildings. In surning I looked back, and saw Laif a de zen mounted men already in parauit, but I lost sight of them the next moment. As soon as I reached a street ading back to the railroad I turned again and rode towards it, my one thought beig to get back, if possible, to the station, and put the etters into the railroad agent's safe. When I reached the main street I saw pursuit. They yelled at me to hold up, and I expected every moment to hear the crack of revolvers, for the poorest shot among them would have found no difficulty in dropping my horse at that dis'ance if they had wanted to stop me. It isn't a very nice sensation to keep your cars pricked up in expectation of hearing the shooting begin, and to fear that any moment may be your last. I don't suppose I was on the ragged edge more than thirty seconds, but they were enough to prove to me that to keep one's back turned to an enemy as one runs away takes a deal more pluck than to stand up and face his gun. Fortunately for me, my pursuers felt so sure of my capture that not one of them drew a bead

The moment I saw that there was no escape, I put my hand in my breastpocket and took out the letters, intending to tear them into a hundred pieces. But as I did so I realized that to destroy United States mail not merely entailed criminal liability, but was off color merally. I faltered, balancing the outwitting of Camp against state's prison, the doing my best fo Madge against the wrong of it. I think I'm as honest a fellow as the average, but I have to confess that I couldn't decide to do right till I thought that Madge wouldn't want meto be dishonest, even for her.

I turned across the railroad track and cut in behind some freight cars that were standing on a siding. This put me out of view of my pursuers for a moment, and in that instant I stood up in my stirrups, lifted the brozd leather flap of the saddle and tucked the letters underneath it, af far in as I could force them. It was a desperate place in which to hide them, but the game was a desperate one at best, and the very boldness of the idea (To be Centinued.)

The Successful Song. Take a little non ense, Add a little rhyme, Sat it to a jirgle.

Stolen every time; Print a cclored picture Of a gir!, on every page, And it won't be long before your song Is simply all the rage.

FROM AGONY TO JOY. Acute Sufferings From Acute Rheuma tic Ailment Relied by South Ameri can Rheumatic Cure When Hope Had Well-Nigh Gone - Mrs. W. Ferris. Wife of a Well-Known Manufacturer of Glencoe, Cheerfully Tells the Story of Her Cure. "I was for years a great sufferer from rheumatic affection in my ankles, and at times was so bad that I could not walk. I tried every known remedy and treated with best physicians for years, but no permanent relief. Although my confider co la remedies was about exhausted, was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. I purchased a bottle. The very first dose gave me relief, and af er taking two bittles all pain had vanished and there has been no re ura of it. I do cheerfully recommend this great remedy." Sold by A. Higiebotham.

WELL-DRESSED LUNATIC.

A French-Canadian in Charge of the Sheria

at Newport, Vermont. Newport, Vt., Feb. 14.-An insane man is being detained here pending identification. He has a railroad ticket for Quebec, which He came into East Coventry on Friday taken to this city for safe keeping. He has given different names. One of them Arthur Dorion. His shirts are marked H. Dibble, his cuffs Thomas Orton, and his vest Fitzgerald. He is French, about 25 years old, of medium height, weighs nearly 200 pounds, has sandy complexion. mustache and hair light red, and is well dressed in black pants, grey mixed coat. brown overcoat and black soft hat. Any information should be sent to L. D. Miles.

Sheriff, Newport, Vt. RECOUNT IN NORTH UNTARIO. Dunean Graham Declared Elected by 39 Majority-Order for a Recount

Atterwards Granted Beaverton, Feb. 11.-In the North Ontario election the returning officer gave the official count here to-day Duncan Graham, Reform-Patron, is declared elected by 39 majority, the total vote being: D. Graham 2403, Angus McLeod 2364. There were 26 spoilt bal-An order for a recount in North On-Angus McLeod, since the declaration made to-day, to take place before Judge Mahaffy at Bracebridge next Tuesday, the 16th inst. Charles Christy, the last of the famous Christy minstrels, died at the City Hospital in Kansas City on Saturday, aged 63 Mrs. Frederick Barsh, a middle-aged lady, was run over by a freight train at a cross-ing in Brantford on Saturday, and killed Hon, G. A. Kirkpatrick, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, is reported to be doing well in London, and expects to leave for

The Pennsylvania Steel Company has given notice of a reduction of 10 per cent. in wages to take effect March 1. Three thousand men are affected. Joseph A. Iasigi, Consul-General for Turkey at Boston, is under arrest in New York, charged with embezzlement, and is held in $10,000 bail. He is a wealthy man, A young man in the gallery of the French Chamber on Saturday by shouting "Treason, Treason!" was arrested after a fierce struggle and proved to be a student

A young woman about to be presented at court receives the fullest instructions as to her behavior. She is told how to dress; how to manage her train; how to courtesy correctly. Every incident is carefully rehearsed so that she may commit no blunder in the presence of royalty. If all this trouble is moment, how infinitely more important it is that a young girl about to enter into the sacred precincts of womanhood, should be properly instructed in all that concerns a ife-time of possible happiness, or possible daughters are healthy and strong in a womanly way. She ought to make them aware Any mother or daughter may write con-cerning these delicate ailments, with the utmost confidence to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief utmost connidence to Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Her letter will be answered free of charge with suggestions for self-treatment at home, by which these complaints may be overcome without need of mortifying examination.

Bombarament Proceeds.

The Pierce has had over thirty years' exwithout need of mortifying examinations.

Dr. Pierce has had over thirty years' experience in the treatment of women's diseases, and is an eminent specialist in this particular field of practice. His "Favorite Prescription" cures completely and permanently the most obstinate cases of feminine weakness and disease. It heals all inflamed conditions, strengthens and tones the nerve centres and the entire womanly organism.

Por prospective mothers and nursing mothers, the "Favorite Prescription" is perfect strength sustainer.

Bombardment Proceeds.

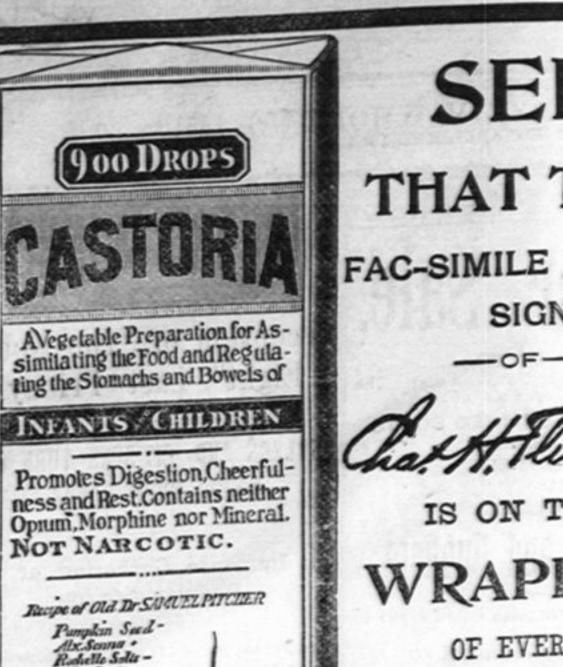

Canea, Feb. 14.—Evening—George Berovitsch Pasha, the Christian Governor of Crete, who, having been menaced by the Moslems, recently took refuge at the Greek Consul embarked this evening on different war ships. They consult the consultant of a State Single Tax Proceeds.

Canea, Feb. 14.—Evening—George Berovitsch Pasha, the Christian Governor of Crete, who, having been menaced by the Moslems, recently took refuge at the Greek Consul embarked this evening on different war ships. They consult the state of the Consultant of the Consultant of the Turking of the State Single Tax Proceeds.

Canea, Feb. 14.—Evening—George Berovitsch Pasha, the Christian Governor of Crete, who, having been menaced by the Moslems, recently took refuge at the Greek Consul embarked this evening on different war ships. They consulted by their families. The Consultant of the State Single Tax Proceeds.

Canea, Feb. 14.—Evening—George Berovitsch Pasha, the Christian Governor of Crete, who, having been menaced by the Moslems, recently took refuge at the Greek Consul embarked the convention in Seattle resulted to the Consultant of the that my hope was futile, for another patch of cowboys were coming in full callop towards me, very thoroughly heading me off in that direction. To scape them, I headed up the street away from the station, with the pack in close

Castoria

Anise Seed + Hypermint -Bi Carbonate Soda + Warm Seed -Clarified Sugar -Watergreen Flaver: Aperfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of SLEEP. Fac Simile Signature of

Charff Eleter. NEW YORK. Atb months old S Doses - 35 CENIS

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

SEE THAT THE

SIGNATURE

IS ON THE

WRAPPER

OF EVERY BOTTLE OF

Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk. Don't allow anyone to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose." See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

James Reith.

Highest Market Prices Paid for

ALSIKE, RED CLOVER and TIMOTHY SEED.

-always on hand.

JAMES KEITH. WILLIAM-ST.

The Reason Why. The bows on the backs of the women's

"And I'll tell you why," said a maiden fair, As she giggled a sweet "te he"-"We like to feel, as we walk, d'ye mind, That a big beau's following close behind. MAN AND WIFE IN DISTRESS

From Chronic Catarrh-But Instantane

ous Relief Follows the First Appli

Are as large as they well can be, cation of Dr. Agnews Catarrhal Powder-Don't Neglect the Simplest Cold in the Head it May Develop Into This Disgusting Malady Almost Rev. Dr. Bochror, of Buffale, says: wife and I were both troubled with distressing catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from this aggravating malady sirce the day we first used Dr. Agrew's Caterrhal Powder. Its action was instantaneous, giving the most grateful relief within ten miautes after frat application. We consider it a godsend to humanity, and believe that no case can be so chronic or deeply seated that it will not immediately relieve and permanently cure." For sale by A. Higinbotham. PRITCHARD WAS TOO SWIFT Wife No. 2 Belore Free From Wife No. 1. Buffalo, Feb. 14 .- Samuel Pritchard. this city, is in the freezer at headquarters on a charge of bigamy. Pritchard came to this city from Canada about 10 years en name was Ida Shaw. He lived there some trouble with her and separated from her. He began proceedings for a divorce on the statutory grounds. About this time and on Oct. 3 was married to her. At least, Mrs. Pritchard No. 2 says riage. She also alleges that before the marriage Pritchard represented to her that he had secured a divorce from his first wife, and she says he told her parents the same thing. It developed that she lately became acquainted with wife No. 1, and learned that Pritchard's divorce proceedings were still unsettled, and the proceedings against Pritchard followed.

Used by the Sons of His Buffalo, Feb. 14.-Miss Barriet Hendertold her he loved her, and she said she loved him, and they decided to erope. They did elope. They went to Hamilton, and she took her five children with her. Three The hero and the heroine and the herothat any neglect or irregularity of the spe-cial functions of womanhood may result in ago, when they came to Buffalo. Scott

SINGLE TAX COLUMN.

Remarkable Progress in Scotland and Washington State. The great city of Glasgow, Scotland, ba now a majority of twenty-three town comcillors pledged to make land values the basis of the city's taxation. For four yest this question has been agliated in Gisgow. In 1895 there was a majority of nist town councillors in favor of the land value tax. Another election took place late las year, at which the main issue was, "Shall the British parliament be asked to allow Glasgow to make land values the basis d her taxation"? The campaign was conducted on Single Tax lines. The leader were Ballie Burt, and other prominer single tax men. Thousands of campaign leaficts were circulated by the Scottist single tax idea squarely and strongly Every candidate piedged himself on our side or the other. Result :-

Land Restoration League, advocating the

For land value taxation.....

Majority And not only this, but sixty-two other assessing bodies in Scotland have also agreed to petition parliament for the taxi tion of land values. This is due to the action of the Glasgow town council and the Glasgow board of police commissioner which for months have been in comman cation with other Scottish municipalities on the subject. Hitherto there has been practically b ax on land values in the cities of Gres Britair. This of course helps to account for the great popular support given to the single tex leaders. But, now that the movement is started so strongly, it cannot step short of its legical termination that converted to the single tax 'the scool city of the empire; and from this citade we can talk to the rest of the country We feel absolutely sure of our ground, in our question has become the great public question here. The Scottish liberal pury has done well for our side, but it is not to much to say that the question of taxis land values is now acquiring a force, so an organized force, outside the domain f any party that will carry it to a speed?

Mr. E W. Way, a member of the lee's lature of the state of Washington, U.S.A.

and successful issue."

"The lower house of our legislature" made up of seventy eight members, ord sixty of whom are pledged by their part platform to pass a law granting a libers perty and improvements in and upon late, the upper house has thirty-four members twenty of whom are pledged to do the same thing. This pledge in the party p form is the result of the active work single taxers who were members of the convention. How large an exemption we shall be able to secure cannot at this time be foretold; but when you take into con sideration the fact that twenty member of the legislature, including myself, an out-and-out sinle taxers, willing and sti lovs to exempt everything from taxsiin except land values, you will agree that ! situation is at least encouraging. "Of the newly elected state officers following are active single taxers:

"And now a word about the future:
convention in Seattle resulted in the eletion of a State Single Tax Propagate Committee or fifteen members. This committee is actively at work to organize in ptate, and make the most of the favorable the single tax principle."

The address of Mr. E. W. Way is Scott's Emulsion.

Keep up hope. There are thousands of cases where recovery from Consumption has been complete. Plenty of fresh air and a well-nourished body will check the progress of the disease. Nutritious foods are well in their way, but the best food of all is Cod-liver Oil. When partly digested, as in Scott's Emulsion, it does not disturb the stomach and the body secures the whole benefit of the amount taken. I you want to read more about it let us send you a book

SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville, Ont.

Kerr , Watson & Co.

* Give The only food that will build Baby up a weak constitution gradu-Chance ally but surely is

Martin's Cardinal Food nutritive preparation for infant delicate children and invalid

Publishers' Notice.

$1.00 PER YEAR,

THE CANAD'AN POST is publish

THE CANADIAN POST Printing House,

A Convict in Kingston Penitentiary W

Says He Shot the Napanee Man Years Ago. Kingston, Feb. 12 .- The old adage to firmation yesterday, when a convict in penitentiary named Troy made a volunt confession that he in September, 1893, s and killed Angus McLeod of Napance, G ernment Detective Rogers, who had cha of the investigation into the murder, who, a few months ago, visited the p tentlary here in connection with the ca came down from Toronto yesterday took down the convict's confession, will is said to be most circumstantial. The said to be most circumstantial. was sent down from the West two ye ago to serve a 20 years' sentence for sh ing a railway conductor. Angus McL ball, and, as he advanced, the man fi and the shot took effect. The murd fied, leaving a brown fedora had behind is said that Troy was run down three

Should the confession show sufficie who is a comparatively young man, wil taken to Napanee and there tried for

of which had fatal effect. The col bullets into the conductor, i

Colt in the United States Ci Court to-day. The decision says alleged new evidence was only of Dodd's Medicine Co.

A COMBINATION .

RARE, SEARCHIN AND POTENT ESSENTIAL DISTILLATION FOR INFLAMMATION EXTERNALLY For all Pains, Aches, So

Joints, Sprains, Bruis

Scalds, Burns, Stin Bites and Chilblains INTERNALLY For Colds, Sore Thro Croup, Asthma, Co. Diarrhosa, Pleurisy, e

BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALE PRICE 25c, AND 50c, PE', BOTT THE DODDS MEDICINE TORONTO, ONT.