FARMERS' INSTITUTE. - A meeting of the East Victoria Farmers' Institute was held here Friday last, 13th inst., in Bradburn's hall. Owing to the heavy rain it was not very well attended. The principal subjects discussed were "Clover Growing and Cur-ing," by Mr. W. S France of Beauford, Oat; and "Cattle Raising," by Mr. John Campbell, jug., of Woodville, Out. Those present took a lively interest in the disquasions, and much practical information was brought out Owing to a reception being tendered Mr. Fairbaira in the evening by his political friends no evening meeting of the institute was held.
