COMMERCIAL NEWS.

OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN POST, LINDSAY, MARCH 17, 1892.

The local market has been very quiet of late there being only few odd lots of grain coming in. Hay is in good demand...

The market opened Tuesday morning with heavier offerings than for some time past. There were 28 loads of stock to be disposed of...

Cattle—Trade was active in this line, a better class of cattle being on offer, a higher price being obtained...

Milk cows and springers—The market was unchanged from Friday. The demand, both on local and on export accounts, is below average...

Stocks and bulls—There were not enough good stocks offered to create any noticeable stir in this line. There is a good demand for the current...

Sheep and lambs—Trade Tuesday was a repetition of Friday's. Sheep were dull and a shade cheaper at 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 per lb...

Hogs—The hog market was firm again today, an improvement on last week's offerings. Stores sold at 24.25 to 24.50 per cwt...

Table with columns for 'Per cwt' and 'Per lb' listing prices for various commodities like Butchers' extra, Butchers' choice, etc.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1892.

THE IMPENDING DOWNFALL OF THE TORY GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Balfour's Leadership—Parnellism not Popular in Ireland—The Princess of Wales' Burial.

The New York Times' Saturday London cable says the storm clouds which have been gathering upon the political horizon of Great Britain since the opening of the present session of parliament are beginning to split fire. Apparently we shall have the downpour very soon.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES. Pathetic accounts come from the Riviera to-night of the woful change which has been wrought since New Year's in the appearance and spirits of the Princess of Wales.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. —A Berlin cable of Sunday says:—The Grand Duke Ludwig IV. died at Darmstadt at 1.15 this morning.

Stock Notes. —Mr. John Campbell of Fairview farm offers a 15-month-old Shorthorn bull for sale at $100.

—Mr. J. Bassano of Argyle exhibited his well-known 'Lard Derwent' was hardly up to show form, otherwise he would have ranked higher in the list of awards.

—Mr. James H. Wilson of Lifford represented the Township of Meviers at the spring election held at Toronto last Thursday with the imported Clydesdale, Lord George, and was successful in winning the third prize ($25) with the four year old Lewis Gordon, (1882) (278). The Canadian bred Clydesdale in this class...

—The provincial spring election show was held in Toronto last Wednesday and Thursday and was a great success. The Midland district has certainly fared well at the hands of the judges in nearly all the classes, which speaks well for the energy and enterprise of our breeders...
