ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION. - Oa the evening of Feb. 28 a large number of the members and congregation of the Oakwood Methodist church assembled at the residence of Mr. T. H. Foster and presented Miss Foster with the following address, ascompanied by a well-filled purse : - Dear Friend and Sister,-Like woman's influence, music is calming, soothing, restraining, and at the same time elevating and purifying. Music has always occupied an important place in the services of the house of God, and the individual, gentleman or lady, who presides at the instrument holds no unimportant place in the church of the living God and adds no inconsiderable interest to the services. Music hath attractions, and often the choir has as much to do with a full church as the man who stands in the pulpit. What beauty is to the eye, what swee is is to the ear. It at once reaches the heart, absorbing every feeling and faculty of the soul.
All ideas of the material, the solid and tangible. are superceded by the ideal, thought is extended from the finitero the infinite, and the hearer's soul vibrates in unison with the supercatural but living harmony in which its life for the time being is submerged. Under such spiritualizing influences humanity is lifted beyond the material to the immaterial, and the soul is plunged in an ocean of harmony Occupying as late you on your success as an organist; in the second place, to assure you of our heartfelt holidays. He is now on a trip to Norwich.

Miss M. Rushland has returned to Toronto....Mr. Worthington, of Ux-bridge, is visiting at Mr. Hambly's.....

Second place, to assure you of our heartfelt gratitude for your past efficient services; and in the third place, to express a hope that you may long be spared to render such valuable service to the church we hold so dear. Living as you do at a distance from the church, the as you do at a distance from the church, the wonderful regularity with which you have attended practice and civine service implies a great amount of self-denial and sacrifice. The spirit you have shown among the members of the choir has elicited the warmest praise. As an evidence that we mean all we herein have stated, please accept this purse, and may the by which you may glority Him in whatever PUSHING CATTLE BUYERS.-It seems to position you may in the future be called to occupy, is our best wish for you.-Signed on behalf of the Methodist church, Oakwood.

MRS, THOMAS BOWES, SR MRS. R. G. WEBSTER. Though surprised, Miss Foster thanked the friends for their kindness and sympathy Mrs. Bowes and Mrs. George Webster collected the funds, Mrs. Bowes reading the address and Mrs. Webster presenting the purse. Miss Foster was too overcome by her emotions to make a lengthy reply, but feelingly expressed her thanks for the marks of appreciation shown her, and will not soon forget the kindness of those who had assembled to do her honor, Afterwards baskets were unladen and a bountiful repast served, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, with others, extending a hearty welcome. Music and singing soon brought BASKET SOCIAL .- Mr. Peter McCorvie's well arranged residence (12th line), a little to the north of this town, was filled to the doors on the occasion of Mrs. and Mr. McCorvie giving a basket social on the evening of March 9th, the proceeds to be applied to the general funds of the Presbyterian church. The worthy couple eing highly esteemed, and to the manor born, people flocked from this vicinity and the different lines to well up in the Glen, filling the house as above. There were too many present to permit of any program being carried out except the auctioneering of the well-filled baskets and the disposing of their contents by the buyers. There must have been over one hundred present. Mr. A. Cameron proved a worthy knight of the hammer, although Charley Knight was resulting from the auctioneer's cry of "gone." but the baskets did seem to go far off. Your own cor. was "thar," and was smong the lucky ones, securing a daisy amounted to over $26. The hostess furnished the tes, sugar and cream "galore," and the wee hours were soon on where all enjoyed themselves so highly and without a "chough endoris (gaelic) each and all wended their way, hoping to meet some other day.

PATRONS.—The patrons of this vicinity were slow in discovering that the aims of their managers were simply political scheming, but promptly headed off all trickery by disbanding after getting their wisdom teeth cut. OBIT.-Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, who reside about two miles from the village, have been called upon to mourn the loss of another child, (having lost one some time ago from the dread disease, The little one, aged four years, was only sick one week, PERSONAL.-Mr. A. O. Hogg is in the city as delegate from the Chosen Friends eoclety here to the annual meeting, and will do a double stroke of business by visiting friends at the same time.

THE MODERN WAY Commends itself to the well-formed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches cursed our village some time ago was completely routed, but with nothing else to do the lifetnation came back upon some of Syrup of Figs.
