LINDSAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 26, 1895.
THE DILEMMA OF PETER.

We could not have believed it if even the Tory Hamilton Spectator had not, in its cynical way, given its approval of the report that one truly good man had gone back on the cause in this way:

Bro. Moyer, testator, preacher and prohibitionist, endorses the candidature of Joe Seagram, maker of excellent whiskey and breeder of fast horses. And Bro. Moyer is right. The prohibition question will not come before the next parliament; but the National Policy is again on trial, and Bro. Moyer believes in the National Policy. He will vote and work for protection when it is in danger and will till there is some show of doing some thing in the prohibition line before he worries himself much about that matter. Bro. Moyer knows what's what.

No doubt the nomination of Mr. Seagram placed our worthy friend Moyer in an awkward dilemma. He is known throughout the West as Peter X, but does not imply that he is a maker of beer inferior to Catling's XXX, whatever that may mean. Mr. Moyer is a stalwart prohibitionist who has never known a "moment of weakness," and when Mr. Seagram, (the excellence of whose whiskey is vouched for by that experienced judge, the Hamilton Spectator,) entered for political stakes, Mr. Moyer had to consider whether he would surrender temperance principles to political exigencies and support Seagram, or whether he would insist on a cold water candidate. The Dominion had and its eye on Brother Moyer, and to the profound disappointment of multitudes be proved unequal to the occasion. We can forgive Foster's "moments of weakness," but Brother Moyer's open support of Seagram, argued with N. P. and hot watered with politics, impels us to insist upon the publication of a "Remedial Order" which shall fetch our esteemed contemporary back into the ranks of the cold water brigade.

When a Tory prohibitionist of the eminence of Brother Moyer abandons the cause in an election to the commons, which alone has the power to prohibit, what will Grand Worthy Brother and Chieflain Buchanan, of Hamilton, say and do about it?

THE REMEDIAL ORDER.

As we anticipated, the vacillating D. minion cabin has changed its mind and decided to have a session of parliament, which is to open on the 18th April.
An appeal to the county had evidently been decided upon, for the indications of that purpose were innumerable, but no person has been greatly surprised at the change. It would not surprise us if there is no election for a year or more, and another session in 1896 may intervene.
It was not possible for some reason to hold the election on the old voters' lists, and therefore to the hard-driven ministry there may be advantage in delay, and the longer delay the better.

The remedial order issued to Manitoba on the school question is the all-absorbing topic of the week. Since the last decision of the judicial committee of the privy council this has been expected, but the Bowell ministry has been taken, the narrow way, and have so formed their remedial order as to make the greatest encroachment upon provincial rights, while they have not appealed to the higher feelings of religious toleration and liberality. The case has not been put in its strongest and clearest light and form by Sir Herbert Tupper, and in reading his transcript of the record one cannot help imagining what a masterful argument would have been prepared by Sir John Thompson or by Sir John Macdonald. There is an evident attempt on the part of the Tory organs to cast responsibility for remedial measures upon the judicial committee; but the judicial committee have expressly stated that the form and manner of the remedial measures was a question of policy which they were not called on to discuss.

Perhaps the Bowell-Tupper order was meant in such a way as to invite opo-sition; and Mr. Greenway may not be hard enough to avoid it. Dealing with an important question as the constitutional rights of the minority of the province, it would have been higher statesmanship for the Dominion ministry to have taken better ground, and based upon the solemn decision of the highest tribunal in the empire, the case could have been placed before the government and people of Manitoba that a way for the satisfactory settlement of the difficulty of the province itself would have been opened out or made clear, and undeniable and dangerous encroachment upon provincial rights avoided.

In an article on the question the Montreal Witness says:—"The Roman Catholic clergy will probably in time get their own way, whether they get it the new law repealed or not, though of course the difficulty will be the greater in proportion to the length and bitterness of the fight. Our conviction is that in process of time the Protestants of Canada will come to see that if they were a minority with a religious difference they would not like to have the notions of the majority as to where they would religiously train their children imposed upon them by the brute force of superior numbers, and that they will concede something to the Protестant principle of religious liberty.
Nothing is settled till it is settled justly, and some such acknowledgment of the claims of minorities will be the final settlement of this question. By recognizing that the majority have a claim in justice the majority will be doing justice towards the minority; and until such a claim is recognized we fancy that there will be no peace."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In the British house of commons last week the Irish franchise bill passed its second reading. For twenty years its passage had been opposed by the conservatives, but Mr. Isaacs and the other conservative leaders last week announced that they approved the measure.

Mr. Stratton, M. P. F., has taken in hand the preparation of a bill regulating bicycles. It declares bicycles and all machines of that class to be carriages, and gives municipal councils power to impose a license fee on condition that the moneys so raised be devoted to the improvement of the roads or the building of special paths for bicycles.

There is evidently serious disaffection existing in the cabinet at Ottawa at present.
The Hon. J. C. Paterson has resigned his portfolio, and Hon. Clarke Wallace is only withholding his resignation on the plea that he is a member of the cabinet, and yesterday the Toronto World positively announced the resignation of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who is said to have taken exception to the cabinet's action in calling the government together.

COMMUNICATIONS.

That Bicycle Track.
[To the Editor of this Post.] Sir,—Spring is upon us again, consequently the question arises, "Are we going to have a bicycle track?" We should have a track for the following reasons:—It will keep the club together; add interest to wheeling in general; give the public some sport and amusement they will appreciate; not brutish in character as the style of horses racing; afford a place to ride when roads are not fit, and stop the nuisance of riding on the sidewalks; walk so disreputable to ladies and the public in general; and would also stop the road racing so dangerous to both wheelmen and pedestrians. We would have a place to go when we want to spend our own money, and would also stop the road racing so dangerous to both wheelmen and pedestrians. We would have a place to go when we want to spend our own money, and would also stop the road racing so dangerous to both wheelmen and pedestrians. We would have a place to go when we want to spend our own money, and would also stop the road racing so dangerous to both wheelmen and pedestrians.

WHEELMAN.

Another large profit. And when each member takes a share it is then to his advantage to push the tournament and make it a success, for it is money in his own pocket. The agricultural societies, we understand, will give the bicycle club the right to build the required track immediately inside the present course, making it exactly three laps to the mile. Surely the wheelmen in town will not be slow, but seize this opportunity and make arrangements to carry out this scheme as successful as possible.—Yours, WHEELMAN.

SPRING ASSIZES.

[Before Hon. Mr. Justice McMahon.]
The spring assizes opened here on Tuesday, Mr. Justice McMahon presiding.
The docket was a small one and several cases were settled before coming on for trial. D. Burke Simpson, et al., of Bowlingville, conducted the crown's case against following is a list of the cases:

HUBSON vs. BELL TELEPHONE CO.—Daring a heavy sleet storm one Saturday night last December, a wire belonging to the defendants, stretching across S. Lawrence st. near Glenora, fell on the ground. Some persons, for public convenience, for the time being, propped up the wire temporarily so a man could walk across so he remained until the next Saturday, when it again fell, resting upon the fence near the sidewalk. The plaintiff walking down street was caught in the neck by the wire, thrown backward and his right arm fractured, or injured by a severe contusion the doctors could not agree which; six of them were three for a fracture, three for no fracture, but all agreed there was a severe injury of some kind. The jury found that the wire had not been properly secured when first earned and that the defendants ought to have known in less than a week that the wire was down, and assessed the plaintiff's damages at $900. Hugh O'Leary, Q. C., for the H. P. party, for the plaintiff R. C.
Clute, Q. C., and McIntyre & Stewart, for defendants.

QUEEN vs. SHAW.—A charge brought for detention and non-support. The case was before Police Magistrate McIntyre last Friday, when he sent the defendant up for trial. After that decision the husband thought better of his position, and at the time the case came before the grand jury was again living with his wife and property supporting her, and the grand jury were advised to bring in "no bill," which they did.

QUEEN vs. WILSON.—The prisoner was accused of stealing a letter from the Kin-mont post office, and pleaded guilty. As it was a first offence and the prisoner was a well known man, the grand jury, on the recommendation of the police magistrate, let him off on suspended sentence.
D. Burke Simpson, Q. C., for the crown, for the prisoner Mr. John McSwain, for the prisoner.

QUEEN vs. DOBNER and McCAIG.—The prisoners were accused of escaping from the town lock-up last January. The evidence showed that another person had done all the breaking and that the accused had walked out when the way was made open. They had been in goal for over two months, and his lordship, after giving him a caution, sentenced McCAIG to 24 hours in goal, and after D. Dobner on another charge had been found guilty of stealing three towels from a clothes line, his sentence was held in suspense.

QUEEN vs. JACKETT.—Accused of stealing wood, which the prisoner contended was his own. The grand jury found no bill. G. H. Hopkins for the accused; D.
Burke Simpson for the crown.

SARGENT vs. SMITH.—An action of detention brought by parties from the neighborhood of Port Perry, in which the plaintiff was not called. Mr. Yarnold, of Port Perry, for the plaintiff; Mr. Champelle, M. P. F., Uxbridge, for the defendant.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Buffalo Live Stock Market.
East Buffalo, March 25, 1895.
Hogs—Receipts, 21 cars; market firm; higher prices for grades; mixed hogs, $3 to $3.05; good medium, $3.05 to $3.10; choice heavy, $3.15 to $3.20; rough, $4.10 to $4.20; good to prime, $4.25 to $4.30; lamb, market steady; good to prime, $5 to $5.10; $3.90; fair to good $4.75 to $5.00; mixed sheep, good to choice, $4.25 to $4.35; light, common to fair, $3.50 to $4; export withers, $5 to $5.40; export lambs of 115 to 125 lbs. sold at $5.25 per cent.

Trade was a little slow at the western cattle markets Tuesday, chiefly because the drovers were asking too high prices compared with what the dealers were prepared to pay. Off tags were fairly liberal, there being 23 car-loads on markets. These included nearly 700 hogs, close upon 100 lambs and sheep, 100 calves and half a dozen milch cows.
Superintendent David Walker reports total receipts at the two markets for the week ending Saturday, March 24, as follows: Cattle, 1,832; sheep and lambs, 550; hogs, 1,064; weight less, $45,677. About seven car-loads of stuff were taken to Montreal.

Butcher's Cattle—All on sale eventually sold, but the market was drab, because drovers had paid too much for their cattle in the country and did not afford to part with their offerings for the figures which the dealers were willing to pay. Poor and common cattle were hard to sell. Prices were steady.
Good butchers' cattle brought from $12 to $14 per lb.
Common to medium cat- sold from $12 to $14 per lb. according to quality. Buying for Montreal was only fair, and the local demand was not brisk.
Sales: 21 cattle, 1,100 lbs average, $2 per head; 22 cows, 1,100 lbs average, $11 each; one car-load of 410, 1,100 lbs average, $29 per head; one car-load of 410, 1,100 lbs average, $30 per lb; 22 cattle, 1,200 lbs average, $130 per cow.

Export Cattle—Not much was done in this line for the simple reason that dealers cannot get the kind of cattle which they require. One or two bulls brought from $10 to $12 per lb; good cattle sold at from 4c to 4 1/2c per lb. As high as 5c would be paid for really choice fat steers for export.
Stocks and Feeders—Nominal. One or two head sold for $10 per lb. Prices would range from $10 to $12 per lb, the latter for choice feeders.

Sheep and Lambs—Trade was quiet Tuesday. There is practically nothing to be done in sheep either for export or for butchers. They are not quotable.
Lambs are selling fairly well, at from 3c for medium up to 4 1/2c per lb for good fat lambs.
Calves—There were 100 head on market Tuesday, and all readily sold. Too many poor ones are coming in and not enough choice yearlings. Prices were steady at from $3 to $6 per head, according to quality.

Milk Cows and Springers. On account of small quantity there was very little trade done Tuesday.
The feeling is quiet, prices being nominal at from $20 to $40 per head.

Hops—Not so many came in Tuesday and the market was firmer. Prices paid for good long leaf hops were about 10c per cwt. Firm. Weighed of the cars these were bringing from $4.00 to $4.00 per cwt. Other kinds were steady and unchanged. All sold. Good hogs were wanted.

Milch cows and springers, each, $22.00 to $40.00

Stags, per cwt., 2.50 to 2.75

Receipts of grain on the street market Tuesday were larger; prices were steady.
Wheat—Firm. 150 bins of white selling at 64c to 66c.
Barley—Steady, 100 lbs selling at 49c.
Oats—Steady, 30 lbs selling at 41c.
Hay and Straw—The receipts were small, there was a fair demand and the market was steady, 30 loads of hay selling at $11 to $12 for timothy and $9 to $10 for clover, and 4 loads of straw at $7 to $8.
Dressed Hogs—The receipts were fair; there was an active demand and the market was firmer, with sales at $5.90 to $6.10.

SAID MR. GRADGRIND,
AND HERE THEY ARE:
We have moved back to the old premises, Dominion Bank Block,

Which has been refitted by Carpenters, Painters, Paper-hangers and Electricians, till now we are in the most commodious and best equipped Dry Goods premises in Lindsay.

We find that we have still lots of Bargains in all Departments. In moving, many odd ends of Dress Goods have turned up which we are going to sell at 4c, 5c, 8c, and 10c a yard. They will be placed on a table where you can inspect them. To see is to buy.
A large lot of PRINTS in REMNANTS and Slightly Soiled Goods to be cleared out at once at 5c per yard, worth double that figure.
Don't forget our READY-MADE CLOTHING; the prices are cut in two in this Department.
NECK TIES, 5c, 10c, 15c and 25c.
GLOVES, 5c and 10c and upwards. Don't buy your Kid Gloves till you see our values. You will save money here.
We have a window full of Men's and Boys' FELT HATS, going at 25c. Come early and get the best choice.
Ask to see our LINEN TOWELS at 10c each.
Look at our Window LAPPET LACE for Curtains, worth 28c, selling for 15c.
