OAK WOOD. (Correspondence of THE POST.)

A Popular Auctioners.—Mr. Peter Brown, our local auctioneer, has held several very successful sales lately, and has a number in prospect. Mr. Brown makes a very good auctioneer, as his happy manner and gestal good nature never fall to keep the crowd up to a buying pitch.

FRANKHILL,

GRAND BALL.—One of the most attrac-ve events of the season took place in the orm of a grand ball in the town hall at Ennismore on the night of the 17th, in celebration of the festival of St. Patrick, where it is said nearly two hundred coudes tripped the light fantastic till the wee mail hours of the morning. The hearty work of the manager soon began to show tself when parties began to arrive from Douro, Peterboro, Lindsay, Downeyville, and last, but not least, from Frankhill, who as usual appeared in goodly numbers. The supper prepared by the ladies, needless to say, surpassed the ordinary. We are unable to give a financial account. as affairs were carried out on on somewhat different plans from the usual. Workers.-Several young men of this community left last week for the Ottawa and Parry Sound railway, where they, employed by the company, intend to begin work on their arrival, which is to continue

OBITUARY.—Mrs. King, the aged mother of our respected townsman, Mr. Doble King, died at the residence of the latter on Friday, the 20th inst. The funeral, which took place on Monday, was largely attended, quite a number going to Little Britain, where interment took place. The sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

THEY CAME NOT.—Many of our citizens were very cross Sunday because neither the Cannington butcher or baker had made their accustomed Saturday calls. But on Monday we heard fewer complaints than usual about indigestion and sore jaws. It could not have been bad roads that kept them away. There is a good opening in this place for a combined baker and but-

K.O.T.M.—The concert given last Wednesday evening by the K.O.T.M. was a big success. The singing of the Cunnings family, of Oakwood, was grand, the music by the Sonya orchestra excellent, while the address of Mr. Trent, grand record keeper, on the "Benefits of the Order," contained many strong arguments and was well delivered. Of the local talent we need say nothing, as they are too often heard to need special comment. We hope the Maccabees will soon give us another
