THE CANADA LIFE

1847. 1897.
SEMI-CENTENNIAL

This being the 50th year of the Company's history, the policy forms have been liberalized, especially in the surrender value, so that the company enters upon its second centennial with premium rates comparable with present-day interest earnings, and with present-day contracts as definite in their terms, and liberal in their conditions. Intended assureds will consult their best interests by making application to the agents of the Canada Life.

Its economy has enabled it to tower above less prudently managed institutions; its integrity has begotten a confidence that is never betrayed; its liberality to policy holders stands beyond reproach; its position in its large profits; its stability evidenced by 50 years of honorable existence, and by present investments adequate for every contingency. Intended assureds will consult their best interests by making application to the agents of the Canada Life.

SOME RADICAL MOTIONS

Made at Monday Night's Town Council Meeting.

THE SCHOOL BOARD TO BE DISCIPLINED.

Communications and Reports—The Coming Visit of Road Commissioners—An Unused Town Property—Sundry Matters—An Adjournment for Two Weeks

The regular monthly session of the town fathers opened at the council chamber last Monday evening Mayor Smyth, Reeve Touchburn, Dep. Reeve Robson, and Councillors Graham, Sotherman, Pedlar, Horn, Mallon, Baldwin, Killaly, Bryans and Dr. Burrows, being present.

The space set apart for the general public was occupied, all the old habits being present. Interest in the doings of the council is reviving, and Monday night manifested itself in little outbursts of applause and sotto voce remarks of blame or commendation.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.
