A slimited amount of Cash to Loan on mortgage at lowest rates. Notes disgent for the Imperial Life; Assurance Company of Canada, also for the Union Assurance Society of London, England, (Fire), and the Scottish Union and National Fire Insurance Company. JOHN KENNEDY,

Adam Block, Kent-st

A. Hig nb)tham SMALL PROFITS ...

.. SATISFY US

ころうちらららららら

O'Keefe's Malt Extract, By the dozen, $2.70. King's New Discovery, (i (amali) King's Life Pills, Electric Bitters, Cuticura Soap, Baby's Own Soup, 3 cakes for 25c. Miller's Compound from File, Chase's K & L Pills, Next to Daly House.

LIST OF NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Puzzle-T. & B. Don't-Thos. Brady. Be Ready-W. H. Shaw Easter Holiday-G. T. R. Music Books-R. S. Porter.

Something New-Britton Bros. Tailoring News-Cathro & Co. Millinery Opening-R. B. Allan. Easter Neckwear-D. & F. Bros. Books for Easter-G.o A. Little. Spring Goods-J. G. Edwards & Co. High Grade Bicycles-Spratt & Killen. Notice to Creditors-J. S. Cartwright.

The Weekly Post.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, MARCH 24 '99.

LCCAL NEWS-LETTERS MT. HOREB.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. Charles Spence has gone to Dakota. Young and old wish him success. Miss Ethel Jones, of Peterlo o, is now

Mr. Jas. Skuce, of Verulam, has come Mr. Wm. Fowler, barber, is visiting

The greatest snow storm of the season is now raging and the roads are

The basket social time is over. Messrs. Robinson and Anderson fare buying horses in this vicinity. We understand they take them to Mani-

tra Eve

(Correspondence to The Post) entertainment in aid of the Methodist wehurch last Friday night, was a complete success. The good supper prepared by the ladies was relished by all, and those who look part, in the program performed splendidly. rendered a very interesting list pieces, showing their talent, which we have cause to be proud of. The funds amounted to $18.

Mrs. Robt. Ritchie is very ill, but we hope to see a speedy recovery under Dr. Curry's skilful care. Miss Shrigly, of Dorset, is at present visiting friends here.

Mrs. Sam, Hughes and Miss Gertie Harrison are visiting their s ster, Mrs. Asa Clark, of Baptiste Lake, this week. Mr. Percy Herron left for Boyd's camp at Bark Lake last Tuesday, where he intends working a while.

CAMERON. (Correspondence to The l'ost.)

Mr. Jas. Ingram and family have across the lake to Dunsford. They will be missed out of the neigh-

Mr. John Cuncal's team ran away hast Tuesday, but no harm was done. Mr. Thomas G bbs, while skidding wood out of the swamp, caught his finger in the chain and had it pulled off. Mr. Tom Downer has moved his barn, and is going to raise it and put a stone

Mr. John McNalsh is having his kitchen finished off. Mr. McNabb is doing the carpenter work. Mr. and Mrs. George Flack, of Penetang, have been visiting their friends in this place. The Orangemen of Cameron had an oyster supper last Friday night.

his wood on Monday. Note .- A reference to Mr. Eyres' accident has already appeared in these columns.-Ed. Post.

SILVE AKE-GALWAY.

(Correspondence to The Post) There was an accident at the Limestone hill on Saturday last, that nearly caused the death of a horse, and it is a wonder both horses were not killed. Three teams were drawing elm logs to Kinmount, and two of the minister, Rev. Mr. Jonhston, Metholist, teams had gone down the hill by using a chain on the funner as a drag. Mr. Cain's team, of Galway, was the last his church for a time of sorrow. one, and the driver left his team When our hearts, are full we look for standing on the top o' the hill while he went down to get the chain from was exemplified in the feeling prayer the sleigh ahead of him, He was about offered by Rev. Mr. Johnston. half way up when he saw his team | remarks of Rev. Mr. Burgess were also moving along. He shouted to them to well chosen. Truly it can be said one whoa, but it was no whor, for they of the noble and good is laid at rest, were on the grade, and the load was and she has left behind an example of pushing them down. Down they went, fall the virtues that go to make a grand and the two teams standing at the and noble woman, and one that those bottom were taken so unexpectedly who tread in the higher walks of life draw to one side. The running team tain has fallen - all we can do is to drove over to Bobcaygeon with the coat and gauntlets for Mr. Graham, and tried to sheer out to go by, but they did not get over enough, and one of the memory. horses taught its shoulder on the end | Messrs. A. McKinnon, medical stuof a log and broke a piece clean off dent, Toronto, and Alex. McKinnon, of the bone. The load was the same city, attended the funeral of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of Two rinks of the Feneral chained on, but the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the force of the b'ow their aunt, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, of the force of the on to the horse in front. The leg hung Sherwood Minthorne, a leading patbelies for some time, and the poor animal bled profusely, but at last ac-

said that nothing is broken. It, is a wonder the team was not smashe

Mr. Wm. Tims has left the farm and has moved to Fenelon Falls, where Mr. blocked. It is to be hoped that there | preach next Sabbath for him.

post office. The postage on all mail matter this week must be counted, and the result to be sent to the Postmaster-General, and some of the postmasters' salaries may be raised from 3c to 4c a cay. What a big boodle this is, and a mighty good snap.

Mess Jennie Moore is home from Dorsett and will spend a couple of weeks at home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

news letters in last week's Post. It is getting better all the time.

LITTLE BRITAIN. (Correspondence to The Post,) tain, having purchased the place he has been living in. He intends improving it.....Mrs Broad has also cone considerable improvement to her residence...Mr. Frank Maunder has moved | agrees with him. He starts back iminto his new home Mr. Wm, Mark has now given up the wearisome toil of the farm and has now moved into his new | visit last week. Rod. is always a welresidence in the main part of this vil- come visitor. lage... Mr. Simuel Hooper Low occupi s his new tome . Mr. George Irw n has also moved to his new home. A severe storm raged here Sunday and Monday, and many roads are said

20c to be blockaded. Mr. Bowes, who was to ship live stock from Mariposa on Monday, did not do so on account of the sudden storm. A number of farmers had their stock on hand, and will have the trouble of taking the same stock to the station again. Don't fail to come to the Methodist church next Sunday evening. The sermon is to men, and it promises to Mr. John Culbert has left us once more; he has gone to Towa, U.S.A., where he intends running a general blacksmith shop. A farewell party-was held for him by friends at the residence of Mr. Wm. Yeo, jr. Mr. Leslie Pogue, has also taken his departure. He has gone to Toronto, and will be away for months. jr., started with their carloads last Wednesday, March 15th, for Carman; Man. From what we learn we understand that Mr. Jas. Strong lost one of his horses at Orillia. To-day, March 21st, the family of Jas. Strong and Mrs. Thos. Broad, Gr., intend starting for Carman, Man.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. R. A. Callon, our lime dealer, commenced operations two weeks earlier this season than last year. He is now busy loading several cars for a

Mr. Wm. Sherman , of Lindsay, was here last week. We understand that Mr. W. Tims, manager for the he made several large purchases of Trent Valley Peat Fuel Co., of Peter-Owing to the great amount of sickness this winter. Dr. Fitzgerald has been kept yery busy, having had to make long trips in the country. The genial Doctor is bound to pull a patient seventy hands, and will undoubtedly through if possible. We understand a pretty wedding will soon be celebrated in one of our villages, and one of our popular citizens will be won over to the benedicts' side. The Pattie house is a well-known hostelry, and is as good a place as ever to get a good meal or a comfortable bed. The popular manager, Mr. Jackson, is always on the alert to make his guests happy and comfortable. A busy institution is the butter parcel factory run by Mr. J. R. Philips. A full staff of men is employed night and day, and the orders are numerous. One wholesale house alone has offered to take all the stock he can manfacture this season. village, and travellers will find it no trouble to get, a good horse carriage at a reasonable price. Mr. Gordon, liveryman, of Woodville, drives a spanking team of bays. big trade in drugs, druggists' sundries, ported, and stating that Mr. Ingram school books and stationery, and has would be one of the first to disclaim the never regretted that he came to our credit; also that the writer was a village. A step further down one sees spectator, and saw the game. As your an emporium that can supply people's correspondent, I have made it my busiwants in good style in dry goods, ness to interview Mr. Ingram, who groceries, hardware and boots and shoes, all cheap. Customers find Mr. particular goal; also that he never of-W. L. Shields, the proprietor, a first- fered his services, but on being coaxed rate fellow to deal with.

is the motto Messrs. Switzer & Ryck- credit due him. man follow up these days. Mr. Switzer reports that business has been brisk all winter, and hope to do a rushing surance Co., Toronto, vigited our villbusiness this spring.

BETHANY.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Obituary .- It is said by some that death love a shuning mark, and this was never more truly exemplified than in the death of Mrs. J. D. McKinnon, wife of our popular hotelkeeper. The deceased lady has been indisposed for about three months with a complication of diseases, but at last that dreaded disease, pneumonia, accompanied by heart-failure, accomplished its work, and there passed from our midst one universally esteemed by ail, and known farmers' sheep. only for her womanly virtues. The subject of this notice was born in Devionshire, England, in 1845, and was consequently in her 55th year. She em. Mr. Simpson gave the young folks union was blessed with nine children a ball after after they finished sawing of whom aimost all are now grown up,; they are Mrs. D. Shaw, of McGreg or, Man.; Mrs. T. Blunker of Lakefield S. J. McKinnon, one of our leading farmers; James, at the hotel; D. I McKinnon, of Port Hope; Neil, at home; Misses Lottie, Lillie and Pearl, at home. The funeral on the 16th was one of the largest that has been seen in our village for a long, time. Many came from Toronto and other distant points, showing the high esteem in which deceased was held. The services were conducted at the house to the Rev. M. McMullin, Presbyterian, land. At the grave Mr. Burgess read the beatufidul service is prescribed by words of conso ation, and hope. The has returned from Bethany, after a prolonged stay. She attended the fun-eral of her sister, Mrs. D. J. McKinnon:

(Correspondence to The Post.) The Rev. R. Douglas Fraser, of Toof the season-the roads are completely is in Toronto. Professor Balantine will Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilchrist cele-The postmasters have a little more brated their fortieth anniversary of than their fingers to count this week, their marriage last Friday (St. Patrick's day), and they had fresh oranges on the dinner table, grown by themselves, something that is not very common in this part of the country. A company has been organized to start a Creamery and Butter Factory The Presbytery of Lindsay met here last Tuesday. A call from Fenelou Falls addressed to Rev. D. M. Martin, of Tweed, was sustained and arrangements made for induction. A call from Charleston and Alton, from the Presby-Well done for the Weekly Post, - 27 | tery of Orangeville, addressed to Rev. G. McKay, Sunderland, will likely be accepted. Commissioners were appointed to attend the general assembly.

> (Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. Duncan Campbell, of Greenwood, B.C., formerly of this village, paid us a flying visit last week. It is two years since Duncan was here, and to judge by appearances western life Mr. Rod. McKenzie paid us a short

Bargains! Bargains! - Mr. E. Vickery wishes to inform the people of Kirkfield and vicinity that he has opened up in Smith's block a bankrupt stock of tinware, graniteware, cutlery, brushes and many other useful articles which he intends clearing off at extremely low prices. Now is your charce; come early before the rush .-

A fancy ball was held in a vacant store here fast week. We believe it was held under the auspices of some Scottish Society, from the strains of the bag pipes that could be heard now and again above the enthusiastic Gaelic shouts of the dancers. A number of the dancers were kept busy the following day replacing the panes of galas that were knocked out.

Mr. Neil Campbell the active and popular agent for the Massey-Harris Co., held a grand parade of implements here last Tuesday, the 14th inst. The fine day brought out crowds of Mr. Jas. Strong and Mr. Thos. Broad people, and the parade was magnificent, nearly forty farmers being in the procession, which was headed by the Woodville band. After marching through the principal streets of our village they halted at Campbell's corner, where photos were taken by the Fenelon Falls artist, after which excellent addresses were delivered by C. G. Cody, N. Campbell, Dr. Wood and

Mr. Henry Kearns, late of Palestine, has bought out Mr. King and will hereafter carry on the butchering business.

A number of our young men are con-templating a move to the far West this boro, is busy preparing for spring work. Three large machines are expected this week, and buildings are being erected immediately. This work is expected to give employment to about prove a boon to the north country.

FENELON FALLS. (Correspondence to The Post.) The horse Joseph, purchased a few weeks ago by the Beigium Horse Co., from Dr. Hossard, Milliprook, is a very handsome animal and comes to the Falls well recommended. His weight is about 1700 pounds, and the price was $1,309. Mr. George Lake, Cotoconk, will have him in charge this season, and will travel the route between Coboconk, Fenelon Fatls and Bobcaygeon. We understand the loilowing gentlemen comprise the company: Messrs. Tiers, Boocaygeon; Graham and Wilson, Baddow; Peter Perue, There are now two liveries in the Rosedale, George Lake, Coboconk; and George Isaac, Fenelon Falls. In your weekly issue of Friday, March 17th "An Old Hockeyist" writes a communication headed "Honor to whom honor is due," stating that Paton scored the particular goal that tied Mr. F. C. Fielding is working up at with Peterboro, and not Ingram, as reswears positively that he scored that by the Lindsay players he finally con-Blacksmithing done at shortest notice sented. Mr. Ingram deserves the Some time in February Mr. H. G. Charlesworth of The Home Life inage with Mr. Jas A. Gillogly, of Lindsay, Mr. Charlesworth by chance dropped into Mr. Jos. Nevison's harness ahop, and taking a great fancy to a cocker spaniel owned by Mr. N., he pur-About ten days age Mr. William Mc- the benefit of a few parties that pro-

Arthur shot a large bear near the mouth of Burnt River. The animal had | hall, been doing a great deal of harm to

Mr. Edwards, our popular school principal has tendered his resignation to the board, and will leave in a few weeks for Meaford, where he has accepted a similar position. Success, Mr. and was married to her now bereaved E ... Mr. Rowland, who for the past year and painstaking teacher and is worthy

The interior of the public school has been much improved by adding of new desks, which will be a great convenjence to the scholars. The Oxford Desk Co., of Waterloo, supplied the desks through their agent, Mr. James A. Gill-Mr. Jerry Twomey, the genial proprietor of the Mansion house, has made some hasty improvements recently by papering and painting several rooms. Jerry is bound to keep abreast with the times, and leaves nothing undone for the convenience and comfort of his many travellers. The concert given by Mr. Grenville Kleiser in Dickson's hall on Tuesday evening. March 1 th, under the auspices of the Independent Order Foresters was a great success. Mr. James Bray was chairman. Mr. Kleiser's impersonation of Lord Dundreary in "Our American Cousin", was most interesting. The extempore speech on Matrimony was very amusing. We are glad to hear that the receipts were in expess of the expenditure.

of Lindsay, were in the village recently.

Mr. A. Clark, merchant tailor, is do-Two rinks of the Fenelon Falls Curl-ing Club journeyed over to Bobcay-singing "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Lindsay's Leading

Clothier

Corner Kent and William Streets.

Lindsay's Wonderful Cheap Man

Uni

Festive Clothing For Early Spring Dressers.

Spring is coming! That's the key note to the present activity at Gough's where boxes and bales are being unpacked and their contents "checked off" in short order. Never before have we opened up such festive goods in Men's and Boys' Spring Clothing.

Such a splendid gathering of garments is not to be found in any any other store. Very smart, stylish and carefully finished throughout. Prices the lowest you'll find for equal quality.

Men's Spring Overeoats from $3.50 up Men's Spring Suits from $3.50 up.

Styles strictly up-to-date. Our stock is satisfying enough for the demands of old and young-no matter what rank, calling, or profession.

SUITS FOR BOYS,

$1.00, $1 25, $1.90, $2.25 up to $5.00.

We invite mothers to see our new modelled effects in Two and Three-Piece Suits for spring.

We have more Hats here to choose from than at any ordinary hat store and prices are about 15 per cent. less. If you would save the price of a tie or some collars on your hat purchase come to Gough's.

Lots of things here for men and boys, particularly Stylish Furnishings. We can win the young men by the way we sell interesting contest. The rinks were something to be remembered. At an as follows: Fenelon Falls-E. Hand, J. early hour "Auld Lang Syne," was Twomey, M. McKay, T. Graham, skip, sung, and before dispersing the com- munity. Robson, skip, 23. Bobcaygeon - J. H. surance that should they ever return Moore, Chas. Logie, W. T. C. Boyd, W. to their Ontario home they would be Read, skip, 17; M. Walsh, T. Van welcomed back again. Norman, A. E. Bottum, W. A. Davis, Mrs. Blaylock, the Misses Blaylock, graphing Massey-Harris Co's delivery of agricultural implements.

NECKWEAR and SHIRTS, COLLARS and CUFFS. Quick choosing and rapid selling here all the time.

B. J. GOUGE.

LIFFORD. (Correspondence to The Post.) Miss Mary Cairns and Miss Bertha Mulligan were visiting in Fraserville

Mr. J. W. Dundas was visiting friends in Port Hope this week. Miss Lizzie Dean has gone to visit her brother, Dr. Dean, of Detroit. Mr. W. Hollaren. of Fraserville, passed through our village going west, lately. It may mean something yet. Mr. W. Hannah has given us hi annual visit with his sawing machine. We were much amused last week as we read an account in The Citizen's Herald of the basket social held in the Temperance hall here. It is a wellknown fact that the writer of it is antagonistic to the Temperance Society because of a little incident in which chased the dog. We are informed that | the society were victors hence the the animal has since been exhibited at dramatic account. The programme the New York dog show, and won a was far superior to the previous one, prize valued at $75. Mr. Charlesworth | in fact everything in connection with must certainly know a good thing when it was far advanced over the other one. It might be well to say here for ceeds are for the repairing of ISLAY. (Correspondence to The Post.) Address and Presentation -On Friday evening, the 10th inst., the numerous friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Graham and family assembled at their residence to enjoy their company once more, to bid them good-bye, and also to give them a practical demonstration of the high esteem in which they are held by everyone in this locality. Mr. Caleb Smith was appointed master of ceremonies, and after briefly stating the object of the gathering he called on Mr. George Vanstone, who read the following address: To Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Graham-We have assembled, as a small company of your neighbors, to express our regret at your intended removal from amongst us to the province of Manitoba, and at the same time to hope that happiness and prosperity may attend you and your family in that distant and new home. Your absence will certainly create a blank in our midst that we shall feel for a long time to come Your intercourse with us from your infancy has been of the most pleasant character, and we are sure that this will be some comfort to you and to us, now that the hour of separation has come. We present you with these tokens of our regard, and only regret excess of the expenditure.

amount in value; still, you will please were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Wednesday, March 15th, at

Br. Walters dentist, and Mr. R. S. ;accept them as a slight indication of mony on Wednesday, March 15th, at that they do not represent a larger Hamilton, manager of the Bell Tele- our respect for yourselves and your phone Co., Lindsay, were in town on family.....The presents referred to in Tuesday of last week. Mr. Hamilton the above address were a handsome fur

the kindness always shown towards themselves and family. Immediately

Geo. McGee, J. Hand, B. Smyth, J. | pany gave Mr. and Mrs. Graham the as-

and Mr. Jack Blaylock, have been visit-Mr. J. H. Stanton, photographer, was ing friends in this vicinity.
in Kirkfield a day last week, photo- Miss Fraser, of Layton, is the guest of Mrs. Dave Graham.

ter than electric lights.

DUNSFORD.

(Correspondence to The Post.) Our old friend Capt. John Kennedy, has moved into the residence lately purchased from Mr. Thos. Laird, The Captain, who was always welcomed as a visitor to Dunsford, is now thrice welcomed as a resident

Mr. Thos. Robertson, the enterprising breeder of thoroughbred Polled Angus cattle, last week sold a grade calf, 24 hours old, for $8, a yearling bull for $50, and a three-year-old for $100. The two last are thoroughbreds and go to the North-west. Mrs. Thos. Ireton, of Manitoba, who has been visiting here for three months, returns to her home this week. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered on Easter Sunday Sunday ; preparatory service on the previous Friday at 7.30 o'c'ock, with an address by the minister on the events of the first Good Friday. Sunday night's and Monday's storm we have had this winter. Some farmers think that the icy covering of the fields caused by last week's rain and subsequent frost will smother and kill the fall wheat. Service in St. John's church on Good Friday, and holy communion on Easter

BOLSOVER (Correspondence to The Post.) Mr. Geo. Hopkins and son, Master Neill, left for Coldwater on Saturday last to spend some holidays among their many friends there. Mr. J. A. Cowje has returned home after spending a few holidays here with her mother, Mrs. D. McLean. Our worthy merchant, Mr. Geo. Hopkins, is beginning to make things boom around the corner. Mr. D. H. Munro, our notable car-

Mr. B. Brey. He is one of the most worthy carpenters around here. Butter season is about in, so that our cooper, Mr. R. Uncles, is busily engaged in manufacturing tubs for the Miss Ettie Hurren, of this place, and E. J. Oliver, of Ochre River, Manitoba, penter, is now repairing the house of Bobcaygeon, uncle of the bride. A number of the friends gathered together under the parental roof, where to spend a week with his parents; from there they proceed to their future home at Ochre River, Manitoba, spending a

(Correspondence to The Post.)

There is a large attendance at the | thanks I acknowledge the receipt of | the love of Christ and encouraged by open-air rink every night, as the ice your prompt payment of the policy held His smile of divine approbation. As a plendid condition. A carnival by my dear husband, Robt. Johnston, slight token of our appreciation of your was held last week which was a great | for $1,000, I wish to thank, the brother- efforts in our midst, we ask you to ac success, and ever since the boys area hood of the C.O.O.F. for their kind except this gift, not for its intrinsic value, declaring that fat pine torches are bet- pression of sympathy to me in this but as a mark of our esteem and good-

GREENBANK. (Correspondence to The Post.) Mrs. A. Leask and Master Harvey Real are able to be around again after their severe illness.

We extend our wishes to Mr. Geo. McMillan and his bride, and hope they Uxbridge on Tuesday. Before they

very handsome and costly presents, and | individual courses, but let us take conhave the best wishes of all the com- | solation in that we are being guided to the same harbor, by the same Pilot, and that although we may not take the journey of life side by side, we shall at JANETVILLE.

The following is an extract from a letter forwarded to Loyal Lily of the Valley Lodge, No. 182, Canadian Order of Oddfellows, Lindsay, by Mrs. Robt. have been striving to do what you Johnston, of this place: With my could for him, being constrained by sad hour of distress and sorrow, but I am unable to express my gratitude. I can only turn to Him alone and pray that He alone can give upon your order, and that you so richly deserve, I wish the C.O.O.F. the highest success in the noble work in which they are Snow again adores our burgh and the surrounding country. (A smaller quantity would serve the purpose just

Addresses and Presentation .- Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bewell moved to left a large number of friends gathered together on Monday evening and presented Mr. Bewell with a well filled purse and the following addresses :-Mr. E. Bewell, Greenbank, Ont., Dear friend,-As we are met together fulness of human life. We are as ships and a lunch the company dispersed on the great sea, which meet for brief wishing their departing friend a long space and then are driven along their and happy life.

last meet in that Haven of Rest and together share the blessedness of our Master's presence. Our meetings together have been helpful and God will have blessed your own soul while you will. And now as you are about to go among strangers and be separated for the time being from those with whom you have so long been associated, ever remember that you take with you that Friend "that sticketh closer than a brother," and that he will be ever ready to guide and comfort you. If there come times when the way seems dark and the powers of Satan seem struggling to cast you down, brighten up the shield of Faith and remember God's comforing words, "Be strong and of good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, He it is that doth go with thee." May your life be bright and happy and may you continue zealous in good work until we shall all be gathered around the Great White Throne in the Celesmay long be spared to happy and use- | tial City and hear the Judge say, "Well done, thou good and faith servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of the Lord." Signed in behalf of Greenbank Presbyterian congregation.-Geo. Miller, A. Leask, Wm. Leask Mr Bewell replied briefly and thanked his many friends for their kindness in the past and their good wishes for the to bid you farewell, we are reminded future. A number of others then again of the uncertainty and change- spoke, and after enjoying games, etc.,

W. E Go: awin.

The Racycle

CONFESSORS CO. The Crank

is the only mechanically cornect Bieye e on the market. A broad statement, but true. It has been demonstrated that there is over 20 per cent, less pressure on the Racycle crank bearings than there is on the bearings of any other bicacle on the market to day ; corsequently, the Ricicle must run with greater ense

The '99 Racycle is made in 8 models listed from $35 00 up.

We ask you to call and see the Racycle at GOODWIN'S, next Simpson House, Lindsay.

W. E. GOODWIN

Our '99 Mechanical Art Catalogue gives some pla'n facts about Ficycles. GET ONE.