fathers was held in the council chamber Monday evening, at which all the members were present, the main object being to consider matters connected with the waterworks contract.

COMMUNICATIONS. A telegram was read from R. Freeman, on behalf of Moffatt, Hodgins & Clarke, waterworks contractors, asking the council to defer any proposed action for one week. -Laid on table. From Mr. Jos. Hennessey, calling attento the defective condition of the sidewalk on Glenelg-st. between Lindsay and William-sts., and asking that a new walk be laid .- Referred to the street and bridge committee.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE. Mayor Ray said he desired to refer briefly to several matters. The first was a very pleasant duty, as it had reference to the recent winning of the Oxford scholarship of $750 in Toronto university by Mr. Fred J. Smale, a graduate from Lindsay collegiate institute. The scholarship entitled him to attend any university in Europe for a term of three or four years, and he has decided to continue his studies in Heidelburg university, Germany. Dep.-reeve CRANDELL, that the special committee prepare an estimate for a murdered a few days ago, wos the grandson system of waterworks, and that a by-law be submitted so as to permit the ratepayers to vote upon the same at an early date ..... Coun. Connolly said he knew there was a general opinion among the ratepayers that the town should own and operate the system. Mr. WINTERS thought the committee should defer all action until after next meeting on May 1st. The contract now before them was a good one, and the company's hesitation in closing the bargain proved this. As for the proposed hard water system, he felt confident what the citizens wanted was soft water. Few towns in the country possessed better wells than Lindsay, and one hundred gallons of soft water would be used to one

Dep.-reeve CRANDELL, in a speech of some length, brought up all his old arguments, and several new ones, in defence of his view that the town should not part with the franchise. It would be a very serious mistake.

Reeve Kylie, seconded by Coun. Touchburn, moved in amendment to Coun. Connolly's motion "that no action be taken to-night respecting waterworks, but that the whole question be referred to the special committee, to report upon at next meeting." Upon a vote being taken the amendment carried.
