age. He emigrated to North Dakota in June 1885, and located where he passed away. On June 20th, 1889, he was united in marriage to Miss Minnle Budd who with one child now mourns his loss. He was converted to God in a special service held by Rev. W. C. Kiingle in June, 1890, and was duly received as a member of the M. E church. His illness was short, an abscess in the bowels soon doing its fatal work. On Wednesday, 29:h, we spent some time at his bedside, and talked together of God's discipline fatal result. On the morning of Thursday he settled his worldly affairs and passed peacefully away at 7 p.m. He desired to live for the sake of wife and baby, and yet bowed submissake of wife and wife sively to the decree of Providence. Saturday afternoon a large concourse of friends and neighbors followed his remains to Glasston, where we buried him awaiting the resurrection of the just. The Presbyterian charch was kind-ly loaned for the occasion, and the M. E. pastor preached from Hebrews, ix . 27, to a large and attentive congregation. Many seemed to be deeply moved, and we hope resolved to lead a Christian life. This is the first death in a family of ten sons and three daughters, and is very keenly felt by all concerned. W. R.
