

TWO WEEKS OF OUR FIRE SALE GIVES RESULTS.

They Show the Buying Power of the People in an Emergency.

When Circumstances make the Opportunity, the goods Must Meet the Case.

We know it. No use for us to fix up our loss, hold our damaged stock, let you and your friends come in and pass the goods off on you as the Cream of the Stock. Friends, that's not Goughs' way. We do the thing honestly and above board. We've had a loss. We've damaged goods on hand. We will sell these at a sacrifice. You buy them for what they are. You get the difference in reduction of price. Isn't this a straight transaction. What is the damage to those goods? Water, friends, Water! Not seriously hurt. No worse than an hour's outing in the rain on a customer's back would give them. Still, they are damaged—that fixes it. Down goes the price. We wouldn't hold prices up if there was a Thousand Dollars in it for us. You know our stock, its quantity. You know what there is to get. You know the run of sizes, the Variety, and all that. Now, just size up your chance. Think of the selections you may make; of the bargains you can get; of the plums for the picking. Come in and look. The cheapest things may not suit you. There's others that will. No fear of that. We have too much at stake to hesitate in our selling. We have Men's Boys' and Youths' Suits, Men's, Youths' and Boys' Odd Pants and Vests, Men's, Youth's and Boys' Overcoats, Men's and Boys' Furnishings, Children's Boys', Youths' and Men's Hats and Caps.

Two weeks ago, when we began this sale, our stock amounted to $22,000 in value. The two weeks have pulled it down, but still, during that time parts of the worst of the damaged goods have been sold. We are determined to clear out the whole stock. Buyers for the next Fourteen Days will have a cleaner and better lot of goods to choose from, and the prices of them will be so low as to force an immediate sale. Remember, we mean BUSINESS. Every vestige of this stock must be sold. What is left over in Thirty Days from now will be sold under the hammer. People of Mariposa, Ops, Emily, Verulam, Fenelon, Manvers, Hravey and from Haliburton, come and buy.

GOUGH BROTHERS, PETERBOROUGH. LINDSAY.

New Advertisements This Week. Good Results—Gough Bros. Tobacco—Lindsay Waterworks Co. Local—Lindsay Waterworks Co. Moved by Mr. F. C. Taylor, and seconded by Mr. D. L. Mack, that we tender our choir, and particularly Mrs. Howson, a very efficient organist and choir leader, a very efficient man in which they have managed the service during your absence, Mr. Mack, in the absence of the organist, and that the seconding of the resolution, said that he considered the choir equal to any city choir.

The Canadian Post. LINDSAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1895. TOWN JOTTINGS.

It Will Pay You to visit the new store in Oakwood—you can get better prices for produce there than any place else. Since the new store was opened up there has been a great revival in business. Why, it would surprise you to go into the tailoring department and see the fine work and the number of suits turned out every week. You can buy a suit of clothes from S. J. Sheridan & Co. for a little over half what you can elsewhere, and you can rely on a first-class fit. We guarantee every garment. S. J. SHERIDAN & Co., Oakwood.—55.

A Deserved Tribute. At the congregational meeting of the Cambridge-st. Methodist church the following complimentary resolution was tendered: Moved by Mr. F. C. Taylor, and seconded by Mr. D. L. Mack, that we tender our choir, and particularly Mrs. Howson, a very efficient organist and choir leader, a very efficient man in which they have managed the service during your absence, Mr. Mack, in the absence of the organist, and that the seconding of the resolution, said that he considered the choir equal to any city choir.

Stambant and Mill Engineers got your oils and other supplies from JAS. SMITH & CO., Lindsay. Send in your orders; goods for c-class; prices right. See Advt. JAS. SMITH & CO.—52.

To Correspondents. We urge our correspondents throughout the county to send in their budgets of news early in the week, and in case of an accident, or any event of special interest, we will esteem it a favor if they will send us the account as soon as possible after it occurs. We are compelled to leave our office until next week several interesting items of correspondence which arrived to late for this week's issue of the Post.

Kirkfield's Grand Concert. A grand concert will be given at Kirkfield on Easter Monday night, April 15th, not at Victoria Road, as previously announced. A splendid program is arranged for this occasion and distinguished vocalists have been engaged from Lindsay, Peterboro, Cambridge and other places. The entertainment will be under the auspices of the P. C. church at Victoria Road, and may be looked forward to as a success. Amongst the celebrities assisting are mentioned the name of Miss Lillie Jackson of Peterborough, whose fame as a vocalist is more than local.

Christians Endeavor Notes. An audience of about 300 men and boys assembled at the Academy of Music on Sunday at 4 p.m. in response to Rev. Robt. Johnston's invitation. After the singing of several hymns and some appropriate music by the choir, the Rev. Johnston, the speaker announced that he had no special reason for concluding the service other than the desire to reach many whom he seldom reach. An opportunity of addressing the text from the reply of Peter to Jesus his text from the reply of Peter to Jesus was given by Rev. Johnston then made a most forcible appeal to the audience to become reconciled to God. He did not fail to make a strong appeal to the audience to love and serve of Christ, but to love and serve of Christ, the behaviour of mankind.

Paris Y. M. C. A. A very promising future is before the Paris (Ont.) Y. M. C. A., which was organized last week under exceptionally pleasing circumstances. Lindsay people will be interested in this on account of the fact that Mr. W. Mallagh, who is so well known here, has been offered and has accepted the position of secretary of the new association. Paris is a brick town of about 5,000, and so many prominent men are taking active interest in the work that it is sure to be a success. Mr. Mallagh has been taking active interest in the work for two or three years. He has gained much experience that will be helpful to him in his new work. His many friends in Lindsay will wish him every success and blessing in his new sphere of labor.
