East of Toronto.

HOLE NO. 1858.

LINDSAY, ONT. FRIDAY APRIL 19, 1895.

TERMS: $1.00 PER YEAR

=1895=

Dundas & Flavelle Bros.

The Banner Year in our Carpet Dept.

This wide-awake department is more attractive than ever. Every inducement that artistic goods, direct buying and choice from thousands of yards, can secure, is there, and better than all, prices are a notch lower than ever. This season

SHOWS a fine range of Brussels at 90c. and $1.00 per yd. SHOWS the best quality Three-Ply Kidderminster at 85c. SHOWS the best Tapestries at 95c. to 75c.

HOW very heavy Two-Ply Union, 40c. to 50c. OWS a surprising quality of Union and Tapestry at 30c.

Handsome Draping Curtains, Rich Rugs, Carpet Squares, Linoleum Oilcloth—and everything usually found in a first-class Furnishing Department is there.

SEE IT UNDER DISPLAY AT PRESENT.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

W. G. Woods.

You will be visited by stove pedlars within the next month enticing you to buy "Steel Ranges" on long terms. Question-Are you foolish enough to pay $69 for a stove without furniture when I can supply you with a beautiful Oxford Steel Range and 23 pieces of furniture for $49? We ought to live by one another. Pedlars as a rule pay no taxes, and are here to-day and in Egypt to-morrow. W. G. Woods pays taxes and sells Steel Ranges. All I ask is that you call and inspect our stock before buying.

W. G. WOODS,

Hogg Bros.

DRESS GOODS in Black and Colored Henriettas, Black and Figured Goods, Serges and Delaines, making a choice assortment of Fine Dress Goods. Special attention is drawn to our new English Dress Prints. Choice selection of patterns, fast colors, extra quality, also a special line of heavy Canadian Prints at Sc., worth 10c. New Embroideries, New Spot, Check and Stripe Muslins. See our wide satin stripe Muslins at 10c. New Laces, Ladies' Fronts, Waists and Bows, Fancy Flannelettes, Lawns, Ribbons, Etc.

TAILORING a Specialty; stock being replenished with newest styles in fancy Worsted Suitings, Trouserings and Fancy Vestings; never had a better assortment of materials. Try our Tweed Suit to order for $9.00. Flannelettes at 5c., large assortment, and extra wide heavy Flannelettes, plain colors and patterns at 10c. We are showing a splendid line of new Wall Papers with borders to match, new designs and handsome patterns. See samples and prices. Special purchase of Baking Powder, quality warranted. 1 lb. tins at 15c.; try a tin. SALT .- Rock Salt, highly recommended for salting stock. Fine Salt in barrels, extra quality. Land Salt in 200 lb. sacks.

TOR-

DON

n want

a. Small do well JAMES rery beas that of e & Sen.
be carafinetwood

SUGARS have been selling freely in barrel lots. Another carload of bright yellows and granulated just purchased, making the third carload received this spring. Pure Seeds of all kinds, best quality for farm or garden, and a choice selection of new Flower Seeds. Our stock is always well assorted in every line with Newest Goods, bought in large lots, for cash. Many lines handled in car lots direct from producers, enabling us to secure lowest prices. This means we have large assortments of goods to choose from at prices not found in every store.

We are Buyers of Produce of all kinds the year round at full market prices, cash or trade.

HOGG BROS.,

General Merchants, Dealers in all kinds Grain, Seed, Produce. Oakwood.

Fairweather & Co.

OF INTEREST TO

Every purchaser of Hats and Caps in Lindsay appreciates Good Value-We endeavor to buy right and buy such goods as are value for the money. We are Hatters, successful in our business. We sell cheap and sell quantity and quality. Clothiers have their capital in their clothing business. Good thinking people patronize them. There are other clothing people who devote half a column of newspaper advertising to Hats and Caps and would lead you to believe they were "the great and only." When we can't compete with the Clothing and Dry Goods trade in Hats and Caps and Furs we will go SETTLERS' cut of the business. We are the sole agents for J. B. Stetson's celebrated Soft Hats, Christy's SPECIALS English Stiffs, the oldest Hat factory in England, which dates back to 1756. Intending purchasers should see our grand display of Fine Hats and Caps and be convinced.

WEATHER & GO

No. 96 Kent-St., Lindsay.

Johnston & Sisson.

LADIES' FINE SHOES.

mail any Fine Shoe from $1.00 up on receipt o. money. Shoes range from 5oc. to $2.50. Every good-will and love for him. The members line a bargain.

$1.25 is booming. Do you want announce that the committee appointed at the congregational meeting in January to the congregational meeting in January to decide upon a suitable testimonial to be st. Andrew's church, Lindsay, in "Come With the Great Majority."

SOMETHING

Low priced Silver Watches for gentlemen. We have secured a are offering extra value.

thrashy goods are only too numerous, but here is a chance to get a good reliable and durable watch at an EXCEEDINGLY LOW

We guarantee them fully. Price, $6.50.

securely packed by registered mail for twenty-five cents extra-

We Want Your Watch Repairing. When you want your Watch repaired If you want it done RIGHT.

LINDSAY.

buildings; a living stream running through the farm, Apply to J. A JACKSON, Lorneville, -882.

CANADIAN D

WILL LEAVE TORONTO at 9.00 p. m.

See your nearest railway agent.

PRESBYTERIANS SAD

Rev. Robert Johnston, B. D., Leaves

ST. ANDREW'S PASTOR GOES TO LONDON, ONT.

An Affecting Leave-taking on Wednesday Evening.

the Departing Paster and His Wife-were many of those who helped to swell the large congregation present at the weekly prayer-meeting in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday evening last. The members and adherents of that church knew they were about to hear for the last time the voice of the beloved paster who had ministered to them so acceptably during the past six years, and though they hand induced a feeling of gloom that few other denominations attended the service, gratifying proof (if any were needed) of Rev. Mr. Johnston's widespread popularity among all classess of the community. The lines of the usual Wednesday night growing in some quarters that there should accomplished great things. evolution that is taking place in society, in science, and elsewhere. Under the influence of his subject Mr. Johnston became has arrived when you are about to leave us, elcquent and impressive, and the congregation listened with deepest interest as he pointed out that while all else obeys the immutable law of change the human heart is the same to-day as it was eighteen hundred and sixty years ago, when our Redeemer walked the earth, and stands in need of the same counsel, instruction, and consolation. Further on, Mr. Johnston spoke of the infinite mercy, as well as the infinite justice of God, and made a of the contrite heart.

We are showing a larger variety than ever of Fine Shoes at unusually low prices.

At the close of the prayer-meeting Mr.

J. D. McIntyre was called to the chair, who remarked that he was pleased to preside over one of the largest gatheries. preside over one of the largest gatherings he had ever seen in the church. They all knew why they were there—to bid goodbye to their beloved pastor, Rev. Robert Johnston and his estimable wife, and presented that he was pleased to come forward and was presented with a hand-some bible by Rev. Mr. Johnston on behalf of a number of the members of the congregation.

PRESENTATION TO MR. J. R. M'NEILLIE, participate in a final expression of their Granger that we are selling for ance of pleasant ties. He had also to handsome bronze mantle clock of ornament of his nineteen years' services as themselves of their pleasant task; also the time had been deemed a most suitable one special bargain in this line and shown in sorrow and distress. Who of us has not church's work your removal will be most felt. Your Sent to any part of Canada Your work in connection with the Sabbath school will be greatly missed; your addresses to the school good seed there sown will spring up irto fruit for

Mrs. Johnston, She has shown great and active members, especially to further the true family feeling that all the work which she has done has tended materially to strengthen your hands in the work of common throne of grace, that your work in your new field of labor may be abundantly blessed —Signed behalf the congregation. JOHN McLENNAN,

TUESDAY

The address was beautifully engrossed upon heavy vellum paper, and suitably mounted.

things possible of achievement. The work hearts of believers, and therefore His meeting of the Grand Tent of that had been accomplished, however, cause prospered. The speaker was thus held last week at Sarnia, Ont. could not have been done but for the enabled to lift the burden of praise which Notes.—Spring is coming e raest, ready oc-operation of the members had been so generously placed on him-of the various church bodies, and he self, and give it all over to God. wondered at times if he would ever again meet with such earnest, zealous workers. In closing he again expressed his heart-felt gratitude for the kindly sentiments

With regard to the paragraph in the address referring to the work of the different church societies, Mr. Johnston said he thought it was the duty of the his ready assistance to their aims and objects. He (Mr. Johnstor) had particularly loved his work in the Sabbath school, and had been thoroughly interested in it-there was no part of the church looked for great results from their instruction. He felt particularly grateful Mrs. Johnston-they had taken her to Listen to Rev. Robt. Johnston's Fare- their hearts three years ago as they had well Exhortations-Presentations to previously taken him, and he could assure them she would leave town with heartfelt regret. In conclusion he asked his people Mr. J. R. McNeillie and Miss Watson not to demand of their new paster that he should proceed along the same lines as Sorrowfal indeed, and heavy-hearted, tically and give him earnest and hearty > Misses Agnes Dickson and Annie Watson on behalf of Mrs. Johnston's Mission Band, then stepped forward and read the follow-

Dear Mrs. Johnston :- We, the members of the lyy Mission Band of St Andrew's church, Lindsay, lives through the years that are to come, and we Many prominent citizens and members of are sure we will not forget your labor of love on our and their numbers afforded a striking and as a small expression of our love and regard It will taken such a deep and loving interest. Signed on

Ray, Mr. Johnston riplied briefly for ice were adhered to, prayer and the Mrs. Johnston. The growth and success of several hymns by the people of the Mission Band had been phenomenal, on upon the lesson for the evening bers had been animated with true mud. by the paster, who alluded to the feeling | missionary zeal, and by this means had

Miss Florence Feir next came forward be a change in the method of presenting and read the following address on behalf the divine word, to accord with the rapid of Mrs. Johnston's bible clase, the presenburning appeal to sinners to accept the these two great truths-that our duty to our Creator is our duty to those among whom he has placed us, forgiveness never yet refused to the prayer and that wherever humanity has gone in its estrangement and its wandering from God it cannot go be-step forward, when Rev. Mr. Johnston class desired to testify their love for her | read the following address and at the offered Mr. J. R. McNeillie in acknowledgesecretary-treasurer of the congregation, had decided to avail themselves of the years continuously you have held these offices would favorable opportunity now offered to acquit be a sufficient testimony to the earnestness, zeal and gation as organist for some time under very trying circumstances. Mr. McIntyre then called upon Sheriff McLennar, who came forward and read the following address:

In all the efforts put forth to collect funds for the address and read the following address:

In all the efforts put forth to collect funds for the erection of our present church building, and for the reduction of the debt thereon you have been secretary treasurer of the united congregation, and for the past nineteen years you have given your talents and your time generously to the work of building up our church.

In all the efforts put forth to collect funds for the erection of our present church building, and for the music. standing of the congregation to-day is very greatly felt that you have shared alike in our joys and in our gation into districts for the work of the session, the returned home on Monday evening. They sorrows, and that in all our interests you have had allocating of sittings to new members and as finan-The opportunities for getting that we recognize that you have taken part for the that we recognize that you have taken part for the for the last time, as our pastor, in a public service, and that we will no longer be able to address you as and that we will no longer be able to address you as another than the different societies of the congregation. All this vast amount of work you have so cheerfully undertaken that no one could come into contact with you as secretary-treasurer without feeland to whose service you devoted yourself unsparing-

Rev. Mr. Johnston supplemented the words of the address by saying that Mr. have received great help from the interest and labor McNeillie's services to the church during which you have put forth on their behalf. These his ministry had been simply invaluable, and he hoped the young men of the church would try and emulate him in two things in particular-the extreme importance with punctuality with which he performed nis various duties. He really had not words in which to express his sense of

Mr. McNeillie, who was obviously very deeply moved by the words of the address, And now our ways are to diverge; six years ago an all-wise Father in His goodness sent you to us; during these years we have received the unspeakable gift of ated it in the depths of his neart ated it in the depths of his neart held office in the congregation. When he | held at Oakwood on Thursday last, before was appointed in 1876 there were 55 con- his honor Judge Deap. The teacher receivtributors to the funds, now there were ed remuneration for thirteen days' work, for of the original number there were now | allowed him. the prayers of the whole congregation - long shall the prayers of St. Andrew's church, Lindsay, be joined with those of St. Andrew's church, London, at our with those of St. Andrew's church, London, at our sions was then $60, now they amount to $3 500; the total contributions for mis- Port Parry H. S.; Mr. E. Broad, of Lindsions was then $60, now they amount to say C. I.; Mr. J. Watts, of Port Perry H. teacher, spent her holidays at home in $1,200. The membership was then 200, S., and Miss Jessie Ferguson, of Harbard-Cameron.....Rev. J. H. Mallet, pastor of decreasing in eight succeeding years to st., Toronto, are home for Easter holidays. the Methodist church here, left Monday 160, now it is 520. There had passed through his hands as treasurer, given directly by the people: For the ordinary Johnston's sister), at Goodwood, and Obstuary.—It is our sad duty to write

of the address, and for the beautiful token

Rev. Mr. Shorev, pastor of the Cambridge st. Methodist church, said he regretted very much that Rev. Mr. John. ston was about to leave town. In his eye and a tear in the other. The Presbyterians of Lindsay have shown a good deal of the spirit of broad churchism in pulpit, and Rev. Mr. Johnston was no doubt responsible for the growth of much of that good feeling. There were a good many of his own congregation here present and he hoped they would make a mental Methodist church, also gave expression to his regret at Mr. Johnston's impending departure, and said that the prayers of all the people would follow him to his new

. A. Robinson, Y. M. C. A. secretary followed with short, crisp addresses along the same line, after which Rev. Mr. John ston spent a quarter of an hour shaking hands with those who crowded firward to are very sorry indeed to hear of your removal to wish himself and Mrs. Johnston every London, as we thus lose our kind president. You success in their work in another portion of

LORNEVILLE.

[Correspondence of THE POST.] PERSONAL -Mr. Daniel Walker returned he had been sent by the Lorneville Tent of the Maccabees as delegate to attend the Maccabee convention held at that place. RECOVERING .- We are pleased to learn hat Mr. John Cameron's young daughter, Maggie, is recovering from her severe ill-

Notes,-Sleighs are now substituted by buggies and wagons At present the roads are provided with an abundance of

CARDEN.

year. The weather keeps cold and cloudy and the ground is slow in thawing out, at home. We believe they have enjoyed consequently the farmers have not yet be- | themselves thoroughly-especially John gun to yell 'haw' and 'gee' to the horses | We fondly hope that when he again re. SPRING FLOOD. - Our semi-annual flood has taken place, which makes some of the concession and quarter roads very disagreeable to those on foot. Notwithstanding the bad condition of the roads quite a number of our young people attended Rav. Father Sweney's concert, held in Kirkfield

BACK AGAIN.-The friends of Mr. David Wylie were pleasantly surprised by his unexpected return, a few days sgo, from heaven" And now I have much pleasure in present | the United States, where he has been for HYMENEAL .- An unusually happy event occurred here last week, on the 7th con., home of the bride's father, Mr. Alexander | chair. He probably thought he heard the McEachern, of Argyle, and Miss Mary Mc- strains of his native bagpipe Callum, eldest daughter of Mr. Duncan McCallum, were united in marriage by the | the roads the C. E. meetings have not Rev. D. D. McDonald, of Eldon, Miss been so well attended, but we trust the Aggie Jackson, acting as bridesmaid, per- attendance will increase with good roads ormed her part well, while Mr. Farquhar | and a new staff of officers. securely fastened the bridal party, together | club. We hope they will succeed take of a sumptuous repast. The esteem | heard of any taffy pulls so far. in which the young ccuple are held in the POLITICS. -The lateness of the spring community was clearly manifested by the gives our political friends a chance to dis-number of valuable presents received by cuss the Manitoba school question and the bride. Their many friends wish them other burning questions of the day.

KIRKFIELD.

CONCERT.-The annual Roman Catholic

MEETING OF ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION .-The annual meeting of the Kirkfield Athletic Association will be held in Mc-Kenzie's hall on Monday evening next at 8 p. m. We hope to see a good furnout of PERSONAL. - Mr. Joseph V. Staples spent Easter visiting friends in Toronto. abun wise. Mr. and Mrs. McNorgan and family had been visiting friends in Essex county.

PORT PERRY.

OFFICERS OF S. OF T .- The following cause of our common Lord and Master in this part of His vineyard was the motive spring of all your actions.

In now allowing you to retire, we do so feeling sure that we shall more and more appreciate in the coming years the work you have done for the congregation. We desire you to accept this clock as a slight Hollows A. Con Miss G. Pletten: I.G. Holloran: A Con., Miss G. Platten; I.G., A. Powers; O.G , E Rundle. ing rather dangerous, but notwithstand- village to be quiet of late, but as the roads ing this the fishermen are not afraid to are drying up fast there will doubtless be venture..... A large number of geese were a boom before long. is rather quiet at present owing to the bad condition of the roads. PERSONAL - Messrs. J. Dillon and H. Jamieson have returned from Toronto....

> We understand that the persons who were are selling considerable syrup there and drank have also been fined.

and costs (second offence) for selling liquor departure for parts unknown last week.

more than the trustees had previously PERSONAL .- Mr. D. McMillan, of Tor

'Notes.-Spring is coming slowly, but this week, The roads are improving

GRANTS-MARIPOSA. REPORT of Grant's school, s. s. No. 5, lariposa, for the month of March, 1895. IV.—Katie Forest, Hattie McCrimmon, Howard Wellington, Minnie Forrest. Jr., IV.—Crissy McCrimmon, Mary Ross, Her-bert Stone. Sr. III—Maud Hawkins, Jr. III.-Thec. Stone, Johnnie Jr. II.-Mabel McArthur, Fanny McInnis. Pt. L.-Normie McCrimmon WOODVILLE. PERSONAL.—Miss Annie Smith and Miss Carrie Barnes, of the Lindsay Collegiate Institute, are spending the Easter vaca-tion at home.....Mr. F. Gunn and Mr. D.

A. Gunn spent Easter with their parents.

Mr. J. J. McKay, who is attending school at Toronto, is holidaying here. Mr. and Mrs. Rea, of Port Perry, are at present visiting at Mr. Gerrow's. CHURCH NOTE. - The pulpit of the Preslast by Rev. J. W. Bell, of Newmarket. RECOVERING .- We are pleased to state that E. C. Edwards and Arch. Ferguson,

CORSON'S SIDING

[Correspondence of THE POST.] lively in this part of the township. We understand that a new vein of rock has been struck which yields a superior grade of lime. We would advise builders to give it a trial. The kilns are under the manage-ment of Mr. Geo. Wilson, of Washington

LOOKING AREAD.-Mr. Henry Paarce has lately purchased a light-footed cream pony. No doubt the favorite will get many a swift but pleasant drive on the bright moonlight evenings of the coming MILL.-Mr. Hugh Wilson's new mill has lately been started. Having a large number of logs the boys will be kept hustling to clean the yard this summer. About ten men are employed, of whom Mr. Wm. Irwin is head sawyer and Mr.

PERSONAL -- Messrs, John and Robt McNish are spending their Easter holidays

L. V. T. L. Nores .- The temperance day as usual on account of the wet weather. The meeting on Friday next should be well attended. Easter Visitors .- Mr. John McFadi yen, of Dunsford, is visiting at the parental home Miss Lena Elford, teacher at Rosedale, is also at home for her Easter holidays Mr. Charles Gil-christ, of Lindsay Collegiate, is visiting Accident,-One of our worthy sons of C. E. Notes.—Owing to the had state of McEachern supported the groom in a sim- Baseball. Our boys here are now enilar capacity. After the nuptial tie was | deavoring to form a baseball or football with their many friends, sat down to par- | SAP.-Sap is running, but we have not

Baseball.-Our baseball players here been done. During that period the church has grown evening. The concert was a success, the commence practice at once. The officers time had been deemed a most suitable one by a number of the leading members of the congregation to present Miss Watson where an active supporter was a success, the congregation to present Miss Watson where J. Nesbitt and J. Moran. They will be shortly open for matches with clubs in PERSONAL.-Mr. John Murchison left this week to attend the Grand Camp of the S. O. S. We hope he will have a pleasant trip.....Dr. A. Galloway is at present kept very busy with calls. An unusual amount of sickness prevails at present. CONGRATULATIONS,-We must com mend the enterprise of THE Post in starting a daily edition. It has not yet appeared in our village, but we hope it will have abundant success financially and other-

Society Notes .- There is considerable talk of moving the Court of Foresters established in Hartley up to our village, as it will increase the membership. Our vilage is gaining prominence in society HOTEL NOTES .- It is rumored that Mr. John Campbell, of this place, is about to rent the hotel which he had recently advertised for sale.

Building .- Mr. R. A. Adair & Son, cona new store for C. Woodcock, whose store Mr. J. D. Brace, of Detroit medical college, his new stand We believe that Mr. is here for holidays..... Messrs. H. Bran- Jas. Bryant intends building a saw mill on don and T. Robinson suddenly took their the bay below Norland this spring, which would be a great boon to the people of this

A WARNING .- Mr. Brooks was fined $40 | vicinity. SUGAR MAKING. - Despite the bad season after hours on a recent Saturday night. for sugar making some of our neighbors Losses.-Mr. G. M. Perkins lost a valuable cow last week Mr. Thos. Bell also lost a fine Berkshire which, went through the ice at the bridge PERSONAL. - Mrs. Pasmore and daughter, Mary's and other points west Adair, of the Trent Valley canal survey Miss T. M. Campbell, our popular school

The address was beautifully engrossed upon heavy veilum paper, and suitably mounted.

MR. JOHNSTON'S REPLY.

MR. J