of the Canadian Cricket Association was her. held list night at the Walker House, Major Cosby, president, in the chair. Secretary Hall presented his annual report, and said there was a marked improvement in the game during the year. The treasurer's report was satisfactory. Under the heading of general business, Mr. Kerwin Martin gave it as his opinion that it was a mistake to play matches with foreign teams so late in the year as October. If the English teams would not come sooner than that they shoud not be played. After discussion Secretary Hall was instructed to write to Phila-

Case of Alleged Smuggling Opium into Buffalo.

SHADOWED FROM TORONTO.

A Mysterious Stranger Calling Himself Detective Turns up in the Interest a'a Buffulo Doctor-A Promissary Note Figures in the Case.

Buffalo, April 23.—It is stated that amongst the cases to be tried at the Spring assizes in Simcoe is one to recover on a promissory note made by Henry F. Teeter, a Waterford, Ont., hotelkeeper for the sum of $525. The note is said to be the result of an unlawful bargain and has been destroyed by fire, with the loss therefore invalid. According to last evening's Times, in October, 1893, a wellknown Buffalo physician and his brother went to Teeter's hotel and arranged for the purchase of a large quantity of opium in Toronto, which Teeter was to bring to cordingly it is customary in preparing Buffalo on November 4th. On that day to shoot wild geese from a blind or some Teeter, it is alleged reached the Continental hotel in this city with the opium and met the doctor and his brother. One half the opium was at once handed to the doctor and Teeter was to convey the balance to the doctor's house at eight o'clock that evening, which he did. While sitting in the doctor's office a muffled up been left upon the marsh and approach and mysterious looking stranger forced his way into the room. "Well, I've got if two men go out and only one returns you, have I?" said he gruffly. Nothing further all the opium was not a detective, but an accomplice of the physician, who was brought on to swindle Teeter out of all part in the crooked transaction. It also showed that Robertson is related to the physician's wife and that the physician which he had drawn the check.
