NORTH OPS.

[Special to THE POST.] ANOTHER OF THE OLD LANDMARKS GONE. - Died at his home in North Ops, on the 16th of April, 1894, Richard Blevins, aged 85 years, who was born in Killyman, Tyrone county, Ireland, in 1809. He was one of the first settlers of this township, and one of the oldest settlers in this district, having come to this country in 1839 from the county of Tyrone, bringing with him his late partner in life, Mary Ann Clyde, second daughter of James Clyde, local min ster of the county of Armargh, Ire and, who died in 1868. They first settled in Brock township, but soon removed to this district, where he resided ever since. There are now left one son, three daughters, and seven grand children, to mourn the loss of a kind and good parent and guardian, his dear partner, who stood by him in the early struggle of life having passed away two years before him to that land to which we are all gradually moving. [Correspondence of THE POST.] WEDDING BELLS.-A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. John Brown, Fleetwood, on Tuesday, April 24th, at 4 o'clock p. m., when his daughter, Ida, was united in the bonds of holy wedlock to Mr. John Hutchinson, of Lindsay. The groom was supported through his trying ordeal by Mr. Chambers of Lindsay. Miss Totty Brown supported the bride. Precisely at 4 o'clock p. m. the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the parlor, where she was met by the groom, when the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Adams, of Bethany The bride looked charming in her dress of cream cord, trimmed with silk and pearl, with wreath and vell, carrying a boquet of flowers. The bridesmaid was also very pretty in her dress of cream serge, trimmed with cream silk. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner, when the usual congratulations for the future happiness of the bride and groom were extended. The presents were both handsome and costly, showing the esteem in which the bride is held. The following is a partial list of the presents:r. G. Brereton, Bethany, china chamber set; R. (Correspondence of THE POST.) OBITUARY. - Sadly indeed was the intelligence received, on Saturday morning last. that Wm. Beecroft, of Z on, had passed over to the borderland. Deceased contracted a heavy cold while attending the funeral of his late brother the Monday previous, which speedily developed into pneumonia, with this sad result. Mr. Beecroft was born in Nottinghamshire, England, in the year 1827, and emigrated to Canada with his parents when but a led of eight years old, and, with the exception of a very few years of his howhood days, his entire life has been spent in this neighborhood. It can be truly said of him toat his life and labors were not in vain. Starting in life but a poor lad, with nothing but an axe on his shoulder, by his indomitable perseverance and energy, and the blasings of a kind providence, he ga bered around him an excellent property He was a worthy example of what thrift and industry can accomplish. In politics he was a reformer of the most lib ral kind; as a neighbour and friend, he was universally esteemed and respected, and was & member and supporter of the Presoyterian church, of Sonys.
