COMING?

that the Dominion elections are approaching. The tories are again resurrecting the Trent Valley Canal. This high bribe | working of the registry office, and advised me is to do service, again, for the fifth time. To catch everyone within the political net, the following circular has been issued and sent broadcast:-

MAYOR'S OFFICE, believe that the present is a propitious time in hadies have convened a meeting of supporters of the canal scheme along the whole line, to be held in the town council chamber, Peterbore, on Wednesday, May 2nd, 1891, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It is hoped that every municipality interested will be well represented, -Yours

JAMES KENDRY, MAYOF,

The gentleman whose name is affixed to this circular is Mr. Kendry, the prospective tory candidate in West Peter: boro, as successor to the present member, who does not propose to offer again. For three or four years the report of the canal commission, (itself a farce as it was intended), has been public property yet the present agitators were, all the while, as dumb as oysters. But now, when the electorate must be blinded to the present great and grave issues, some deception must be practised. The tories know that tory rule at Ottawa is nearing its end. Doubt as they may, Mr. Mc-Carthy's tariff speeches have made terrible inroads upon the tory ranks, and led by him to ponder and think, many a conservative is led to exclaim "Why, this is the story we have been hearing all the while from the liberals-there must be something in it," and, as he thinks, he sees a great deal in it. The government feels disaster ahead, and so the edict has gone from Ottawa to Peterboro, "Draw a herring across the track." The herring Miss Silver, who had to respond to repeated Halligan, did any buying in the export line tois the Trent Valley canal. The hypocrisy n the sudden zeal is too transparent, but the trick is not a new one to tory tacticians. The electors have been deceived more than once, but it is not likely they will be 'guiled' again, for any municipa council to pay the travelling expenses their members to attend the buncombe masting at Peterbere is a waste of money and sets themselves laughed at for their sullibility: A more bare-faced scheme eatch the electors can hardly be conceived Mr. Fester professes and alleges sconom: anyway. " Of course there will be a meeting at Peterboro, but it will be a meeting of tory politicians, bent on this device to divert, if possible, public attention from

PETERBORO REGISTRY OFFICE.

With delight, bordering on mad ecatacy, the Empire and other tory journals indulged in attractive headlines on the alleged wrong-doings of the Peterboro registry office-roady to publish anything however false, it sought to excite sympathy by a tale of woe in behalf of Mr. Grundy, the deputy-registrar. He only received, said the Empire, $400 a year. send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends The truth is he received $800 a year, and open. Write your address carefully so swore before the public accounts committee; but the Empire publishes the sentimental lie al the same. Mr. Grundy, the deputy-registrar, who seems but a weakling, is taken advantage of by the tories, and his transparent feebleness of intellect is made use of to slander and malign Mr. Stratton. When subpoenced to appear before the public accounts committee, Mr. Grundy is suddenly impressed with his self-importance, and ere long the whole town is told of the fact, until the honor of Mr. Grundy is turned into a serious joke, so far as he is concerned. Every other one he meet terrorized the poor fellow with the ordeal he had to go through, and one man, as he told the committee, gave him to understand the result would be "he would wreck the constitution." His mind seems to have been wrought up to such a state that he became, quite unwillingly we hope, a willing witness either way. All this was perfectly selfevident, yet the tories publish slanders and called them scandals. Within 24 hours, however, the whole thing explodes and the tories are crawling back into their little holes and whispering to each other "What fools we were." The following publications re-act upon the slanders, and weaken and belittle the journals which publish them :-

which has not been paid for? Yours truly,

. R. Stratton, Esq. : DEAR SIR,-In answer to your favour of this morning. I would state that the only instrument registered in this that I am aware of, in which were directly or indirectly interested, that was not paid for in the usual course by your solicitors, is one of very recent date, a deed from Mr. A. E. Dixon to yourself. I am not positive but that your solicitors may have paid for that, but it does not appear in the books as having been paid by any one. I cannot recall to memory IS THE DOMINION ELECTION | your having at any time appeared personally at the registry office to register any document In my conversation with you in your office The political horizon contains the sign | before I went to Toronto you did not say to me: . Do not say anything that will compromise or implicate the government," but you merely asked me some questions in regard to the to be careful in my answers and see that they were correct .- Yours truly, H. GRUNDY.
