Worth Reading

The incidents of many diseases are such that it is unsafe to defer treatment. We are qualified to treat the most difficult cases where glasses will be of use. This law of the land does not protect you from a refractive defect, but you can protect yourself by consulting only responsible and qualified operators. We have made a special study of the human eye. Our Optical Department is equipped with the best apparatus for refractive work. We do not profess to perform miraculous or impossible cures. We know where an optician's services begin, and we give you the benefit of honest advice free. Almost daily we are consulted by persons who suffer from wrong treatment at the hands of charlatans whose regard for the profit on a pair of glasses outweighs any consideration for a patient's eyes. Now, it may be that you require glasses. It may be that you do not. Or it may be that you should have expert medical aid. In any case you incur no expense and run no risk in seeking our advice. We will examine your eyes free. If glasses will be of use to you, you may wear them or not from us as you please. All we urge upon you is the importance of learning the truth about your eyes, so that they are troublesome or your sight deficient.

According to the minutes of the hotel and street meeting of council held last Friday evening unknown to the press, the following were among the motions passed: Moved by Dep. Reeve Robson, seconded by Reeve Touchburn, that this council consider it advisable to send to Ottawa a large deputation of citizens, as can conveniently be done, to interview the minister of public works and to fully represent our claims for the improvement of our navigation river, etc., and that the necessary expenses be paid by this corporation.

Yess—Messrs. Graham, Touchburn, Bryans, Baldwin, Mallon, Robson, Barrows, Horn and Gillroy.

Moved by Coun. Sotherton, seconded by Coun. Mallon, that the treasurer accompany the deputation to Ottawa, and take sufficient money with him to purchase tickets and pay the necessary expenses of the deputation.—Carried.

THE SPRING ASSIZES.

Three Criminal and Four Civil Cases Formed the Docket.

The spring assizes opened on Tuesday week at 10 o'clock, Sir W. R. Meredith chief justice, presiding. Mr. W. R. Riddell, Q. C., of Toronto, had charge of the members of the local bar. N. B. Gash, of Toronto, and Mr. J. W. Bruce, of Collingwood, were in attendance. The business of the court concluded yesterday at 10 o'clock.

CRIMINAL CASES.

Queen vs. James O'Brien.—Prosecution for cutting up an old scow claimed by Capt. Geo. Crandell. The grand jury found "No Bill." W. R. Riddell for the crown; G. H. Hopkins for O'Brien.

Queen vs. John McNab.—The prisoner was charged under three indictments, and convicted of having attempted to rape a little girl nine years of age. The offence was committed in Mullock township. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and the prisoner was sentenced to seven years in Kingston penitentiary, with hard labor.

Queen vs. Henry English.—The accused was charged with having disposed of his goods with intent to defraud creditors. Verdict, not guilty. W. R. Riddell for crown; F. D. Moore for prisoner.

CIVIL CASES.

Hamilton vs. Taylor.—An action by James Hamilton against C. B. Taylor on several promissory notes. Settled between the parties. McIntyre & Stewart for plaintiff; G. H. Hopkins and Hugh O'Leary, Q. C., for defendant.

Dovey vs. Kitchison.—Adjourned to next jury sitting on condition that plaintiff pay costs of former enlargement and these costs of the day within 10 days, otherwise O'Leary, Q. C., for plaintiff; G. H. Hopkins for defendant.

Currie vs. Squires.—An action for slander. The plaintiff has been domestic for the defendant's house. On 10th October last the defendant lost $3 under circumstances which led him to acquire from the plaintiff as to the loss of the money. All the alleged utterances were either to the plaintiff or some of her relatives interested in her behalf. At the conclusion of the plaintiff's case the defendant moved for a non-suit, which his lordship seemed inclined to grant, and suggested that the action be dropped, each party paying their own costs. After a good deal of prying, the matter being between relatives, the action was dropped, each party paying their own costs.

W. R. Bruce and N. B. Gash, Toronto, for plaintiff; W. R. Riddell and T. Stewart for defendant.

THE GRAND JURY.

The following composed the grand jury: Fletcher Dix, Foreman; John C. Argue, Arthur Franks, Thos. Grimason, Wm. B. Graham, John Gardner, Donald Grant, John Jackson, Wm. Jordan, A. Primeau, J. P. Ryler, Jos. W. Watson.

Ops Bridge Carriage Shop.

Mr. Thos. Wetherup has received official notification from the Ontario minister of public works of his appointment to the position of caretaker of the Ops swing bridge, rendered vacant by the death of Robt. McCausland. There were a number of applicants, and Mr. Wetherup is being congratulated by many friends on being the lucky one. As he resides but a few yards from the bridge boatmen may rely upon prompt service at any hour of the day or night.

We understand the salary attached to the position is $200.

Caught in a Switch Frog.

Last Wednesday a little boy named Sid Topey, son of Mr. Topey, of the Grand Trunk, had his leg broken in a somewhat peculiar way. While walking along the track on his way home from the south ward school with a companion named Ed Hollingsworth, he challenged the latter to catch him, but as they ran a switch frog caught in a frog. Before he could free it Hollingsworth fell over him, and the sudden strain snapped the bone between the thigh and knee. Some neighbors took the little sufferer to his parents' home on Albert-st. south, and summoned a doctor, who set the broken limb.

Police Court Calendar.

Geo. Hillworth, the east ward youth who stole a pair of horse blinds from the Daily Home and sold them, was sentenced Tuesday by Magistrate McIntyre to a year in the Central Prison. He was under suspended sentence for a burglary committed some time ago.

The trial of Wm. Barriball on Saturday resulted in his being fined $5 and $25 South for his assault on young Smith last week. He was acquitted on the charge of assaulting Foster, as the latter had failed to display the warrant or call the young man with the stereotyped phrase, "You are my prisoner."

The Late Dr. W. V. Lynch.

At the meeting of the Lindsay board of education, held on Tuesday evening, the following resolution of condolence was moved by Mr. Thos. Stewart and seconded by Dr. Jeffers:

Resolved, that we the members of the Lindsay board of education, do hereby extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family of Dr. Wm. V. Lynch, who for several years prior to his death was a valuable member of this board, and whose death was associated with the highest character and the most distinguished services in the control and management of the educational interests of the town that mark men of his high position, and ever had the courage to express them, but always with courteous and unobtrusive moderation, and whose death was above the common level, and to know him was to be convinced that he was a man of an unselfish and earnest desire to promote the highest interests of his fellow-citizens.

We respectfully tender to the widow of our friend and colleague our deepest sympathy in the great bereavement she and her child have called upon them to suffer in the providence of God, to whose divine will it becomes us to bow with reverence.

The resolution was carried by a standing vote, and the clerk was instructed to have it suitably engrossed, signed and forwarded to Mrs. Lynch.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

DASHES HERE AND THERE.

The Death of Mr. H. Rathbun.

Mr. Herb Rathbun, brother of Messrs. E. W. and F. R. Rathbun, the well known lumbermen, passed away on Sunday, and his funeral took place Tuesday. He had not been enjoying good health for some time, and he was the father of Mr. John Bell, Q. C., Belleville.

Will Remove to Larger Premises.

Mr. George Galt, the former proprietor of the Hanson house, has rented the hotel owned by Mr. J. Duncan, next door to the Commercial house, kept by Mr. J. Dargan, and intends to keep a first class saloon, and will give good Hot Meals for 15c, with yard stable and shed room free. Times are hard and we must cut down expenses. A good dinner for 10c, down expenses. Don't forget the name, the "Grand Temperance House." Will be ready for business on the 14th day of May. GEORGE GALT.—W.

Wedding Bells.

Mr. Thos. Grills, youngest son of Mr. Abel Grills, of Manilla, was united in marriage to Miss Jessie McLean, eldest daughter of Mr. Alexander McLean, of the 11th con. of Mariposa, last week. A very large circle of friends gathered for the ceremony, which was effectively performed by Rev. A. H. Braze. The bride-maid was Miss Maggie MacLean, sister of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Abel Grills, cousin of the bridegroom. The congratulations were very hearty and the presents were many.

Collegiate Literary Society.

The regular meeting of the literary society was held last Friday evening, March 24 at four o'clock, in the assembly hall. Not only was the meeting attended by the members of the society, but a number of visitors were present. The program was opened by a piano duet, Misses Barr and Gregory, which was much appreciated by the audience. Miss Bowes then favored the society with a recitation, which, like all her former ones, was well received with admiring applause. Miss Teresa lived with admiring applause. Miss Teresa accompanied on the piano by Miss E. Spicer. Mr. Smith then gave a recitation, and Mr. A. H. Braze, who was instrumental in the audience were highly pleased. The Rev. W. R. Bruce then addressed the assembly, and gave the students of the school some very good advice. The meeting closed with the national anthem. It was decided that there would be no meeting next Friday on account of the lecture in the evening by Mr. Fanshew.

R. S. Porter's Wall Paper Display.

Dress is not everything—there are other dainty fabrics than those used for addressing the person. Next to ladies' costumes, perhaps, there is nothing more attractive than houses, the interiors of which are decorated with wall paper of artistic designs and well-blended colorings. Porter's bookstore had an excellent display of these goods Tuesday evening. Wall paper, with fringes and ceilings to match, were strung from ceiling to floor with attractive effect, forming a bright and attractive background, and in the foreground were shorter lengths and pieces put up with dexterous twist, and the "out ensemble" during the evening. Finishing touches were made by means of newly-arrived style in lamp-shade papers, and the display was covered with a varnished waterproof paper made to represent china tile, and intended for both rooms and other places where water splashes are likely to occur. Green and blue seemed to be the popular colorings in the different papers; yellow, too, are being used, but in all cases the artistic coloring is the feature. Our visitors are critics, and others whose sense of the beautiful in wall paper, at least, needs developing. Porter's display last night it can be seen that they are trying hard to satisfy the former and educate the latter. Porter's opening was indeed a great success.
